'World Giraffe Day' saves animals in the wild

ARTICLE AND PHOTOS COURTESY OF OAKLAND ZOO

Come join us in celebrating the fifth annual "World Giraffe Day" at Oakland Zoo!

With less than 80,000 giraffes remaining in the wild, the time to act is NOW. All funds raised from raffles and tickets purchased to feed our giraffes on this special day go to the Reticulated Giraffe Project in Kenya.

The reticulated or Somali giraffe is one of nine currently recognized subspecies, though recent genetic research suggests that it may merit full species status. Reticulated giraffes occur only in the arid rangelands of north-east Africa but little else is known about their biology, ecology or behavior. The Reticulated Giraffe Project, a partnership between Queen's University Belfast and the Kenya Wildlife Service, aims to address this lack of

A recent visitor to a meeting of Cub Scout Pack 273 in Union City might have noticed something a little different. It wasn't that there were girls at the meeting – that isn't new at all. Sisters of Cub Scouts have attended meetings and participated in Pack activities for years. For the first time, girls are officially part of Cub Scouts, learning the values of the Scouts and joining the ranks of boys who have contributed to communities throughout the U.S. for more than a century.

Summer Fun Without the Burn

Summer is here and with it are long days of outdoor living, enjoying the warm weather and sunlight. Summer is the time to garden, swim, take long walks and relax.

But one of the most important things you can do this summer to protect your health is to avoid a sunburn, says Dr. Tam Nguyen, a primary care physician with Washington Township Medical Foundation at the Nakamura Clinic in Union City.

Not only are sunburns painful but they also cause skin damage that can accelerate aging and, at times, lead to skin cancer, Dr. Nguyen explains. And sunburns are easy to avoid. The best prevention is to avoid direct sunlight, particularly between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. when the sun is the brightest and strongest.

But, he notes, that's not always possible or, for some, desirable. "We want to be outside to enjoy the nice weather. If you are working in a garden or hiking, it's not always possible to avoid the sun." A wide variety of sunscreens and sunblocks can help and covering up with long-sleeve shirts, pants and wide-brim hats also reduces the risk of sunburn.

The best sunscreen to use is a broad-spectrum sunscreen that blocks both forms of ultraviolet radiation (UVA & UVB), both of which can cause sunburn and skin damage that can lead to various forms of skin cancer. Most shoppers look at the SPF (sun protection factor) rating to determine what would be an effective sunscreen, but it's equally important to make sure your choice has both UVA and UVB protection. The SPF rating only focuses on UVB.

Dr. Nguyen says SPF 30 is effective for most skins, fair to dark. "The difference between SPF 30 and SPF 100 is only 2 percent," he explains. If you need a true sunblock, then sunscreens are not the answer. The two effective sunblocks are titanium dioxide and zinc oxide, minerals mixed in a heavy oil base that can effectively block the sun's rays. They are the white creams one often sees on the faces of lifeguards at the local pool.

"Sunblocks are effective for those parts of the skin that are continually exposed, like the face and nose," Dr. Nguyen says. "But it's not practical to cover one's entire body with sunblock so other strategies should be used." That's where covering up comes into play. For those particularly sensitive or concerned, some clothing comes with SPF built in, providing more protection.

Some parents are concerned about using sunscreen on children—they are worried that the chemicals in the lotions may be absorbed into the child's system. Dr. Nguyen says he has not seen any evidence that the ingredients in sunscreen have caused any harm to young children. "I recommend sunscreen and/or sunblock for children but, if a parent is concerned about it, covering up the child is a good alternative," he says.

Dr. Nguyen reminds sunscreen users that sunscreen wears and washes off. "A sunscreen may be advertised as waterproof, but there's no such thing in sunscreens," he adds. "Keep moisturizing your skin and always reapply after swimming and every four hours."

If you get a sunburn, Dr. Nguyen recommends using cold compresses to bring down the inflammation. Aloe vera creams or gels can help, as can an oatmeal bath or paste placed on the burned area. Use moisturizers to keep the skin moist and flexible. Finally, Dr. Nguyen says, "If you must have a tan, use artificial tanning creams and sprays. Do not ever use a tanning booth. The unfiltered light rays are very harmful to your skin."

Dr. Nguyen's summer creed: cover up, use sunscreen/sunblock, reapply, moisturize—four easy directives to enjoy the summer.

Is Your Heart Aflutter? Rather than Romance, the Cause Might Be AFib

Free Seminar Explains Risk Factors, Symptoms and Treatment Options for Atrial Fibrillation

Atrial fibrillation, often called AFib, is an abnormal heart rhythm caused by a malfunction of the heart's electrical system. The upper chambers of the heart – the atria – contract irregularly and in an uncoordinated fashion, causing the lower chambers – the ventricles – to beat erratically and inefficiently.

"AFib is a serious condition that increases your risk for stroke, heart failure and death," says Catherine Dao, MD, a noninvasive cardiologist with Washington Township Medical Foundation. "Approximately one in five strokes are related to AFib because blood can pool in the atria and form clots that could travel to the brain and cause a stroke. Many stroke patients were unaware that they had AFib before their strokes because they did not recognize the symptoms of AFib."

To help people in the community learn more about AFib and its symptoms, risk factors and treatment options, Washington Hospital is hosting a free Health & Wellness seminar featuring Dr. Dao on Tuesday, July 31, from 6 to 8 p.m. The seminar will take place in the Conrad E. Anderson, MD, Auditorium located in the Washington West building at 2500 Mowry Ave. in Fremont.

The risk of developing AFib increases as people age. Other substantial risk factors can include high blood pressure (hypertension), thyroid disease, diabetes and obesity.

"Common symptoms of AFib include heart palpitations, a sensation that your heart is racing or beating irregularly, chest discomfort, or shortness of breath," says Dr. Dao. "Many people with AFib have more vague symptoms, however, or they might have no symptoms at all." Dr. Dao will review other possible symptoms and additional risk factors at the seminar.

AFib can be diagnosed with an electrocardiogram (ECG), a noninvasive test that measures the electrical activity of the heart. "Since AFib may not occur all the time, some people might need to wear a small portable, battery-operated ECG called a Holter monitor for several days to obtain a diagnosis," Dr. Dao notes. "The Holter monitor measures and records the heart's rhythm continuously as a patient goes about regular daily activities."

AFib can occur in brief, self-limited episodes or it can be an ongoing condition. Dr. Dao will explain the different types of AFib and how they might progress into a permanent, chronic condition when the normal heart rhythm cannot be restored with treatment.

According to Dr. Dao, there are two main strategies for treating the actual rhythm disturbance that occurs during AFib. The first strategy is to keep patients out of AFib, and in "sinus rhythm"—the normal heart rhythm—often by using antiarrhythmic medications. In some cases, an AFib episode cannot be brought under control with medications, and a procedure is necessary to restore or maintain sinus rhythm. Dr. Dao will discuss the noninvasive and invasive procedures that are used in these situations during her talk.

The second strategy involves allowing patients to stay in

Learn signs and symptoms of atrial fibrillation at July 31 presentation.

AFib, but keeping their heart rate controlled. "This strategy might be more appropriate for patients with permanent AFib who have minimal or no symptoms," she says. "In these cases, I use various medications that help control the heart rate, which I can explain at the seminar."

Dr. Dao also will discuss how she takes a multidisciplinary approach to treating AFib by working with other physicians to treat conditions that contribute to AFib.

"For example, many people with sleep apnea are more prone to AFib," she says. "I often refer patients that I suspect may have sleep apnea to a sleep medicine specialist for evaluation and treatment. In other cases, people with diabetes may need to work with a primary care physician or an endocrinologist to manage their blood sugar levels, since diabetes is a big risk factor for AFib."

'World Giraffe Day' saves animals in the wild

information by investigating aspects of the animals' behavioral ecology and of the population processes operating upon them.

All over Africa, giraffes are in serious decline. Some 30 percent may have been lost in the past 10 years alone. The principal reasons are believed to be poaching, especially for meat, and loss of habitat. Reticulated giraffes seem to have fared especially badly, with a drop in numbers of more than 80 percent from perhaps 30,000 a decade ago to fewer than 5,000 today.

This year Oakland Zoo will be celebrating World Giraffe Day one week early, on Saturday, June 16. Giraffe feedings are $15 per person in addition to zoo admission. All children need to be accompanied by an adult. Both adults and children over two years old require tickets to be on the deck. Advanced tickets are sold out, but you can also purchase tickets first come, first serve in front of the giraffe exhibit on June 16. Quantities are extremely limited, so arrive early for the best chance of getting tickets! All proceeds collected from giraffe feedings go directly to help save giraffes in the wild.

Giraffe feedings will take place at the giraffe exhibit. Guests must be able to walk on uneven terrain, including through grass and dirt. The line for feedings will begin across from the Simba Pori Lion Exhibit stairs. Day-of tickets, raffles, and activity stations will also be along the front of the giraffe exhibit.

All raffle proceeds go to the Reticulated Giraffe Project. Participants do not need to be present to win. Raffle tickets are $5 and can be purchased at the raffle table. Prizes include a painting done by Benghazi the giraffe, an opportunity to come watch Benghazi make a painting, a chance to shadow a zoo keeper for a day, and a private behind the scenes giraffe tour for six guests!

Cub Scout Pack 273 welcomes first all-girl Tiger Den in Tri-City

Pack 273 is one of a handful of Packs nationwide in the Boy Scouts of America's (BSA) early adopter program, which welcomes girls into Cub Scouts before the official launch in June 2018. Now girls can learn skills, have outdoor adventures, and earn all the same awards and badges as the boys.

When Gaganpreet Bains approached Pack 273 with the proposal to start an all-girls den for his daughter, Riya, and other six and seven-year-old girls, they jumped at the opportunity. "As soon as we met Gagan, we could see how much he loved Scouting," said Vince Lee, committee chair for Pack 273.

For Bains, this was a dream come true. Scouting has been a part of his life for years. Bains earned the Eagle rank as a youth and volunteered in multiple Scouting programs as an adult. "Scouting helped to shape me into the person I am today. As a Scout, I gained confidence in myself and learned how to be a leader. I was thrilled when I learned that I would be able to share Scouting not only with my sons, but also with my daughter."

The girls in the Tiger Den have already earned their first badge, raced Pinewood Derby cars, and gone on several outings including a nature hike at Coyote Hills Regional Park. For Riya and the other girls, it is all about having fun. "I liked racing Pinewood Derby cars with my friends from school and I liked making a bird house even though we haven't seen any birds eating from it yet. I like reading my Scouts magazine where it talks about Scouts in Action and how they are heroes for saving people and using Scout stuff to save them," said Riya.

Ken Mehlhorn, Scout Executive/CEO for San Francisco Bay Area Council, is excited about the change. "So far the roll out of the new program has been smooth. Thousands of girls and their families are participating in the early adopter program across the country, having fun, learning, and creating memories that will last a lifetime. We are looking forward to June, when all packs can form girl dens, and February, when girls will be able to participate in our flagship Scouts BSA program [Formerly known as Boy Scouts]."

There are three girls in the Tri-City area that are anxiously awaiting that date. Melody Fewx, Felicia Lim, and Sofia Petrova have been active in BSA's Venturing program, a program open to boys and girls that brings the Scouting values to life through high adventure outdoor activities, since 2016. "When I was 12 years old, I went on a Cub Scout activity with my brother and my father, who was then Cubmaster," Melody said. "I loved it and have wanted to do all the things the Scouts do ever since. As soon as I turned 14, I joined Venturing."

Since joining the crew, the three have competed in Scout skill competitions, gone wilderness backpacking, winter snow camping, and participated in National Youth Leadership Training.

"Venturing has been great for me," said Felicia "I love being outdoors, and have learned so much about leadership and about myself. Before I joined the crew, I was too afraid to ever step up and do anything outside my comfort zone. Over the past year, I have learned to take charge of situations and lead with confidence."

While the three girls have loved Venturing, the lure of the Eagle rank is strong. Sofia said, "I really want to earn the Eagle. Our time schedule is extremely tight, but we have been getting a lot of support and we are going to try our best."

Mehlhorn believes that the changes will improve the program and help spread the ideals of Scouting to a wider audience. "The life lessons, character and citizenship development, and the ideals taught in Scouting benefit all youth. We are looking forward to welcoming these and other young women into our new program."

Local Relay For Life events merge

Relay For Life is the American Cancer Society's signature fundraiser cancer walk. During the 24-hour events members of the community take turns walking at all times to signify that cancer never sleeps. Events are staffed and coordinated by volunteers in more than 5,200 communities and 20 countries who give of their time and effort because they believe it's time to take action against cancer.

The free events are full of entertainment and activities, with the intention not only to raise money and awareness, but also to remember loved ones lost to cancer and celebrate survivors and those who are battling against cancer. Everyone is welcome to these fun community events.

This year several local events have merged to better serve their communities. Organizers decided to combine the many individual Relay events in order to unify resources and create more leadership and sponsorship. Fremont, Union City, and Newark combined into Relay For Life of Tri-City F.U.N. and will be holding their event Saturday and Sunday, June 23 and 24 at Newark Community Center Park. Opening ceremonies start at about 10 a.m. on Saturday, June 23 and include a special acknowledgement of cancer survivors and their caregivers. During the Luminaria Ceremony we represent everyone touched by cancer with a luminaria. Each light represents a life—a life taken by cancer, a survivor of cancer, or a support for a person still fighting the disease. It's a powerful demonstration that gives people the opportunity to grieve but also offers comfort and hope.

Castro Valley, Hayward, San Leandro, and San Lorenzo merged to become Relay For Life of the East Bay. That event will be held at Alden E. Oliver Sports Park in Hayward on Saturday and Sunday, August 4 and 5. Opening ceremonies are at 9 a.m. on Saturday, August 4 and will also include cancer survivors starting off the day's activities and the Luminaria Ceremony in the evening.

All funds raised at the Relay For Life events benefit the American Cancer Society, whose mission is to free the world from cancer by funding and conducting research, sharing expert information, supporting patients, and spreading the word about prevention.

You can find more information, including ways to get involved, at www.cancer.org/involved/fundraise/relay-for-life.html or email Christina.Olson@cancer.org.

'Bicultural' Parenting Workshop

In recognition of the important supportive role of parents in children and youth's social and emotional development, City of Fremont Human Services Department and Fremont Unified School District have jointly funded a series of free parenting workshops held at various school sites and community centers in 2017-2018. The workshop topic 'Raising bicultural children in a challenging environment' is particularly relevant for parents who grew up in a different cultural background than that of their children. Through the presentation, parents increase their understanding of the strengths and challenges of multiculturalism as well as characteristics of adolescents' development. They also learn how to cultivate a child's self-confidence, reinforce positive behaviors, and improve communication.

On Wednesday, June 20, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m., a parenting workshop will be held at the Fremont Resource Center (FRC) at 39155 Liberty St., H-800 Pacific Room. The presenter will be Joan Zhang, LMFT, and the workshop will be conducted in Mandarin language. Everyone is welcome to attend and pre-registration for attending the workshop is not required.

For more information about the parenting workshop, please contact Joyce Lim or Joan Zhang at Fremont Human Services Department's Youth & Family Services Division at (510) 574-2100.

Self-marketing

SUBMITTED BY KNUTI VANHOVEN

"It's a common dilemma for writers—your book is almost complete when you realize that you have no idea how people will find out that it exists, or why they might want to read it." That's according to Knuti VanHoven of the Fremont Area Writers group.

"As you look around, you notice that readers aren't just selecting books by reading plot summaries or a few pages," says VanHoven. "Often their primary motivation to buy is that they've become fans of authors, and if they haven't heard of you, your book won't get a second glance. You're stuck with the reality that not only is it necessary to sell your book, but you yourself are a product in need of marketing!"

Welcome to the world of photos, author bios, live readings, book signings, and interview techniques. These are just a few of the tools that you'll need to create a media image that will attract the people who'll want to buy what you have to offer.

Fremont singer/director/promoter Knuti VanHoven will be introducing the brave new world of self-marketing in her interactive presentation, 'Creating Your Own Media Image' at Fremont Area Writers' monthly meeting, 2 p.m. on Saturday, June 23.

As an actress, writer, director, producer, and agent, VanHoven has over two decades experience in developing promotional materials. She has worked with graphic artists, copywriters, ad agencies, professional video and still photographers, musicians, and sound engineers. She has trained over a thousand performers, models, and speakers to sell their messages in stage, radio, TV, print, and corporate presentations.

Is there one right way to do this? "No," VanHoven answers emphatically, "but after this session you'll have a much clearer idea of your options."

Fremont student wins national composition award

SUBMITTED BY KARA SZAMBORSKI

Fourth grade student Karissa Tang has won a national Incentive Award for her musical piano composition 'Lost in Thought.' Presented by the National Federation of Music Clubs (NFMC) in their Junior Competition, this award is one of four at the national level that includes a cash prize. Karissa's composition won in her age group at the NFMC Western Regionals before advancing to the national competition.

"I was listening to other songs and I wanted something more peaceful," says Karissa. "I thought, 'how would I feel if I was daydreaming?'" She effectively translated this feeling into music for her piano piece.

A student of BASIS Independent Fremont, a local private school providing a globally competitive education, Karissa gets to expand her musical horizons every week in a class devoted to the subject.

"It's fantastic to see Karissa's growth as a musician at such a young age," says Brian Bosley, her music teacher at BASIS Independent Fremont. "Her musical maturity is apparent, and I look forward to hearing her future works!"

Karissa's piece was performed by the Fremont Symphony Orchestra on March 20, 2018 after being submitted to the Fremont Young Composer contest for the Fremont Unified School District.

Will Condos Replace the Cloverleaf Bowl?

A developer is proposing to tear down all the buildings in the old Fremont Center at the corner of Fremont Boulevard and Grimmer Boulevard in Irvington and replace them with 272 housing units. The Cloverleaf Family Bowl, which has greeted generations of bowlers with its colorful angled roof entrance, is one of the buildings that would be demolished.

shopping center potentially have historically significant architecture from the Post-World War II era and may require historic evaluations and reviews by the Historical Architectural Review Board (HARB). Guidelines for evaluating architecture from this era will be reviewed by the City Council on June 19 and are expected to apply to all future developments.

Commission for consideration in making their decision or recommendation.

Early Public Input

This proposal was recently submitted to the Fremont Planning Department for a Preliminary Review Process (PRP). During this process, city planners will review preliminary plans from several different aspects. Within 30 days, the Planning Department will prepare a report of any issues it finds. The developer can then use this information to decide whether to go forward with the project and help them shape their Formal Development Application.

Apartments and Condos

The proposed project site extends from Fremont Boulevard west to Bay Street, and from Grimmer Boulevard south to the edge of the commercial property. It includes the Bank of America and the row of businesses immediately south of that along Fremont. All existing commercial buildings on the site are proposed to be demolished except the Taco Bell drive-in restaurant.

Preliminary plans include 140 rental apartment units in four buildings along Fremont and Grimmer. The two buildings that face Fremont would also have commercial spaces on the ground floors. The rest of the property would include 132 for-sale condominium units clustered in twelve buildings. The developer proposes to pay in-lieu fees rather than providing any affordable housing on site, so all units will be sold or rented at prevailing market rate.

The Irvington Savings building has been in this location since 1963 and is an example of the International style of architecture popular at the time. The Cloverleaf Family Bowl was originally built in this location in 1959, and expanded in 1963, and again in 1974. The building is one of Fremont's last examples of the 1950s and 60s Googie style of architecture, which featured bright colors and exaggerated 'space-age' angular roof lines. Both buildings were part of Fremont's rapid growth period following the opening of the General Motors assembly plant in the early 1960s.

Because of the size of the project, and the fact that the current tenant leases expire at different times, construction would be in three phases. If the project is approved, the first phase may start as early as 2020.

As part of their review, HARB may recommend changes to the proposed project to preserve the historically significant architecture of either of these structures. This may include keeping one or both structures intact and make them part of the new development. HARB recommendations would be reviewed by the Planning

As part of the PRP, the public is encouraged to submit comments, concerns, and questions directly to the assigned city planner. This is the best time to raise issues because it allows city staff to identify problems and find possible solutions with the developer before work begins on a more detailed formal application.

City ordinance prompts hike in minimum wage

SUBMITTED BY ALICE KIM

Workers in San Leandro who earn minimum wage will see a $1 boost in their hourly pay to $13 per hour effective July 1. The increase is part of an ordinance adopted by the San Leandro City Council in September 2016 that accelerates local implementation of the State of California's minimum wage laws over several years. The annual implementation schedule of local hourly minimum wage requirements will be:

- July 1, 2018 — $13
- July 1, 2019 — $14
- July 1, 2020 — $15

Under the ordinance, employees who assert rights to receive the city's minimum wage are protected from retaliation. Employees may file a civil lawsuit against employers for any violation of the ordinance. Employees may also notify the city's Finance Department if they believe an employer is failing to abide by the ordinance.

More information about the ordinance, including wage bulletins for employers is posted on the San Leandro website at www.sanleandro.org/mimimum-wage.

Reading takes you everywhere, a winning strategy

SUBMITTED BY
SANTA CLARA COUNTY LIBRARY DISTRICT

The San Francisco 49ers will join the Santa Clara County Library District (SCCLD) for this year's Summer Reading program, which started on Friday, June 1 and lasts through July 31. The 49ers join returning sponsors The Tech Museum of Innovation and Gilroy Gardens Family Theme Park in supporting SCCLD's 2018 Summer Reading programming—Reading Takes You Everywhere.

"The addition of the 49ers as a program sponsor will encourage kids and adults alike to get engaged with summer reading, which this past year saw more than 20% participation growth from the year before," said Nancy Howe, County Librarian. "We especially want our young people to soar and not slide when it comes to retaining the skills they learned during the school year. The library is a great place for inspiration and to discover something new and exciting."

Dozens of events are planned across SCCLD's eight libraries during June and July, ranging from science shows, to reading events for kids, to author talks for adults. The heart of Summer Reading is to challenge each participant to read at least five books. There will be tote bags for adult participants and incentives for children to encourage them to take part.

All kids and teens ages 6-18 who register for the program at www.sccl.org/summer2018 and reach this goal by July 31 will receive a reward of free books and two passes to a 49ers training camp practice in August (while supplies last). They will also be entered to win special 49ers prizes which consist of autographed 49ers memorabilia or a chance to win the grand prize, a special 49ers Pre-Season Game Day Experience. "The crux of the 49ers community efforts is to educate and empower youth, and over the years we've put a strong emphasis on increasing literacy opportunities for children," said 49ers Community Relations Director Stacy McCorkle. "We are excited to support Santa Clara County Library District's efforts to encourage children and adults to continue learning through the 'Reading Takes You Everywhere' program."

This year, SCCLD is also challenging all Summer Reading participants to collectively read 100,000 books by July 31. If each participant reaches their goal of five books this summer, the community will exceed the 100,000 threshold. Books, stories and reading are an enjoyment for all ages. Want to discover something new? Visit a fantasy world? Learn about the past? Explore the future? You can do it all with a good book. You're never too young to be introduced to books and you're never too old to enjoy them. As the theme says, "Reading Takes you Everywhere".

"I am so happy to see the San Francisco 49ers supporting our Summer Reading program," said County Supervisor and Library Joint Powers Authority Board Chairman, Mike Wasserman. "It's a win for the entire county with these two important community organizations representing learning and professional sports coming together in such a meaningful way. Touchdown!"

More information about Summer Reading can be found at www.sccl.org/summer2018

Get fit at the library

SUBMITTED BY JUI-LAN LIU

While the library is a great source for finding books about fitness and nutrition, few patrons immediately think of it as a place for fitness activities and exercises. Officials from the Fremont Main Library want to spread the word about a "Fitness, Nutrition and Trigger Points" program that provides a great opportunity to get moving and enjoy various workouts with certified and experienced instructors. Participants will learn about new fitness activities and have fun at the same time.

The next session will meet at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 23 and will be led by Christopher Randle, MS, who will discuss fitness, nutrition and trigger points. Muscle knots are a common cause of stubborn aches and pains. Participants can learn to use manual therapy to relieve these problems and learn about some common trigger points that will help improve general physical function and alleviate headaches, eyestrain, and other symptoms. This session is designed to help participants feel loose and relaxed after they leave and provide them with tools to use for a lifetime of fitness.

Also on hand will be Chris Randle, team acupuncturist for the Golden State Warriors. He will discuss acupuncture and massage. Randle has practiced Chinese Medical Massage (Tui Na) and T'ai Chi for 19 years and earned his Master of Science from the American College of Traditional Chinese Medicine.

Tri-City Stargazer FOR WEEK: JUNE 13 – JUNE 19, 2018

For All Signs: Venus, known to the ancients as the goddess of love, makes an unusual number of aspects to the other planets this week. This suggests that many of us will be preoccupied with issues and interests concerning our involvement with others. Venus rules not only romantic love, but also the principle of relatedness among people, whatever that relationship may be. The free-flowing aspects of Venus this week favor non-sexual friendships. The tenser aspect is connected to our closest intimates, the ones with whom we share our sexuality or our money and material resources. These two human interests, sex and finances, lend themselves to overt and subtle issues of control. During tension aspects of Venus we are more easily drawn into battles over power unless we consciously circumvent the impulse to manipulate others.

Aries the Ram (March 21-April 20): You have intense aspects during this period, particularly related to romance, spending, play, and children. You are subject to major dramas in these areas, and they may be both positive and negative. One way to do this is to break up with one person while falling head over heels for another.

Taurus the Bull (April 21-May 20): A relationship or friendship that began with gusto in late March arrives at a point of evaluation. The question of commitment may always be an issue in this situation. The Bulls are careful about commitment because they mean it. Some of the other signs are not so persevering. Watch your step.

Gemini the Twins (May 21-June 20): You may have unexpected expenses this week. Or it might be a difference of opinion with your partner about how to manage joint resources. If the disagreement is not readily resolved, you may do better to set it aside for now and come back to the issue when you have had more time to consider it.

Cancer the Crab (June 21-July 21): This is not your smoothest week. Details may nag your mind and your time like pecking ducks. You and significant others are not having the best of communications right now. You may be in the mood to nit-pick others. Probably you will feel generally better if you work alone.

Leo the Lion (July 22-August 22): Either you or others in your life are behaving erratically. It is difficult to make firm plans or sustain a solid conversation. This sometimes generates a rift between you and another because one of you needs to be alone. Don't fight it. Just let it be. It is temporary. Take it with a spoonful of generosity and humor.

Virgo the Virgin (August 23-September 22): Beware of the tendency to obsess and worry over matters that may never happen. You are tempted to see the world through a dark lens this week and you may think that is the true version. It's more likely that the pessimistic view is extreme. Don't ruminate. Do what you can and then let it go.

Libra the Scales (September 23-October 22): Intensity in relationships is the theme of the week. If you are not conscious, you could be pulled into schemes of manipulation or compulsive behaviors. Existing relationships could re-experience the pain of old wounds. You have a choice of whether to work it through or act it out in the same ways as the first time. If things feel 'icky,' someone is manipulating.

Scorpio the Scorpion (October 23-November 21): Love life may be intensely creative, or it may just be intense and challenging. It depends on the foundation of trust in the relationship. This is a good time to be honest with each other, but do be kind about it, Scorpions. Sometimes your voice sounds like judge, jury and executioner, especially if you feel threatened.

Sagittarius the Archer (November 22-December 21): A family member or a close friend may offer you a meaningful gift this week. Activities involving travel, collecting past debts, and arranging the details of your estate are favored. You and a partner are simpatico now and intimate conversations are productive.

Capricorn the Goat (December 22-January 19): Relationship to partner(s), whether business or personal, are strained at present. If you feel discomfort, look for the assumption or the illusion that is cracking. It is painful. The relationship will ultimately be improved or broken by the quality of your honesty together. Either way, you will be in better condition long term.

Aquarius the Water Bearer (January 20-February 18): Your significant other may be acting like a horse's patootie right now, but you don't have to follow suit and play in the same court. Neither of you is being served by sharp words and irritable behavior. "Prove it if you love me" is a game left over from the cave people. Leave it alone.

Pisces the Fish (February 19-March 20): Unsettling news or information comes your way this month. It is hard to separate fact from fiction. Don't act upon it unless you are certain of its veracity. The cosmos is full of tricks right now. Stay in touch with a trusted associate who can help you as you travel through the maze.

Home & Garden

With awnings, you've got it made in the shade!

By DAVID R. NEWMAN

Awnings can not only improve the look of your home, but they can also increase your usable living space by protecting patios and porch areas from the elements. Whether you're hosting a summer BBQ and want your guests to be protected from harsh UV rays, or simply want to enjoy a cup of coffee on a rainy morning without getting drenched, awnings will have you covered.

Michael Spear, who has been running the Zebra Awning Company in San Francisco for over 30 years, says, "A lot of people don't really notice awnings. They walk blindly through areas that are protected by awnings and they never notice them. Until they have a need for one, and then they see them everywhere."

Historically, awnings were commonly made from wood and natural fiber canvas. While these materials are relatively inexpensive, they often require more maintenance and more frequent replacement than modern materials. They are also highly flammable. California state law now requires homeowners to use fireproof material for all awnings and other outdoor fabric structures.

A typical awning consists of fabric that is stretched tightly over a light framework of aluminum, iron, or steel. Thanks to advancements in the manufacturing of synthetic materials like acrylic, vinyl, and polyester, homeowners now have a wide variety of safe and colorful fabrics to choose from. They are highly durable and easy to maintain, and unlike canvas, won't fade as easily, and are mildew and mold resistant. Awnings can also be made out of metal or fiberglass, though these are more commonly seen in commercial applications.

The lifespan of a modern fabric awning runs anywhere from 5-15 years. This is assuming proper maintenance. Says Spear, "It's important to rinse your awnings off at least one to two times a year. Dirt in the air and sap from trees can build up, which promotes the growth of mold. Then when the sun shines on it and kills off the mold it can leave stains that are difficult to remove."

Awnings come in all shapes and sizes, with a vast variety of trim styles and colors. This can be a little overwhelming for homeowners. Thankfully, most awning companies can help in the decision-making process by providing design services. They often use computer software programs that can illustrate what your home will look like with new awnings. If you're replacing old, faded awnings, you can try out new colors or styles.

If you're willing to spend a little more money, then you may want to invest in a retractable awning, which will give you a little more flexibility when using an outdoor space. These can be opened and closed manually, or by the push of a button on motorized models.

One of the leading manufacturers of motorized systems used in retractable awnings is Somfy. Maud Demurge, Exterior Market

Manager for North America, says, "We offer a wide variety of control options for all of our motorized products, including awnings. Some of Somfy's control options include wall-mounted switches, hand-held remotes, or myLink smartphone and tablet apps, and even voice control with Amazon Alexa. Somfy also offers automation of awnings through weather sensors for wind, rain and sun to bring more security, peace of mind and comfort to users."

Not only can awnings increase your living space, but they can also protect your interior from the sun and help reduce your energy costs. Says Demurge, "Awnings are a great way to control room brightness and protect indoor furniture, carpets, and drapes from the sun's UV rays to prolong their life. They block the sun from entering the home during hot days, allowing a significant reduction in air conditioning costs. According to the U.S. Department of Energy, awnings can reduce heat gain in your home by up to 77 percent while in use."

Small and medium sized awnings can be purchased premade from places like Costco and Home Depot for $150-$600 and are fairly easy to install. Zebra Awning sells a single door awning that is customized to a client's taste for $300. Larger patio awnings can cost up to $700. Manual retractable awnings cost $250-$1,000. Motorized retractable awnings can range from $1,000-$4,000.

Get the most out of your summer by creating an inviting shaded area in your backyard where you and your guests can relax in comfort. Or, by adding awnings to the front of your home, you'll not only boost your curb appeal, but you'll also be sending the message that you're one cool customer.

For more information, contact Zebra Awning Company, Inc. at (415) 821-4000 or visit www.zebraawning.com, call Somfy at (800) 227-6639 or visit www.somfysystems.com.

Eucalyptus trees and shrubs don't have much of a California fan club. Their contribution to assorted fires keeps planting folk leery. However, according to Flower Arranger magazine, eucalyptus is simply splendid for aromatic flower arrangements. Let's look.

There are more than 700 species, or types, of Eucalyptus. The 'little' ones get to 33 feet tall. The taller ones get over 200 feet tall. Several species are among the tallest trees in the world. Only coast redwoods are taller.

During the Gold Rush, back in the 1850s, Australians introduced Eucalyptus to California. Our State government was enthusiastic. Thousands were planted for use as railway ties, furniture making and construction. This didn't work out well. Wood for furniture warped. Dried wood was too tough for railway ties. But the trees remained. They were used as windbreaks, shade and ornamentals. Fortunately, and unfortunately, Eucalyptus leaves are chock full of oil. Leaf litter piles are highly flammable. Super-hot days and careless folk make a Eucalyptus forest a torch.

On the other hand, there is a super business these days in extracted Eucalyptus oil. It is a disinfectant, a cleansing agent, a deodorizing agent, a decongestant, a cough drop ingredient, a wound antiseptic, and an insect repellent. Insects, birds, and bats love the flower nectar. The nectar from some species of Eucalyptus can be used to create honey.

However, some folk are allergic to Eucalyptus aroma and ingredients. Also, excess nibbling on the leaves will make you sick. All this pro and con brings us back to flower arranging. Young leaves are best for fresh designs. Cut stems at a 45-degree angle. Place cuttings in warm water with added flower food. Eliminate any leaves below the water line. Recut tips before placing in a vase with water. Cuttings can last up to three weeks. Use older stems for dried flower arrangements. They can last for years.

For more Eucalyptus fun, make a wreath. You can use just one variety, but a mixed leaf wreath is quite lovely. For ideas, check out the Internet. Online prices start at about $60 and go up. One really cute one has lemons tucked into the wreath, yellow charming against the grey. If you want a Eucalyptus project, try growing from seed. First find a tree you like. The Silver Dollar plant is often preferred for flower arranging. To collect, after the flowers fall off, the woody seed capsules remain. Open and shake over purchased soil. Lightly cover. Mist daily. Once seeds sprout, you can carefully move sprouts into small pots and onward. Remember, Eucalyptus get to be very big trees and grow very energetically.

Quirk honors Hayward nonprofit meal agency

Mark Salinas, Executive Director of TKBC, Frank Garcia, Chair of the Board of Directors and by Dr. Marlena Uhrik, founder of TKBC on the California Assembly Floor

SUBMITTED BY TOMASA DUENAS

During a celebration in Sacramento honoring California nonprofit agencies, Assemblyman Bill Quirk (D-Hayward) recently honored The Kids Breakfast Club as the 2018 Non-Profit of the Year for the 20th Assembly District.

The Kids' Breakfast Club, otherwise known as TKBC, was founded by Dr. Marlena Uhrik 26 years ago to ensure neighborhood kids and their families have access to adequate nutrition and educational activities outside of school.

"Wow! To be recognized with other outstanding California nonprofits doing incredible work throughout the state is an incredible honor," said Mark Salinas, Executive Director of TKBC. "The Kids' Breakfast Club has served Hayward kids and families for over 25 years and we've become a 100 percent volunteer-based organization. Everybody in the organization is deeply humbled to be recognized by Quirk as his Non-Profit of the Year."

"The need to provide California's kids with breakfast while school is not in session has never been greater than today," Quirk said. "The high cost of living in the Bay Area makes it very difficult for hard working families in Hayward to make ends meet. Research is clear that good nutrition is important for a child's physical and mental health. Lack of access to food or going to school hungry significantly impacts a child's ability to succeed."

TKBC's success over the years has been based on the generosity and time from Hayward Area community members, businesses, students, as well as students from Bay Area colleges and universities. Breakfast and activities are always free and over the years kids and families have depended on TKBC for nutrition on Saturdays, spring and winter breaks, and in the summer. Last year TKBC served its one-millionth meal and has a volunteer base of more than 500 people.

Wieckowski names Nonprofit of the Year

Beth Williams and Esther Perez-Dieckmann of Next Door Solutions with Sen. Bob Wieckowski

SUBMITTED BY JEFF BARBOSA

State Senator Bob Wieckowski honored Next Door Solutions for Domestic Violence as the 2018 Nonprofit of the Year for Senate District 10 on June 7 during the 3rd Annual California Nonprofits Day in the state Capitol.

"I am pleased to honor Next Door Solutions as the Nonprofit of the Year for Senate District 10," said Wieckowski, a member of the Senate Judiciary Committee. "Next Door Solutions provides a wide array of critical services for domestic violence victims to move them away from danger to safety, self-resiliency, and personal development. Its programs, counseling, and guidance provide domestic violence survivors with a foundation of support and opportunities to enhance their personal budgeting and job-readiness skills. Since 1971, its services have helped thousands of survivors find a pathway to peace and new opportunities in their lives."

Next Door Solutions is the leading provider of domestic violence prevention services in the South Bay.

"We are deeply honored to be recognized by Senator Wieckowski as his Nonprofit of the Year," said Executive Director Esther Perez-Dieckmann. "We appreciate Sen. Wieckowski's continued leadership in fighting domestic abuse and keeping it at the forefront of public policy discussion. This recognition is a reflection of the hard work of our volunteers and staff since becoming established 1971. Their efforts have made Next Door Solutions a leading voice locally and statewide to end domestic violence and other forms of gender-based violence. As the largest and oldest domestic violence agency in Santa Clara County, we answer more than 14,500 crisis calls and provide direct service to nearly 3,000 unduplicated clients annually, in addition to having the first bilingual shelter in the nation. We look forward to working with Sen. Wieckowski and other elected officials to end domestic violence."

Each day, about 5,410 Californians are victims of domestic violence abuse. Half of these victims seek emergency shelter and the rest use other services offered by providers, such as legal assistance and children's counseling.

Preventing Food Waste– Tips to Help You Eat Well and Waste Less

Did you know 63 million tons of food is wasted in the United States every year?

Wasted food is a growing problem with profound financial, social, and environmental impacts. Food scraps and food-soiled paper are the largest single item in our waste stream—making up about 35% of what we throw away in Alameda County. By making small changes in how you shop, prepare, and store food, you can toss less, eat well, save money, and save resources used to produce and distribute food.

StopFoodWaste.org aims to help residents keep food from going to waste, with tips on how to plan, shop, store and prepare food, so households save money and less food ends up in the landfill. Downloads include a fruit and vegetable storage guide, shopping list and more. Sign up on the mailing list to get tips and recipes to help reduce food waste and save money.

All the performers have received their training through CVDAA, with some having taken CVDAA classes during several of their formative years.

Founded 15 years ago by Michael Lushington, the CVDAA program offers drama classes after school at all levels—elementary, middle and high school—as well as summer classes for middle school and high school students. The CVDAA philosophy is that no student, or audience member, is turned away for lack of funds. Class sizes are small enough to allow individual attention to

What do a baton twirler, a snake handler, and a young woman talking about her mother's death all have in common?

students. However, this vision cannot be realized, and classes cannot continue, without community support.

This benefit performance for CVDAA is directed by Michael Lushington, who originally saw a production of 'Talking With' in the late 1980's and was struck by the unique voices of each of the women in the play. He and Assistant Director Johnna Joy Ashton (once a CVDAA student herself and now program administrator) wanted to share these conversations on faith and career with the community. They also saw the opportunity to honor some of the incredibly strong acting talent exhibited by these young actresses: Liva Langer, Sarah Dove, Molly Brennan, Bella Stuewe, Emily O'Dwyer, Izabella Baker, Izzy Neves, and Isabella Ruiz.

Playwright Jane Martin, who wrote 'Talking With,' is the Banksy of the theater world; although her true identity is unknown, her body of work is well-known, especially 'Keely and Du,' which was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize and received the American Theater Critics Association New Play Award in 1994.

Tickets are $30 for adults and $25 for students. Purchase in advance on the www.cvdAA.org website, or at the door.

San Leandro advocates for national infrastructure investment

SUBMITTED BY ALICE KIM

City leaders from across the country recently convened in Washington D.C. during Infrastructure Week 2018 (May 14-21, 2018) to highlight the current state of America's infrastructure and to urge Congress to increase federal funding for local projects. City leaders participated in a range of advocacy events including a panel discussion on developing a skilled workforce that can design, build and maintain the complex systems in America's infrastructure.

As part of these efforts, a coalition of local elected officials including San Leandro City Council Member Corina Lopez and representatives from the National League of Cities traveled to Capitol Hill to meet with key members of Congress and committee staff to make the case for prioritizing enhanced federal investment in infrastructure. With the nation facing a $2 trillion investment gap, the coalition highlighted the need to simultaneously invest in workforce development programming as well as local projects benefiting the public.

As the City Council's representative, Councilmember Lopez outlined the needs of San Leandro's residents before key decision makers in Congress and contributed to discussions related to transportation, roads, bridges, water and broadband. Lopez currently serves as the Vice Chair of the Information Technology and Communications Federal Advocacy Committee with National League of Cities; the trip was funded by the League based on her leadership role in the organization.

Brucato named Scholar-Athlete of the Year

Women's Volleyball

STEVE CONNOLLY

Cal State East Bay (Hayward) senior volleyball player Brandi Brucato has been named California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year, the conference office announced June 7, 2018. The distinguished award is voted on by the Faculty Athletics Representatives (FARs) from each of the CCAA's 13 institutions, and it honors student-athlete excellence in the classroom, in the community, and in competition.

"Brandi Brucato came to Cal State East Bay as a freshman in the fall of 2014," recalled CSUEB professor and chair of Anthropology, Geography & Environmental Studies and David Larson, who also serves as the Pioneers' FAR. "Her goals were to play intercollegiate volleyball, graduate in four years, and get accepted to Pharmacy School. She has checked every box.

"Along the way, she competed in every match in each of her four years, twice earned All-CCAA honors, and will graduate Summa Cum Laude in biological sciences with a minor in chemistry. In the ten years I have served as Cal State East Bay's FAR, we have never had a student-athlete who has so personified excellence across the board. Brandi has been an extraordinary representative of this university on the court and off."

Brucato's list of academic honors is extensive. She has been named to the Cal State East Bay Dean's List for 10 quarters and is graduating Summa Cum Laude holding a 3.94 grade point average in her studies. Along with earning CCAA All-Academic honors the past three seasons, she's also twice been named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District Team and is the back-to-back recipient of the Dr. Hal Charnofsky Memorial Award.

The Reno, Nev., native has also been active in her efforts in the community throughout her four years at CSUEB. She has served as the Pioneer volleyball team representative on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee throughout her time on campus, holding the offices of vice president, community service chairman, and secretary. Brucato has actively organized and participated in many service projects, including canned food drives for the Alameda County Community Food Bank, Make-a-Wish and Team Impact events, and back-to-school shopping with under-privileged children in the community.

On the court, Brucato anchored a Cal State East Bay defense that finished eighth in the nation in digs per set in 2016. She helped the Pioneers reach the postseason two years in a row, earned a spot on the 2017 CCAA All-Tournament Team, and was a back-to-back All-CCAA honorable mention selection. She finished her career ranked second in school history in career digs and seventh in career service aces.

"Brandi has performed exceptionally well in leading her peers — be it in practice, in matches, or as a valued member of our athlete department's Student Athlete Advisory Committee," noted retiring volleyball coach Jim Spagle. "She was elected team captain for the past two seasons, and her proven leadership skills were a critical component in our team's success.

"Respectful and poised, she attacks her goals relentlessly and powers through the challenges student-athletes face," Spagle added. "Her high standards and competitiveness are second to none, as Brandi possesses a powerful focus in achieving success at all levels."

After walking the stage at Cal State East Bay's graduation ceremony this Friday, Brucato will turn her focus to Pharmacy School matriculating to a graduate program in pharmacology in Arizona.

Miami Marlins select CSUEB's Vesia

The Miami Marlins selected Cal State East Bay (Hayward) senior Alex Vesia in the 17th round of the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft June 6, 2018, making him the 507th overall pick. Vesia is the fourth CSUEB player selected — and the highest pick — in the MLB Draft since the program joined NCAA Division II and the California Collegiate Athletic Association in 2009, joining Devin Grigg (2010), Charlie Sharrer (2013), and Myles Babitt (2016).

"This has been a dream of mine since I was a sophomore in high school," Vesia said. "I am so thankful that the Marlins have given me this opportunity. I have to thank my coaches and East Bay, my family, and everyone who has supported me from the beginning. It has been an amazing journey these past four years at East Bay."

Vesia is a three-time All-CCAA honoree, a two-time All-West Region selection, and he was voted CSUEB's 2017-18 Male Athlete of the Year. The southpaw enjoyed his best season as a senior, posting an 8-2 record in 78.2 innings. He ranked No. 2 in the CCAA in wins, earned run average, strikeouts, and opponent batting average. His 1.95 ERA is the lowest by a Pioneer pitcher in the CCAA era (among qualified starters), and he rattled off a streak of 45 consecutive innings without allowing an earned run during March and April. Vesia was twice named CCAA Pitcher of the Week during that stretch.

The Alpine, Calif. native also cemented his place as one of the best hurlers in the history of Pioneer baseball. This season he became Cal State East Bay's all-time leader in career wins (24), strikeouts (249), and innings pitched (313.2). He also boasts the 10th-best career ERA in program history at 3.01.

West Nile virus prompts mosquito abatement spraying

SUBMITTED BY UNION CITY PD

Mosquitoes and birds infected with West Nile virus have been detected near Ponderosa Cove Park in Union City. In response, the Alameda County Mosquito Abatement District planned to treat the area with an insecticide from 10 p.m. to midnight on Friday, June 8.

The Pyrenone 25-5 Public Health Insecticide registered by the US Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and California EPA for use in mosquito control is routinely used throughout the United States to control mosquitoes.

"The presence of multiple West Nile virus infected mosquitoes and birds in this area are a threat to the health of people living in nearby neighborhoods," said General manager Ryan Clausnitzer. "The district is dedicated to protecting the health of Alameda County residents and based on our assessment of infected mosquitoes and from the public's assistance in locating infected birds by calling the dead bird hotline, we feel that action is needed to reduce the presence of adult mosquitoes in this area."

To date in Alameda County, two West Nile virus positive dead birds and two groups of positive mosquitoes have been detected. No human cases have been reported. Anyone who comes across a dead bird is asked to report it by calling (877) 967-2473 or online at www.westnile.ca.gov.

Mariners capture Division III title

Softball

SUBMITTED BY MOREAU CATHOLIC ATHLETICS

On the last day of North Coast Section (NCS) competition at 9:30 p.m., the Moreau Catholic Mariners (Hayward) became Division 3 champions by defeating the Marin Catholic Wildcats 8-6. This marks the second NCS title in Christine Krisman's coaching career which includes five trips to the semi-final game and three trips to the championship game.

The Mariners were undefeated in the preseason with wins over San Rafael, San Ramon, and Cardinal Newman. They played in the challenging Livermore Stampede Tournament and, due to rainouts, had the most challenging schedule playing all three "pool" games on one day: 8:00 a.m. vs Cal High, 11:30 a.m. vs Alhambra and 8:00 p.m. vs Freedom. Despite going 0-5 in the tournament, this served to prepare the team for league and NCS playoff competition.

They defeated both James Logan (Union City) and American (Fremont) in the second half of league play after losing to them in the first round and ended up in fourth place. The NCS committee recognized the Mariners as a very talented team and rewarded them with the #2 seed in Division 3. A bye in the first round set up a game against the #7 seed, Pinole Valley. Moreau was up to the challenge, shutting them out in a five-inning run rule 11-0. Next, they faced #6 seed, Terra Linda, and defeated them 11-2 to set up the Championship match-up with Marin Catholic.

The Mariners came out strong, scoring two runs in the second inning and three in the third inning to build a 5-0 lead, but Marin scored three runs in the bottom of the inning to keep the game close. Answering with two runs in the top of the fourth inning, the Mariners took a 7-3 lead into the seventh inning. They scored an insurance run in the top of the seventh inning, but Marin Catholic made a run with two outs when the #3 hitter blasted a home run to pull within two runs. The final out was recorded with a fly ball to right field, and Moreau took the title, 14 years after the title they won in 2004.

Park It

BY NED MACKAY

Dad's Day in the Regional Parks

Father's Day is on Sunday, June 17, and the East Bay Regional Park District is offering several opportunities for families to have fun with dad.

'Hugs and Quiches for Dad' is the theme of a program from 11 a.m. to noon on Sunday, June 17 at Ardenwood Historic Farm in Fremont. Bring dad to the farm's Country Kitchen to join naturalist Mindy Castle in sampling some food made with fresh farm ingredients. All Ardenwood's usual activities will also be available: tours of the historic Patterson House, barnyard animals, and train rides.

Ardenwood is at 34600 Ardenwood Boulevard, just north of Highway 84. For information on fees, call (510) 544-2797.

Or you can take father on a Stone Age adventure at Garin Regional Park in Hayward. From 10 a.m. to noon on Sunday, June 17, naturalist Dino Labiste will conduct a fire-making clinic, showing how to create flames without matches, using hand drills or solar power.

Then from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., it's atlatl time. Dino will demonstrate how ancient hunters created stone points for their darts. And you can try your hand at hitting a target using a dart-throwing atlatl.

Both programs are for ages eight and older. Garin Regional Park is at the end of Garin Avenue off Mission Boulevard. Meet at the Red Barn Visitor Center. For information, call (510) 544-3220.

'Fathers in the Forest' is a program from 3:00 to 4:30 p.m. on Sunday, June 17 at Redwood Regional Park in Oakland, led by naturalist James Frank. It's an easy walk on a stroller-friendly paved path through the redwoods in search of plants and animals, ending at the park's playground.

Meet James at the Canyon Meadow trailhead. It's at the end of the road that leads into the park from Redwood Road, about two miles east of the intersection with Skyline Boulevard. For information, call (510) 544-3187.

Fishy fathers will be the focus of a program from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. on Sunday, June 17 at Crab Cove Visitor Center in Alameda with naturalist Susan Ramos. Wear old shoes or boots to look for fatherly critters in the mud and rocks at low tide.

Crab Cove is at the end of McKay Avenue off Alameda's Central Avenue. Call (510) 544-3187.

Out at Big Break Regional Shoreline in Oakley, you can make a gift for dad just in time for his day. Bring a plain t-shirt in his size to the park on Saturday, June 16. From 2:30 to 4:00 p.m., naturalist Cat Taylor will lead a walk to see some leafy park plants, then help you transform your t-shirt into a tree shirt.

On Sunday, June 17, the park's interpreters will host a 'plankton plunge' from 2 to 3 p.m. Collect and examine some of the Delta's smallest creatures and learn their vital role in the ecosystem.

Big Break is at 69 Big Break Road off Oakley's Main Street. For information, call (888) 327-2757, ext. 3050.

The first day of summer is on June 21. Tilden Nature Area near Berkeley will anticipate it with a 'Sweet and Sour Solstice' program from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. Saturday, June 16, led by interpretive student aide Brianna Contaxis-Tucker. Celebrate with festive arts and crafts, then help press some seasonal fruits for a refreshing drink.

Meet at Tilden's Environmental Education Center at the north end of Central Park Drive. Call (510) 544-2233.

It's getting hot out there, so don't underestimate the power of the sun. Here are some tips for a safe summer experience:

- Take along plenty of water and drink it often. Many regional parks have drinking water available only at trailheads and picnic areas, not in park interiors.
- Don't forget your dog's needs. A one-gallon plastic bag makes a good doggie water bowl, or you can get one at a pet store.
- Wear a wide-brimmed hat to shield your face and eyes from the sun. Lightweight pants and long-sleeved shirts are advisable, too.
- Use sunscreen lotion. Nothing spoils a day in the parks like sunburn.
- Take along a park map. They are available at the information panels at trailheads.
- There's lots to do all summer long in the regional parks. Check out the website, www.ebparks.org. You can download park maps from the website, too.

Alameda County Library is offering two special programs this summer. The Summer Reading Game from June 11 to August 31, 2018 and Fine Forgiveness from June 1 to July 31, 2018. The goals of these programs are to encourage reading over the summer and to welcome back library patrons who have lost their borrowing privileges due to outstanding fines.

Additionally, the Union City Library is providing volunteer opportunities for students entering 5th through 8th grade to help the public play the Summer Reading Game (<http://www.acli-library.org/blog/get-ready-play-summer-reading-game>).

This year's summer reading program Reading Takes You Everywhere runs from June 11 to August 31, 2018 and offers games for Pre-readers, Kids, Teens, and Adults. As you know, children who read over the summer return to school better equipped to continue with their studies.

In addition to the Summer Reading Game, the library is also offering a Fine Forgiveness program from June 1 to July 31, 2018. During this two-month period, the Library will remove late fees on all overdue items that are returned, regardless of how long overdue. We hope to reconnect with thousands of children and teens who have lost their borrowing privileges due to outstanding fines.

A proposal in the State Assembly (AB1884) would prohibit a food facility, as specified, where food may be consumed on the premises, from providing single-use plastic straws to consumers unless requested by the consumer. Morrison noted that if passed, a state law would take effect January 1, 2019 while a local ordinance could "hold the State's feet to the fire" and be effective in 37 days. He said that there are options available and plastic straws do not degrade and have a deleterious effect on the environment. Referred to staff.

WILLIAM MARSHAK

Tis the season of graduations, a transition for many students from one school to the next or departure from an academic cocoon. Often the excitement is tinged with trepidation as new challenges are presented to graduates. Commencement speeches exhort those moving on to boldly face a world of responsibility, confusion and conflict. It is comforting to know that students have been matriculating for centuries and usually seem to find their niche. In a fast-changing society, however, the stable and tantalizing goal of today often shifts dramatically within a short timeframe creating a difficult work and home environment. Fortunately, examples of those who overcome great odds and tribulations are not infrequent, so there is plenty of hope for our future.

A peek at graduates everywhere can inspire the rest of us to create a better society for them. We continue to work toward the hope and dream of providing an improved world with ample opportunities for future generations. An inspiring example of the American dream that strives for an honest and fair landscape for all residents and citizens is exemplified by a special ceremony held each year by Fremont Adult School for ESL (English as a Second Language) students. This year's assembly/graduation ceremony on June 6th was highlighted by exuberant participants who have struggled to understand their adopted country, its language and customs. Diploma presentations and scholarships have a special meaning at this school. Group presentations and chants of USA are not bellicose statements of jingoistic xenophobes, rather a joyous embrace of each other and their neighbors who have gathered together from all corners of the globe.

Not only do graduates overcome tremendous obstacles of language but need support to believe that they are not alone, rather part of something great and special. It is not easy to not only work toward understanding your teacher but others in the class who have different accents, pronunciations and life lessons. A sense of camaraderie was evident, overflowing, as classmates happily interacted with each other. Performances – skits, songs and dance - at the ceremony reflected achievements of students moving on to other levels of education and those who will continue their connection with ESL programs and each other.

If you want to feel and understand the true miracle of our country and its inclusion of everyone, no matter what station in life, this is the gathering for you. Watching those who choose to deal with a difficult language, new customs, and sometimes a sometimes-hostile environment in order to embrace it all and each other is a wonder to behold. Although most of us share an immigrant background a few generations back, the jubilation of living in a free society where talents and attitudes are unfettered is often taken for granted even though remarkable and rare in a world context.

Ask any of those involved in the ESL program about the value of basic tenets of our country and your faith and commitment to the core values of the United States of American will be strengthened. When our leaders stray from the promise of a nation that shunned monarchies and tyrannical authoritarian regimes, we need to reaffirm our roots and promise ourselves and the English Lesson: Why Is English So Crazy?

- If the plural of man is always called men,
- Why shouldn't the plural of pan be pen?
- The cow in the plural may be cows or kine,
- But the plural of vow is vows, not vine.
- And I speak of a foot, and you show me your feet,
- But I give a boot... would a pair be beet?
- If one is a tooth, and a whole set is teeth,
- Why shouldn't the plural of booth be beeth?

world that we are a society that does not abdicate responsibility to an entitled few. At the core of our freedom is the right to freely choose our leaders and for everyone to receive an unbiased public education providing the advantage of critical thinking that separates phony charges and lies from verifiable facts. Our pledge of loyalty is not to autocrats who wrap themselves in a flag without conscience but to the soul, will and welfare of all of us.

Congratulations to all graduates of the class of 2018!

Obituary

Leticia ("Lettie") Webb

Leticia ("Lettie") Webb was born in Panama City, Panama. She was the second youngest of 11 surviving children born to Carmen (Vaccaro) and Gregorio Ordonez. Educated at St. Francis School in the former Canal Zone, she graduated top of her class with skills in English, writing and office administration. At the age of 19, she immigrated to the United States and embarked on a journey to become a Naturalized Citizen. All who knew her were aware of her fervent love and appreciation of her adopted country. En route from New York to California, she met the man who would be her husband, Hubert ("Bill") Webb. They dated while Bill was stationed at Fort Ord Army Base, eventually marrying and making their home in Fremont, where they raised three children through the 60s, 70s and 80s.

Leticia was an active member of St. Joseph Catholic Parish. Through the Ladies Guild, she met the women who would become her lifelong friends. Together, they supported the church community through countless volunteer efforts while watching their children grow in the shadow of the Old Mission.

When Bill became sick with Parkinson's Disease, she founded the Fremont Parkinson's Support Group. She worked extensively with the Parkinson's Institute in Sunnyvale, providing speakers and information to assist patients and their caregivers. Under her leadership, it grew to become the largest Parkinson's support group in the East Bay.

She was an avid sports fan, following her beloved Oakland A's, Golden State Warriors and SF 49'ers through all their highs and lows. She also loved college basketball. In honor of Bill's home state of North Carolina, she voted for UNC and Duke. They did not disappoint. Time and again, she would confound the experts, choosing loyalty over stats and winning it all in the March Madness pool.

Lettie loved planting flowers, reading poetry and preparing delicious from-scratch meals for her family. Holidays, even the minor ones, were celebrated with the utmost spirit and enthusiasm. And none more than Christmas. Each December, her home transformed into a winter wonderland, drawing visitors from all over town to experience the magic. She loved watching people light up when one of her countless decorations would come to life at the push of a button. If you were paying attention, you'd see that hers was always the most excited face in the room.

Leticia was preceded in death by her parents, 9 siblings and her beloved husband. She is survived by her sister, Delia Ellsworth, of San Francisco, and her children Cynthia Humphrey (Al), Caroline Casey (Mark), Gregory Webb (Clare). She also leaves the six grandchildren she adored: Taylor and Brooks Humphrey, Charlotte and Ruby Casey and Mia and Liliana Webb.

Services will be held at Old Mission San Jose Church, 43300 Mission Blvd, Fremont, on Friday, June 8, 2018 at 9 a.m. followed by committal service at Mission San Jose Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, family members request donations be made to St. Joseph Catholic Church 43266 Mission Blvd, Fremont, CA 94539 or The Parkinson's Institute and Clinical Center 675 Almanor Ave, Sunnyvale, CA 94085

Ernie had many hobbies: stamp collecting, puzzles, collecting recipes, and in his earlier years, he enjoyed building plane models. He was liked by many and made friends easily. And he always had a good story. He enjoyed church, NewPark Mall, Newark Senior Center and playing Cribbage with his friends.

Two years ago, Ernie was able to go on an Honor Flight to Washington, D.C. and see the Memorial Wall. He was very honored to be able to go on this trip. (Never say you can't. Always have a can-do attitude).

Ernie will be deeply missed by all his family and friends. No services will be held at this time. In lieu of flowers, we ask that donations be made to any Veterans of Foreign Wars post in honor of Ernest R. Simpson.

Gone but never forgotten, always our hero.

Melvin P. Domingo

Resident of Union City

August 2, 1942 – June 9, 2018

Melvin P. Domingo was born on August 2, 1942, and entered into rest on June 9, 2018 in Fremont.

Dealing with squamous cell cancer of the tongue then abrupt cerebral hemorrhage,

Melvin Domingo was dealt a curve ball which left his strong heart to slowly and quietly beat its last on June 9, 2018. He is survived by the love of his life, charter bus riding and bingo partner for 46 years, Lydia. His loving brother and sisters Joey, Jesse, Nene, Soledad and Irene. His three children Robin, Cristy and Marc. His nephews Jay, Glen, David, Joerel and Jerico. And the six treasures he held dearly, his grand kids; Maya, Patrick, Sophia, Shayla, Andrew and Simon. Melvin was a family man and even though he was quiet by nature, when he spoke we all listened.

Melvin's favorite story was when he got shot in the neck with a bb gun. He would always tell this story when you least expect it. But every time he told it, you couldn't help but listen. He was a handyman, fixing and building anything and everything from pergolas to cockatiel cages.

With the same hands he also displayed a gentleness with handling life. Nursing a baby California Scrub Jay back to their beautiful blue beauty. He conducted his life much in the same way, handling his relationships with great care and quiet attentiveness.

He worked as a Computer operator at Wells Fargo for 37 years, an expert of reel to reel tape backups. Melvin's two hobbies were fishing and playing bingo. He had a pole for any fish encounter, whether it be salt or fresh. He was also an avid bingo player. He wasn't the luckiest at bingo, but he made sure that he and Lydia enjoyed themselves. This time, Melvin won his way into heaven.

Fraternal Society officers installed

SUBMITTED BY SHARON XAVIER DE SOUSA

The Fremont Council #17 of the PFSA (Portuguese Fraternal Society of America) recently installed officers for the year 2018-2019. P.F.S.A. is one of two of the largest Portuguese Fraternal organizations in America (the other being the Luso-American Education Foundation).

The Fremont Council dates back to the early 1900's in the Centerville District (then the town of Centerville), when many fraternal organizations were formed, primarily to help recent immigrants from the different European countries. There were many early Portuguese immigrants in the Fremont area at that time (before it was Fremont) and throughout the 20th century.

Today, people of all nationalities are welcomed to join. In the words of PFSA Board President, Sharon Xavier de Sousa, "You don't have to be Portuguese or of Portuguese descent to belong, you just have to have a love of Portuguese food and wine, Portuguese culture, or just enjoy hanging out with Portuguese people. If you've visited Portugal or the Azores, you will know what I mean."

Today, PFSA is becoming even more of a philanthropic organization and members are encouraged to hold fundraisers to help local, national, and international causes. This year's Supreme President is raising funds for Autism, and the local Council #17 raised funds to donate to the American High School Band Scholarship and an Autistic School that burned down in the Santa Rosa fires.

Installation of Officers was held at Saki's Spin a Yarn Restaurant in the Warms Springs District of Fremont on May 18, in conjunction with the visit of the statewide Supreme President of PFSA Caron Dias and her husband Gary. Also, honored at the meeting were Maria Palmira Medina and Vermilda Sylva, for their 30 and 20 years of service (respectively) as Secretary and Treasurer to the former organization of UPPEC. Amelia de Oliveira was presented with a 50-year member pin.

Several years ago, UPPEC, UPEC, SES and St. Anthony's organizations merged to form PFSA. The headquarters office is in the UPEC building in San Leandro, which houses the largest collection of Portuguese books anywhere in the country

PFSA normally meets on the third Tuesday of the month at Spin a Yarn. In July, there is a statewide convention. Saturday, June 9 is the Dia de Portugal at Kelley Park in San Jose, Sunday, June 10 is a Portuguese Classical Concert featuring a Portuguese Baritone opera singer from the Azores Islands with the Mission Chamber Orchestra, and Monday June 11, the Prime Minister of Portugal will be honored at a dinner at the Santa Clara Convention Center. And almost every weekend throughout the summer, from May to September, somewhere in California, there is a Portuguese Holy Ghost Festival going on.

For more information about P.F.S.A., contact President Sharon Xavier de Sousa at (510) 366-3343 or sxdesousa@aol.com.

Quilt shops have kids' summer fun all sewed up

ARTICLE AND PHOTO SUBMITTED BY JEANNETTE KITLAN

"I learned to sew on a sewing machine and I made this!" That's what hundreds of quilt shops across America and Canada hope to hear from kids ages 6 through 14 in their communities this summer.

Local quilt shop proprietors like Not Just Quiltz at 37831 Niles Blvd. in Fremont are welcoming kids to their shops, June 21 through October 31, by participating in Row by Row Junior. It's the kids' version of the widely popular summertime travel event for quilt making fans known as Row by Row Experience. Kids visit shops in person and collect a free sewing pattern designed just for them to make. They'll find encouragement and be inspired by the colorful, creative world of sewing right in their own hometown.

"We want to introduce kids to the intrinsic benefits of learning how to sew," said Janet Lutz, creator of Row by Row Experience. "Making things on today's modern sewing machines incorporates all the elements of STEM [science, technology, education, mathematics] education in an artful way that builds self-esteem and perseverance."

When offered for the first time in 2017, Row by Row Junior was the largest initiative of its kind ever attempted in the sewing industry. This year, six new patterns and project ideas designed around the theme "Sew Musical" will appeal to kids and their families.

"Fostering intergenerational relationships and learning to sew at home is important to the Row by Row Junior program," said Lutz. Kids will enjoy the uniquely educational experience of visiting the shops. At home, families can find free tutorial support and activities online by visiting the Row by Row Experience website at www.rowbyrowexperience.com.

Facebook to fund original news shows from ABC, CNN, others

ASSOCIATED PRESS

Facebook said it will fund original news shows created by such news organizations as ABC, CNN and Mic.

The move comes as Facebook plans to kill off its "trending" news section to make way for what it considers "trustworthy" and "informative" news. Despite efforts to clamp down, the company continues to grapple with fake news and misinformation, not to mention plain old "click bait" on its users' news feeds.

Campbell Brown, Facebook's head of news partnerships, said the shows will be original and exclusive to Facebook, rather than adapting TV programs from elsewhere for a Facebook audience. The shows will appear in Facebook's Watch video section.

Brown declined to say how much Facebook is paying for the shows. They will be available in the U.S. this summer.

Are you planning a family getaway for a holiday, or taking a well-deserved vacation soon? If so, let the Newark Police Department know your plans and they can help make sure your home stays safe through their Vacation House Check program.

RAVEN volunteers and police officers, as time permits, will drive by your home keeping an eye out for you while you are away. There is no cost for the service. The more detailed the information you provide, the easier it is for us to determine if anything is amiss, or to contact you in an emergency should the need arise.

As a safety precaution, only tell people that need to know about your plans to be away, plan to stop your deliveries, or have someone tend to them in your absence. Also, never post vacation photos or make comments about being away from home on any social media sites or in voice mail messages. Save these postings until you have returned home.

Bulls match up in Fremont neighborhood

SUBMITTED BY GENEVA BOSQUES, FREMONT PD

When an active "bullfight" report comes out over the radio, meetings take pause, and everyone listens for the next update!

On Tuesday, June 5 Fremont Police Department patrol officers and Animal Services personnel rushed to the area of Mission Boulevard and Castro Lane on the report of two loose bulls butting heads on a residential street.

The wayward beasts had wandered down from a hillside ranch above the residential neighborhood, not far from Mission San Jose High School. Fortunately, the owner of the bulls promptly appeared and rounded up the animals and returned them to their fenced-in grazing area. No one was injured.

The landowner told police that people trespassing on the property and unlawfully opening

County committed to LGBTQ community

SUBMITTED BY LARRY LITTLE

The Supreme Court's 7-2 ruling in favor of a Colorado baker in Masterpiece Cakeshop v. Colorado Civil Rights Commission is a narrow, fact-specific decision that leaves intact State and local laws prohibiting discrimination against LGBTQ individuals, even in the face of strongly held religious beliefs. As Justice Anthony Kennedy wrote for the majority, "it is a general rule that [religious] objections do not allow business owners and other actors in the economy and in society to deny protected persons equal access to goods and services."

Although we are disappointed that the Supreme Court did not take the opportunity to further enshrine LGBTQ rights, the Justices did not rule on whether the baker had a religious-freedom right to refuse service to a gay couple. Moreover, the ruling stressed the importance of maintaining equal rights for gays and lesbians, upholding the longstanding principle that States and localities may require businesses that serve the public to serve everyone.

"Equal treatment under the law is a bedrock principle of democracy. This case was not simply about cake: while the Court did not hold that businesses are allowed to pick and choose who they serve based on customers' sexual orientation, it missed an opportunity to stand up against discrimination. The use of so-called religious exemptions is part of the strategy anti-LGBTQ bullies use to erode hard-fought LGBTQ civil rights protections where they exist, and we hope the Court will take a strong stance on this in the near future," said County of Santa Clara Deputy County Executive David Campos.

"Local governments provide a variety of essential programs and services to all our diverse communities," said County Executive Jeffrey V. Smith, M.D., J.D. "The LGBTQ community is a vital part of Santa Clara County and deserves to be treated equally. Santa Clara County is proud to uphold values of diversity, inclusion and justice. Our departments and employees are actively working to address and eliminate discrimination, and we will do everything in our power to safeguard the rights of the LGBTQ community locally."

The County of Santa Clara is committed to supporting the LGBTQ community. We understand that the key to building a strong community and economy depends on fairness and respect for all individuals. In the weeks to come, the County of Santa Clara Office of LGBTQ Affairs will partner with the Rainbow Chamber and support the "Take the Cake Stand" program. We will collect information about LGBTQ-supportive businesses, so that everyone in the community will know in which local businesses they can receive a quality service without fear of persecution or discrimination. If you know of an LGBTQ-supportive business that we should include in our list, contact us. This list will be prominently advertised on the Rainbow Chamber website (www.rainbowchamber.org).

In 2017, the County of Santa Clara, California, led a coalition of 70 cities and counties and 80 mayors across the nation in filing an amicus curiae ('friend of the court') brief with the United States Supreme Court in Masterpiece Cakeshop, urging the Court to uphold important non-discrimination protections for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer ("LGBTQ") people. The County of Santa Clara remains the only county in the U.S. with an Office of LGBTQ Affairs.

Donating blood can save a life

SUBMITTED BY CARMEN HERLIHY

Did you know that someone in the United States needs blood every two seconds? And that more than 32,000 pints of blood are needed every day across the country? When you donate blood, you may be saving someone's life — an estimated 4.5 million Americans would die each year without life-saving blood transfusions.

What a lot of people may not realize is that donating blood is a relatively simple process and generally only takes about 10 minutes. But the life-saving benefits, of course, are enormous.

In Fremont, Pacific Commons shopping center is hosting a blood drive on Friday, June 15 for anyone would like to donate. Look for the American Red Cross Bloodmobile near the Dick's Sporting Goods store from noon to 4 p.m. For more information, visit the center's website at www.pacificcommons.com.

The review period begins June 12, 2018 and ends on July 12, 2018. Written comments should be submitted via email to terrence.grindall@newark.org or delivered to the City of Newark Community Development Department at 37101 Newark Blvd., Newark, CA 94560 by no later than 4:30 p.m. on July 12, 2018.

Project Location: The project site is located along a portion of tidal Plummer Slough, within Cargill, Incorporated's (Cargill) solar salt production facility in the City of Newark, California. THE CITY OF FREMONT, REPEALING AND REPLACING FREMONT MUNICIPAL CODE TITLE 6, ANIMALS On May 15, 2018, the Fremont City Council introduced the above ordinance repealing and replacing Title 6 Animals, which regulates the care and keeping of animals in the City of Fremont. The new ordinance creates chapters to reorganize subjects and clarifies definitions and the appeal and hearing procedures for permits and impoundments, simplifies animal limits, and addresses current issues with care and keeping of animals. In addition, the proposed changes replace dangerous dog with vicious dog to mirror state law and prohibits livestock and exotic animals in parcels zoned residential. The changes also prohibit owning more than six small animals and require an animal fancier's permit for owning more than six chickens, pigeons, doves and rabbits. The amendments also include new requirements for stray animals. If an unaltered dog or cat is found stray and brought to the shelter for a second or subsequent impoundment, the animal will be spayed or neutered and microchipped before release to the owner. In addition, a new section mandates that any person finding a stray or lost animal to report such animal to the City. The provision that allows an animal to take back an animal from an adopter within thirty days after the adoption has been removed. A new chapter has been created to consolidate and clarify behaviors related to animals that are unlawful in the City, which include abandonment, feeding of animal on posted public and private property, animals in vehicles, and animals disturbing the peace. If the animal owner repeatedly allows these behaviors to continue, the animal control officer may impound the violating animal and seek other remedies. In addition, the proposed amendments declare certain actions by animals and their owners to be public nuisances and allow a citizen to file suit to enforce against the public nuisance. The proposed amendments give the Animal Services Manager and the Administrative Hearing Officer more discretion for the classification of a dog. The changes clarify the hearing procedures for disputing the impoundment of a vicious or potentially dangerous dog, classification of a dog as vicious or potentially dangerous or denial or revocation of a potentially dangerous dog permit. The new code prohibits keeping a potentially dangerous dog in a vehicle and requires the residential location where the dog will reside. In addition, the provisions for impoundment of a dog without permission from the property owner to be provided to the Animal Services Manager if the dog owner is not the property owner. UNION SANITARY DISTRICT NOTICE OF DOCUMENT AVAILABILITY AND INTENTION TO ADOPT A MITIGATED NEGATIVE DECLARATION NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a Mitigated Negative Declaration has been prepared for Union Sanitary District's (USD) Emergency Outfall Improvements Project (Project) and is available for public review and comment. The document can be reviewed at the Union City, California. PUBLIC REVIEW AND COMMENT PERIOD : June 8, 2018 through July 9, 2018. Please send all comments to Andrew Baile, Union Sanitary District, 5072 Benson Road, Union City, California 94587-2508. PROJECT LOCATION AND DESCRIPTION : The project consists of USD's Wastewater Treatment Plant along Old Alameda Creek. The emergency outfall was constructed in the 1960s, and under certain conditions, USD is permitted to discharge treated effluent via the outfall to the creek during wet weather. The outfall flap gate is submerged below water during high tides and partially exposed during low tides. This condition brings in sediment and promotes vegetative growth which impede operation of the flap gate and creates a maintenance issue. A new outfall structure is proposed at the same location to address these issues. INITIAL STUDY : An Initial Study was prepared to determine if the proposed Project would result in significant adverse impacts on the environment. That document concluded that while several potential adverse environmental impacts could result from the Project, measures could be used to effectively mitigate these impacts. Accordingly, it has been determined that a Mitigated Negative Declaration is appropriate for the Project. TO REVIEW DOCUMENT : Copies of the Initial Study and proposed Mitigated Negative Declaration can be reviewed at the Union Sanitary District, 5072 Benson Road, Union City, California. All written comments on the proposed Mitigated Negative Declaration must be submitted no later than the July 9, 2018 deadline. PUBLIC HEARING : The Union Sanitary District Board of Directors will conduct a public hearing to receive oral comments at a regularly scheduled meeting on June 25, 2018, beginning at 7:00 p.m. The Board will consider adoption of the Mitigated Negative Declaration at a regularly scheduled meeting on July 23, 2018, beginning at 7:00 p.m. TOXIC SITES : The Project site is not included as a toxic site as enumerated under Section 65962.5

Pursuant to the State of California Public Resources Code and the "Guidelines for Implementation of the California Environmental Quality Act of 1970 as amended to date, this is to advise you that the Alameda County Water District (ACWD) has prepared an Initial Study/Mitigated Negative Declaration (IS/MND) for the Kaiser Pond Diversion Pipe Improvement Project located in Fremont, CA. San Leandro City Manager reinstated

SUBMITTED BY JEFF KAY

The San Leandro City Council voted on June 4 to reinstate City Manager Chris Zapata effective immediately after an independent investigation found a lack of credibility to allegations of inappropriate conduct by Mr. Zapata against a city contractor.

Mr. Zapata has been on administrative leave since January 23, 2018 pending the completion of the investigation. The investigation, conducted by respected expert Karen Kramer of Kramer Workplace Investigations, concluded that the claims against Mr. Zapata could not be sustained. The five-month investigation included interviews with nine people and the review of hundreds of documents, emails and text messages.

"The City Council has unanimously accepted the findings of the independent investigator. The City Council has also determined that it is appropriate for the City Manager to return to his duties," said Mayor Pauline Russo Cutter.

"City Manager Zapata denied all wrongdoing and the investigation concluded that his testimony was credible. We are eager to move forward and strongly advise everyone involved to continue to work together for the betterment of San Leandro. Through his work as City Manager, Chris Zapata has brought many positive changes to San Leandro. We look forward to working with him to maintain that momentum."

A summary of the independent investigation is available through the link below. The summary comprehensively includes all of the relevant findings from the investigation. The full report will be released no later than July 31, 2018. The full report will contain redactions in accordance with State law, including redactions to protect the privacy of third parties who were interviewed or mentioned as part of the investigation.

A copy of the independent investigation summary can be found through the following link: <https://www.sanleandro.org/civicax/filebank/blobdload.aspx?BlobID=28592>

Cargill awards $25,000 to Newark Memorial grads

SUBMITTED BY JILL SINGLETON

Cargill has awarded 11 Newark Memorial High School graduating seniors a total of $25,000 in college scholarships. Winners of the Claire Lopez Memorial Scholarship were:

Jaspreet Dhandwar-$5,000, Ayush Jain-$4,000, Leon Lambruschini-$3,000, Anna Poon-$3,000, Brigitte Barba-$2,000, Arianna Reyes-$2,000, Jennilyn Taguiam-$2,000, Kenneth Barron-$1,000, Katia Espinoza-$1,000, Juliana Lozzi-$1,000, and Leo McGrath-$1,000.

Since initiating this scholarship at Newark Memorial with a single grant of $1,000 in 1999, Cargill has given away a total of $186,000 to Newark High School graduates.

The scholarships honor the memory of Claire Lopez, former chief engineer of the salt company. Despite having only an 8th grade education, Lopez rose through the ranks to become chief engineer of the Leslie Salt Company (Cargill's predecessor), overseeing salt operations on 40,000 acres near the San Francisco Bay shoreline. In his professional and personal life, Lopez dedicated much of his time to mentoring young people and served on the Niles (Fremont) School Board.

"These are really great kids it's truly gratifying to help them pursue their education," said Ric Notini, Cargill Land Resources Manager. "But perhaps the most gratifying aspect of this scholarship is that it has inspired two others to step forward and create scholarships here in Newark where the need is great."

When businessman Bill Dutra, a former salt company employee, learned Cargill was honoring his mentor, he sponsored a second scholarship, and in 2015, Vinit Nayak, the 2011 Valedictorian and a Claire Lopez recipient, created the Nayak Engineering Scholarship.

Claire Lopez scholarship applicants are judged by a Cargill committee. The criteria include: grades, extra-curricular activities, work history, community service, an essay, and recommendation letters. Special consideration is given to graduates in STEM majors and those with financial need.

Hayward airport companies get accolades

SUBMITTED BY THE CITY OF HAYWARD

Two aviation companies with offices at Hayward Executive Airport have received top honors in a national survey of pilots. Aviation International News (AIN), an aviation publication, annually invites pilots that fly private aircraft to vote for their favorite fuel suppliers at airports across the United States. Fuel suppliers are known in the light airplane industry as Fixed Base Operations, or FBOs. They are essentially the "gas stations" at airports.

In the 2018 AIN FBO Survey published in early April, pilots gave APP Jet Center, which has operations at Hayward Executive Airport, the highest single category score for "line service" at their location at Manassas Regional Airport in the Washington, DC area. Line service is another term for aircraft servicing, and high scores require a prompt response to fuel requests, friendly service, and the safest operating standards. APP Jet Center provides fuel service and aircraft hangar storage at its location in Hayward, and the company recently completed construction on a new $5.5 million terminal and hangar facility.

Meridian, also with operations at Hayward Executive, received the highest average score of any FBO in the Northeast and ranked in the top 10 percent of all FBOs in the AIN survey. Meridian earned the highest single category score in this year's survey for the work of their customer service representatives at their location at Teterboro Airport in the New York City area. Customer service representatives work at the reception desk and act as concierges, providing arrangements for rental cars, hotel accommodations, and aircraft servicing. High scoring FBOs provide prompt, friendly service, and they anticipate the needs of their customers. Meridian provides fuel service, aircraft hangar storage, charter, and aircraft management at Hayward. They recently completed work on a new $10 million terminal and hangar facility.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Elizabeth Ames, whom I know very well, has written a lengthy letter on Ramirez Farm and Peterson Farmhouse Complex (Tri City Voice, June 5th) based on her own imagination thinking that she can exploit the naivete of Union City residents if she mixes up issues to make them more complex than what they really are. Here are some of the fallacies in her argument for not developing the Ramirez farm to as the City and the County intend.

1. Quarry Lakes Regional Park, adjacent to the 35 acres of Ramirez Farm, is close to 500 acres in size and is more than adequate to serve the intended purposes. Adding 35 acres to it doesn't add any value in comparison what else can be done with it to make our lives better.

2. The claim that that the East West Connector will generate over 50,000 daily new trips is a fantasy and not based on facts and no wonder Elizabeth did not offer for the source for this claim! East West Connector is essential for the development of the land adjacent to the Union City BART station and for other projects such as the probable fast train to the Menlo Park being studied by Facebook.

Ramirez Farm response

3. Elizabeth pretends to be speaking for Save Our Hills, a grand coalition of concerned citizens like me. This was not authorized by Save Our Hills to speak for it on this issue. She ignored our multiple requests not to speak in this way without taking a vote of the core committee of which I am a member as well. Elizabeth is a talented person with a lot of experience in civic affairs but went overboard here purely on emotional basis and without checking with others in the core committee before writing this letter as if she is speaking for the Save Our Hills Group. In the past, she had exploited her position as the Chairperson by issuing mass e-mail requests full of misleading and false claims.

4. Most of the traffic in Union City is by people who are going elsewhere. The East West Connector would help to ease the traffic problems. Most Union City residents need to get out of the City to work elsewhere and this would help them as well.

5. In her letter, Elizabeth claims that Union City has a park deficit of 77-acres. Deficit from what? The deficit is from an ideal situation and we don't live in an ideal world. There are many people who can't afford to live here and are forced to live in faraway places like Stockton and spend many hours in traffic daily. I have driven around Union City many times and never seen our existing parks overcrowded. Why do we need another park? Are we crazy?

6. The City has not decided to do anything other than assess how much it will cost to go ahead with the East West Connector project. Our City is fortunate to have strong support at the County level for big projects such as this one. It is a blessing and not a curse.

7. Elizabeth's statement that the "save Our Hills is questioning how a small suburban residential town can manage a project of this magnitude" is totally unauthorized and false. It is based on misinformation and bias and not caring for the fellow citizen who is not as fortunate as us to have a house to live in this great city of ours.

$66.2 million for affordable housing developments

SUBMITTED BY BRUCE HERMAN

The County of Santa Clara Board of Supervisors voted 4-0 to approve a total of $66.2 million of 2016 Measure A Affordable Housing Bond funds to construct four new affordable housing complexes. The developments will provide 461 new housing opportunities for low income households, including supportive housing for 256 homeless individuals and families.

"This $66 million second wave of Measure A brings us closer to building a home for each homeless individual," said County of Santa Clara Supervisor Cindy Chavez representing Central, East and South San Jose where the North San Pedro apartments will be located.

Assisting some of the County's most vulnerable residents to obtain and maintain permanent housing, Sango Court in Milpitas, will provide 101 units of affordable housing for low income families, veterans, and people with special needs. Another site, North San Pedro in San Jose, will have 134 units for individuals and families with special needs. Page Street, an 81-unit affordable family development, also in San Jose, will assist individuals and families with special needs and low or extremely low incomes to secure permanent housing. Similarly, a fourth complex, Corvin Apartments, will consist of an additional 145 units constructed in Santa Clara.

"We're encouraged to see that many of our non-profit organizations and homeless advocates are working in tandem with property developers to make significant progress with the construction of new affordable housing units," said County of Santa Clara Supervisor Dave Cortese representing District 3 where the Sango Court Apartments will be located.

District 4 Supervisor Ken Yeager was absent for the vote though two of the developments, Page Street and Corvin Apartments will be constructed in his district.

Information regarding the 2016 Measure A Affordable Housing Bond is available at www.supportivehousingcc.org. Information about the Empower Homebuyers program is available by calling 408.436.3450, ext. 303.

Rodeo Cruelty and toy assault weapons

Why in the world would an East Bay Municipal Utilities District director (Frank Fallon) publicly attack a Hayward Area Recreation District director (Minane Jameson) over an animal welfare issue, one about which he is remarkably ignorant? (letter, "Calls Rodeo Complaint Letter 'Sour Grapes'") Sounds like a personal vendetta to me. Mr. Mellon has also publicly attacked Supervisor Nate Miley in the past (see Google).

Not a word about it in the media, but a saddle bronc named Savina suffered a broken back at the Saturday Rowell Ranch Rodeo, requiring euthanasia. Just imagine that an NBA player suffered a broken back on the court—it would make national headlines. Do the animals count for nothing? And all in the name of a bogus, macho "sport," God forgive us. And the stupid and cruel "wild cow milking contest" and children's "mutton busting" continue.

And this: There was a vendor at the Rowell Ranch Rodeo with dozens of toy AK-47 assault weapons on sale, replete with sound effects of gunfire. And the kids were playfully mowing down the passers-by, under the approving smiles of their oblivious parents. Truly chilling. And this only one day after 10 kids were gunned down at the Santa Fe, TX high school, with many others wounded.

Only yesterday (6/2), a park in Santa Rosa was dedicated to the memory of 13-year-old Andy Lopez, who was shot by a Deputy Sheriff who mistook the kid's toy BB gun, shaped like an AK-47 assault rifle, for the real thing. Will we ever learn?

Some connections to be made here, folks. And that same vendor is likely to be at the June 9-10 Livermore Rodeo. If so, he should NOT be allowed to sell these "toys" to impressionable young children.

SUGGESTION: HARD should donate the Rowell Ranch to the East Bay SPCA or other nonprofit and transform it into a Farm Animal Sanctuary & Education Center for Bay Area children. Works for me!

Filipino nonprofit agency honored

SUBMITTED BY FRED PINGUEL

Assemblyman Rob Bonta (D-Alameda) recently announced that Filipino Advocates for Justice has been selected as a 2018 California Nonprofit of the Years.

Filipino Advocates for Justice is committed to representing the most marginalized voices in the East Bay's Filipino community. For 45 years this commitment included organizing workers, creating programs for youth, and providing services to recently arrived immigrants among others. Filipino Advocates for Justice has recently expanded to civic engagement regionally, working to engage Filipinos in local and regional politics.

As part of California Nonprofits Day on June 6, Geraldine Alcíd, Executive Director, and other staff from Filipino Advocates for Justice joined 100 other nonprofit leaders at a luncheon celebration in Sacramento and were honored by their state senators and assembly members.

"Filipino Advocates for Justice's mission for the last 45 years is to help Filipinos and others feel welcome and supported in the East Bay. To be recognized by Assemblyman Bonta, someone who came from our community and who intimately knows our work, is an amazing honor," said Alcíd.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) requires an Environmental Impact Report for certain developments. CEQA is also used by developers, property owners and nimby's, who have filed a wave of lawsuits over the past decade. In Fremont, they targeted EBRPD, seeking to block a new parking lot at Mission Peak and reduce parking at Vargas Plateau. In fact, the opening of Vargas Plateau Regional Park was delayed for eight years, and then shuttered for another 11 months. Plaintiffs wanted the park district to widen Vargas Rd, which winds through rural hills. While the widening would ostensibly improve safety, but also increase commuter traffic and encourage a new event center on Vargas Plateau.

The arms dealers who profit from the CEQA lawsuits are the lawyers, while the government and the public are paying for the litigation. Project delays are legendary, and housing costs continue to rise. Nonetheless, CEQA remains a vital tool. As the Tri-City Voice editorial of May 29 noted, "Environment is not a touchy-feely word reserved for tree-huggers... [It] describes the quality of our lives - the roads we drive on, the air we breathe, access to parks and clean, open spaces and much more." The environmental reports are expensive, cumbersome and complex. Some public agencies and developers in southern Alameda County have avoided CEQA review, though it's a legal requirement.

As the editorial in the Tri-City Voice notes, "oversight and compliance are enforced by public agencies that may benefit from a development...its overriding interest is tax income from the project. A neighboring city may suffer the consequences and have little or no say in the outcome." Recently, the county of Alameda released a draft microbrewery ordinance. It would allow the conversion of agricultural land to agri-tourism, with microbreweries, tasting rooms and event centers. Vargas Plateau has ongoing, large-scale development. The mayor of Fremont wrote the County Board of Supervisors, expressing serious concern about the impact of the ordinance on road safety.

The purpose of CEQA is to protect ecosystems, limit watercourse alterations, and slow urban sprawl onto rural hills and agricultural parcels. It is incumbent upon environmental groups to take up the cudgel of CEQA. Mission Peak Conservancy will therefore oppose local development that threatens public safety, degrades environmental quality or alters watercourses.

Will the Band Play On?

For over 60 years, the Hayward Municipal Band has performed free summer concerts for residents, spreading joy and happiness as only music can. But this may be coming to an end soon. At an April 17, 2018 meeting of the Hayward City Council, councilmembers voted unanimously to approve a budget that leaves the band $6,000 short for 2018, and places serious doubt on its future.

Part of the problem lies in the way the City currently handles funding for art programs, which are now lumped together with other community services in a competitive bidding process. Mayor Halliday may have voiced the feelings of everyone present at the meeting when she said, "How can you compare funding for a shelter for women who are victims of violence, or food for children, or a roof over a family's head, with funding for the arts?"

Julie Roche, Community Services Commission Vice Chair, later

Frank Reis (with conductor Kathy Maier) received an award for his longtime involvement with the band.

suggested that moving forward the council may want to consider removing the Hayward Municipal Band from the competitive process. For now, instead of the usual four summer concerts, the band is only slated for three, and they are scrambling to secure money for a fourth.

A community band has long been a symbol of the American way of life. Originally military in nature (one of the first was the United States Marine Band, established in 1798), it wasn't long before many cities and towns across our nation boasted a band, which often played at celebrations and marched in parades. There are several community bands in the East Bay, including those in Oakland, Alameda, Pleasanton, Danville, Castro Valley, San Leandro, Fremont, and Milpitas.

The Hayward Municipal Band was formed in 1957 by two city employees: Ed Mendonca and Tony Nunes. Tony Morelli, a music teacher and director of the Castro Valley Community Band, became the director in 1960, and would go on to lead the band for estimates that they have over 600 arrangements, ranging from pop, big band, jazz, rock, Latin, musicals, and, of course, patriotic. Says Maier, "The audience is very important to us, so we try to play a variety of music to appeal to everyone."

The Hayward Municipal Band plays on Memorial Day at Lone Tree Cemetery. Then they traditionally start their summer season on Father's Day, playing four free concerts in their powder blue uniforms at Memorial Park in Hayward, on a bandstand just behind The Plunge. Says Morelli, "Folks come for a picnic and to listen to us. It's a wonderful atmosphere. Because it's outdoors, the children can play and run around without disturbing anyone. And it gives people a chance to hear music that they might not be able to afford elsewhere."

This is where Morelli's three children grew up, playing and watching as their father conducted the band. They helped pass out programs and sometimes were asked to narrate. At age 14, Maier began practicing with the band. "It was very intimidating," she recalls. "These people could sight read anything. I knew I needed to get to that level someday."

About half of the band's expenses are covered through donations. The Hayward Area Recreation and Park District (HARD) maintains the park and the stage, and helps promote the band in their mailings. Fairway Park Baptist Church provides year-round storage for their instruments as well as a space to rehearse. The band rehearses one time before each performance.

In an age where cell phones and iPads consume our attention, many fear the band's days are numbered. Maier hopes otherwise. "Listening to music in a park provides a link to the great past of our country, when people made time to be with friends and family outdoors."
