Movie tunes & more at Free Spring Concert

SUBMITTED BY JIM CARTER
PHOTOS BY VICTOR CARVELLAS

Enjoy an evening of absolutely wonderful symphonic music provided free of charge by the Tri-Cities' own 50 musician symphony – the Newark Symphonic Winds – directed by Richard Wong. Our "Free Spring Concert" will be held Saturday, March 31 at the Newark Memorial High School Theatre.

We'll start off by shakin' you up with a little bit of Elvis in "All Shook Up" followed by the toe-tapping "The Irish Washerwoman" by Leroy Anderson. We'll next perform selections from the fabulous musical "West Side Story" by the great Leonard Bernstein. We'll then perform Toto's "Africa" by David Paich and Jeff Porcaro and finish the first half of our performance with a medley of tunes arranged by Paul Jennings from the Disney movie "Aladdin."

After intermission we are proud to present the Newark Saxophone Quartet (Maurice LaFleur, Steve Leitner, Andy Ehling, and Jim Carter), who will be performing a little bit of Dixieland for you, after which the symphony will return to the stage and perform highlights from the movie "Brave," arranged by Sean O'Loughlin. Next will be a medley of tunes from "La La Land" by Justin Hurwitz, followed by selections from the movie "Moana," arranged by Jay Bocook. We'll end the evening with some of the most recognized and eerie melodies from "The Phantom of the Opera" by the very talented Andrew Lloyd Webber.

This free performance (no tickets are necessary) is sponsored by the Fremont Bank Foundation. Donations are welcomed.

Plan to arrive early as the theatre always fills up. For more information, visit <http://newarksymphonic.org> or call (510) 552-7186.

Special programs egg hunts mark return of Easter

Regarded as one of the most important Christian holidays, Easter is observed as a celebration of Jesus Christ's life and resurrection. According to Luke 24:1-4 (NIV), "the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus." Two men in bright clothing "like lightning" told them, "He is not here; He has risen!"

Catholics and Lutherans observe Lent, a 40-day period of fasting, prayer, and penance leading up to Easter Sunday. During the last week of Lent, the faithful commemorate the Last Supper on Maundy Thursday, Jesus's crucifixion and death on Good Friday, and entombment on Holy Saturday.

Easter is considered a moveable feast because it is determined on a lunar calendar. This year, Easter falls on April 1, the first Sunday following the full moon after the vernal (spring) equinox on March 20.

The English word 'Easter' parallels the German word 'Ostern,' and is of uncertain origin. One view, promoted by the 8th century scholar, the Venerable Bede, is that it derives from Eostre, or Eostrae, the Anglo-Saxon goddess of spring and fertility, a name which itself is remarkably similar to 'Astarte,' the Greek equivalent of Ishtar, a deity popular from the Bronze Age through classical antiquity. Moreover, rabbits and eggs are remnants of the old fertility rites supplanted by the celebration of the Resurrection. The early Christian Church replaced the old festivals with its own celebrations and meanings, but many symbols remained.

Washington Hospital's Nakamura Clinic in Union City Welcomes Longtime Fremont Physician

Dr. Harprett Dhillon joins Washington Township Medical Foundation

Dr. Harprett S. Dhillon, a longtime Fremont area physician, has joined the medical staff at Washington Hospital's Nakamura Clinic in Union City. An internal medicine specialist, Dr. Dhillon also provides expertise in treating patients with sleep issues and those with cardiovascular illnesses.

Dr. Dhillon fills a vacancy at the Nakamura Clinic created when Dr. Stephen Zonner moved to the Center Medical Group in Fremont. Both medical groups are part of Washington Township Medical Foundation. Dr. Dhillon has expertise in diagnosing and treating sleep issues, having served as president of Fremont Sleep Diagnostics from 2000 to January 2018.

Patients with chronic sleep issues may have obstructive sleep apnea which can be treated, Dr. Dhillon explained. Some patients may be referred to a sleep laboratory for further diagnostics and treatment. Dr. Dhillon has been an active member of the Washington Hospital medical staff since 2000 and served as Chairman of the Washington Hospital Department of Medicine from July 2013 to June 2015. He then served as Chairman of Quality and Resource Management at Washington Hospital from July 2015 to June 2017.

A resident of the Bay Area since his youth, Dr. Dhillon received his Bachelor of Science degree from Santa Clara University (California) and his medical degree from Loyola University Stritch School of Medicine in Maywood, Illinois. He completed his surgical internship at Wayne State Medical Center in Detroit, Michigan, his medicine internship at Loyola University in Maywood, and his internal medicine residency at Fairview General Hospital, Cleveland Clinic Foundation, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Dr. Dhillon said he joined the Washington Township Medical Foundation because he wants his patients to have access to the very best physicians in the area.

"I've been practicing medicine in this community for the past 18 years and have had many patients admitted to Washington Hospital during that time," Dr. Dhillon said. "I have seen firsthand the quality of care the Hospital and its excellent medical staff provide to their patients."

Dr. Dhillon added that being part of the medical foundation offers him the opportunity to work with specialists in his field including neurosurgery, thoracic surgery and orthopedics, among other areas. “Washington Hospital works to make sure the community has access to world-class health care while providing the best cost value to its patients.” He continued, “I’m very pleased my patients will have direct access to the large group of physicians and specialists in the Washington Township Medical Foundation.”

Dr. Dhillon added that his patients also will have access to

Washington Hospital Sponsors 12th Annual Women's Health Conference

Washington Hospital will host women from around the Bay Area to a day filled with a variety of speakers on topics such as women and stroke; quality of life before and after cosmetic surgery; and tips for reclaiming your self-confidence. This event provides knowledge and resources for women of all ages.

The Women's Health Conference is scheduled for Saturday, April 14, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Conrad E. Anderson, MD, Auditorium in the Washington West building next to Washington Hospital. Cost is $25 per person, which includes a continental breakfast and lunch; preregistration is required.

"The Women's Center at Washington Hospital is committed to women's health, and this event is one way we provide them with helpful information and resources regarding their health and wellness," says Laura Constantine, the Women's Center coordinator. "The program is so valuable that women return year after year. We've had many comments from patients saying they appreciate the good information," she adds.

Patients also like the fact that the speakers are local health care professionals—and the physicians themselves enjoy presenting, Constantine notes. "Our physicians are strong advocates of women's health and well-being and they always gladly participate."

William Dugoni, MD, a board-certified surgeon with Washington Township Medical Foundation (WTMF) and medical director of the Washington Women's Center, will give an update on what's new at the nationally accredited center.

Victoria Leiphart, MD, a board-certified gynecologist with WTMF, will address some of the self-image issues common to women. "Many women lose some of the sense of themselves as they take on roles such as spouse, parent and caregiver," she says, adding that many women feel less attractive and that they have less to offer the world as they age.

Melissa Reyes, RN, stroke nurse with the well-regarded Washington Hospital Stroke Program, will share information about female-specific stroke risk factors and prevention. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, stroke is the third leading cause of death for women, yet most women don't know their risk of having a stroke.

Prasad Kilaru, MD, a board-certified plastic surgeon with the Washington Hospital Healthcare System, will share information about procedures that can improve a woman's health and quality of life, such as breast reduction and abdominoplasties, or "tummy tucks," among others.

Reduction of overly large breasts not only relieves back and shoulder pain, but it also enables a woman to more comfortably engage in physical activities such as running or jogging, Dr. Kilaru notes.

Tummy tucks remove excess skin folds—usually due to pregnancy or significant weight loss—thereby reducing the chances of skin rashes and infections, and in most cases, restoring weakened or separated abdominal muscles.

"Studies have shown that women who have had these procedures note significant improvement not only physically, but also emotionally; they experience a better self-image," Dr. Kilaru says.

To register for this enlightening and enjoyable event, call (510) 608-1301.

Passover celebrates freedom

Each spring, people of the Jewish faith celebrate Passover, the deliverance from slavery into freedom as God's chosen people. The book of Exodus tells the story of the enslavement and eventual release of the Jewish people from their oppressors.

The Israelites had long been enslaved to the Egyptians, and God sent Moses to their ruler Pharaoh to ask him to let his people go. Pharaoh refused, so God sent plagues on the Egyptians, but still Pharaoh did not relent. The 10th plague was to kill the firstborn of every house, and God spared the children of the Israelites, while crushing Pharaoh with this final blow. Pharaoh relented and the Israelites fled from Egypt.

In Hebrew the holiday is known as Pesach, which means "to pass over," remembering God's deliverance of his people. Passover is celebrated for eight days during the Hebrew month of Nissan. This year it will begin at sundown on Friday, March 30 and continue until the evening of Saturday, April 7.

A highlight of Passover is the Seder dinner, which brings together family and friends with symbolic and kosher foods, such as matzah (unleavened bread) and bitter herbs. Leavened food is avoided for the duration of Passover.

The Greater Tri-City area will celebrate Passover with community gatherings and Seder dinners:

Join Rabbi Moshe and Chaya for a memorable and uplifting community Seder experience at Chabad of Fremont Jewish Center on Friday, March 30. The Hayward Area Recreation and Park District's Youth Program will be hosting the 73rd Annual Egg Hunt and Bonnet Parade. Bonnet Parade registration will begin promptly at 9:00 a.m. The Bonnet Parade, led by the Easter Bunny, will begin at 9:30 a.m. Bonnet Parade participants must be 6 years and under and all bonnets must be homemade and worn by the participants during the parade to qualify. Participants will have their homemade bonnets judged in the following categories: the prettiest, most unusual, and most colorful. The egg hunt will immediately follow after the Bonnet Parade. There are 4 egg hunt age categories: 1-2 year olds, 3-4 year olds, 5-6 year olds, and 7-9 year olds. The event will take place rain or shine.

San Leandro:

Come celebrate spring on Saturday, March 31, at the second annual 'Egg Hunt at the Casa' hosted by the San Leandro Improvement Association (SLIA). The celebration will take place from 10 a.m. to 12p.m. at the historic Casa Peralta grounds in Downtown San Leandro. The SLIA will decorate the Casa Peralta and will hide plastic eggs stuffed with toys and goodies for the kids to find around the Casa Peralta grounds. Festivities will include three egg hunts, face painting, music, family friendly activities and a petting zoo sponsored by Mike's Feed & Pet filled with chicks and bunnies for the kids and kids at heart to play with and pet. The three egg hunts will be broken up by age groups—the first one kicking off at 10:30 a.m. for kids three years and under, the second one starting at 11 a.m. for kids four to six and the third starting at 11:30 a.m. for kids ages seven to ten. Kids are encouraged to bring baskets for the egg hunt.

The Recreation and Human Services Department announced that it will host the City's annual Egg Hunt for children ages 10 and under on Saturday March 31st. The event will take place at a new location this year, at Stenzel Park beginning at 10:00 a.m. sharp, rain or shine. The event is free and open to the public. Pre-registration is required with the San Leandro Recreation and Human Services Department at www.sanleandrorec.org or in-person at the San Leandro Senior Community Center or Marina Community Center.

Participating children should arrive with their own basket and egg hunts will be divided into age-appropriate groups. A visit from the bunny is expected as part of the event, so attendees are encouraged to bring a camera for photos.

This event is being made possible thanks to the generous donation from the San Leandro Optimist Club. The event will include volunteers from the Optimist Club and Community Impact Lab and the Youth Advisory Commission.

Fremont schools to close for spring break

SUBMITTED BY
BRIAN KILLGORE

Officials from the Fremont Unified School District (FUSD) are reminding students and parents that all schools will be closed for spring break Friday, March 30, through Friday, April 6. The FUSD District Office will be closed Friday, March 30, but will operate under its normal schedule throughout the following week. However, some individual departments may close for the week, so it's a good idea to call ahead before visiting. All schools and facilities will resume normal business hours and operations when students return on Monday, April 9. For questions, call the district office at (510) 657-2350.

Salmon season management hearing

SUBMITTED BY AMY L'MANIAN

The Pacific Fishery Management Council has adopted for public review three alternatives for the 2018 salmon seasons off the West Coast of the United States. The Council will select a final alternative at their next meeting in Portland, Oregon April 6-11. Detailed information about season starting dates, areas open, and catch limits for all three alternatives are available on the Council's website at www.pcouncil.org.

Public hearings to receive input on the alternatives were scheduled for March 26 in Westport, Washington and Coos Bay, Oregon, and for March 27 in Salinas, California. The Council will consult with scientists, hear public comment, revise preliminary decisions, and choose a final alternative at its meeting April 6-11 in Portland, Oregon.

The Council will forward its final season recommendations to National Marine Fisheries Service for its approval and implementation by May 1. All Council meetings are open to the public.

The Pacific Fishery Management Council is one of eight regional fishery management councils established by the Magnuson Fishery Conservation and Management Act of 1976 for the purpose of managing fisheries 3-200 miles offshore of the United States of America coastline. The Pacific Council recommends management measures for fisheries off the coasts of California, Oregon, and Washington.

Scholarships to help fund future doctors' education

SUBMITTED BY MEG WALKER

Physicians at the Palo Alto Medical Foundation (PAMF) are awarding scholarships annually to deserving high school students who are committed to becoming physicians. The Palo Alto Foundation Medical Group (PAFMG) Pre-Medical Scholarships each total $25,000 per recipient and are paid out to each student over five years, helping students to fulfill their ambition to become a doctor and give back to their communities.

Applications are now being accepted and the deadline for submitting applications is April 13, 2018. High school students with the following qualifications are eligible to apply for the scholarships:

- Student plans to become a doctor and selects a college major that will prepare him or her for this career
 - GPA in top 20% of class (verified by transcript)
 - Demonstrated need for financial assistance to attend a four-year college or university (verified by FAFSA, SAR, and parent's tax returns)
 - Applicants must live in the areas served by PAMF which include San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Alameda and Contra Costa counties.
- Students who meet the above qualifications can complete an online application found at <http://www.pamf.org/premedscholar/>. Also, the information listed below needs to be submitted:
- 1,000-word essay discussing student's interest in the field of medicine, student's background and life experiences, and need for financial assistance.
 - A statement of support from student's college guidance counselor.
 - High school transcript
 - FAFSA, SAR, and parent's tax return
 - SAT and ACT test scores

Age-Friendly Expo and Dialogue

Our Age-Friendly Health Expo is set to take place on Saturday, May 12 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Fremont Senior Center and Central Park (Lake Elizabeth). We are getting great responses from exhibitors and once again expect about 100 exhibitors to attend the event and over 2,000 participants. Please note that over 75 people volunteer to assist us with the event, and that includes over 30 interpreters to assist you in getting your message to those who may not speak English or who are deaf or hard of hearing. If you would like to be an exhibitor, call (510) 574-2063 or email Dr. Raymond Grimm at rgrimm@fremont.gov

The Age-Friendly Fremont Community Dialogue will take place on Wednesday, April 25 from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Teen Center, 39770 Paseo Padre Parkway in Fremont. As the City of Fremont is a member of the World Health Organization’s age-friendly global network, we are interested in how you think an age-friendly community is a livable community for all! Please join us and tell us what you think.

Beware of New Medicare Card Phone Scams

We’re getting several reports about a phone scam where beneficiaries are told that new Medicare cards are coming in the mail. This is true, but, the scammers say that before the cards come, the beneficiary needs to get a temporary card, which costs between $5 and $50, and you need to give them some personal information. This is NOT TRUE.

Tips:

- Your new card will be mailed to you. Medicare will not call you about your new card or number.
- The new cards are free. There is no cost to you.
- Update your current address with Social Security at: ssa.gov/myaccount or call 1 (800) 772-1213.
- Your new Medicare card will not include your Social Security number.
- Remember, you’re getting a new number and a new card with the same benefits.
- After you receive your new card, shred your old card.

If you or someone you know comes across such Medicare related phone scams, call the Senior Medicare Patrol at 1-855-613-7080. If you need help with your Medicare, call the Health Insurance Counseling and Advocacy Program (HICAP) at 1 (800) 434-0222, or, visit cahealthadvocates.org

Alzheimer’s Services of the East Bay (ASEB), a licensed

Adult Day Health Care Center in Fremont specializing in dementia care, has the following openings:

Social Worker, Full Time

Master’s Degree required and LCSW supervision can be provided. Autism Awareness event

SUBMITTED BY ISAAC BENABOU,
SAN LEANDRO PD

In recognition of National Autism Awareness Month, members of the San Leandro Police Department (SLPD) will be wearing a commemorative Autism Awareness Police Patch on their uniforms during the month of April.

Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) is a severe and permanent cognitive/development disorder that impairs how a person communicates, socializes, and interacts with others, including the reaction and interaction with law enforcement officers and first responders. Approximately 1 out of every 68 people have autism. San Leandro is home to the Regional Center of the East Bay, which provides service to 935 clients diagnosed with ASD.

To help bring attention to the topic, SLPD will host an informational event from noon to 3 p.m. on National Autism Awareness Day, Monday, April 2 in the police department courtyard, 901 E. 14th St., San Leandro. The public is invited to join members of SLPD for lunch and interact with members of the community who are diagnosed with ASD.

The commemorative ASD police patches will be available for sale to the public, and all proceeds will benefit the Regional Center of the East Bay. To RSVP for this event, to purchase patches, or to make a charitable donation, send an email to SLPDAutismAwareness@sanleandro.org or call (510) 577-3228.

Upcoming District-Based City Council Elections:

In November 2018, City of Fremont voters will participate in the first district-based election when four City Council seats will be up for election. Fremont voters will select from City Council candidates who live in their districts only. Councilmembers will be elected according to the following timetable:

Voters residing in Districts 1 through 4 will be casting a vote for their Council representative in 2018. In more detail, this includes District 1 (Northwest portion of the city — two-year term), District 2 (Central North portion — four-year term), District 3 (Central portion — four-year term), and District 4 (Eastern portion — four-year term). In the November 2020 election, voters in Districts 1, 5, and 6 will each elect a City Councilmember and voters citywide will elect the Mayor, which remains an at-large position.

To assist citizens in determining which Council district they reside in, Fremont’s Geographic Information System (GIS) Division has developed the Council District Locator. This online tool allows citizens to enter their addresses into an interactive map to identify the Council district number assigned to that specific location. Residents can access the Council District Locator at www.Fremont.gov/CouncilDistrictLocator.

For more information on how this district-based election system originated and how it will affect voters, visit www.Fremont.gov/DistrictElections.

Annual compost giveaway:

Participants in the city’s curbside organics program can pick up two free bags of compost on Sunday, April 8 from 8 a.m. to noon at the Fremont Recycling and Transfer Station located at 41149 Boyce Rd., while supplies last. The event will be held rain or shine.

Residents must bring their most current Republic Services garbage bill to show their household’s participation in the curbside organics program. Residents will be directed to the loading area where crews will place bags of compost into vehicles. Residents may pick up compost on behalf of a neighbor or family member who is unable to attend by bringing their respective Republic Services bill. The Compost Give-away event is brought to you by the City of Fremont, in partnership with Republic Services and the Fremont Recycling and Transfer Station. For more information, please contact Republic Services at (510)-657-3500.

New interactive map for development activity in Fremont:

The City’s Community Development Department recently launched Civic Insight, an interactive map that plots major development (vertical construction) permit activity throughout Fremont over the past 10 years. It includes building, engineering, and planning permits. Users can search by address, permit number, neighborhood, street name, and/or time. To get started, visit www.Fremont.gov/CivicInsight. To research minor permit activity such as solar, home occupation, and encroachment permits, use the City’s Citizen Access online tool at www.Fremont.gov/CitizenAccess.

Fremont’s 2018 State of the City Address:

If you want to learn more about the issues and opportunities facing the City of Fremont, stay tuned! Fremont Mayor Lily Mei will be presenting the annual State of the City Address at a luncheon hosted by the Fremont Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday, March 28, noon to 2 p.m. at the Fremont Marriott Silicon Valley. To buy tickets, please call the Fremont Chamber of Commerce at 510-795-2244 or visit www.Fremontbusiness.com.

And in case you can’t make it, the State of the City Address will be rebroadcast on Fremont Cable TV Channel 27, as well as posted to the city’s website by the end of the following week.

BUSINESS

Preparing the Region's STEM Workforce

SUBMITTED BY
KIMBERLY HAWKINS

A newly designed 5,500-square-foot lab space complete with cutting-edge technology will offer even more collaborative, hands-on learning opportunities in the College of Science [California State University East Bay], which has double the number of students majoring in STEM subjects than it did a decade ago. Jason Singley, dean of the College of Science says these labs are providing a learning experience that is not available in the traditional classroom.

"I think it is really going to prepare students for the type of labs they are going to work in when they graduate," Singley says. "These labs will help students get jobs in industries that are growing and pay well, and our students can really contribute to solving important problems today."

Dr. Pascale Guiton, an assistant professor in the Department of Biological Sciences, says the interdisciplinary lab space is purposefully designed to allow collaboration among professors and students. There is even a lounge space she hopes will be utilized by students to discuss their research and get advice on challenges with experiments they may be working through.

"For me, it opens up new fields," Guiton says. "You have an opportunity to ask new questions you would not have thought about all by yourself in your lab. It means somebody who works in chemistry can talk to somebody who knows nothing about chemistry. There are opportunities to merge fields since science is a community-driven enterprise. You cannot be a scientist alone."

Guiton, who studies Toxoplasma gondii, a ubiquitous pathogen, has both graduate and undergraduate students assisting in her research. Regardless of experience, Guiton says she is careful to prepare her students not just for the hands-on tasks required in the lab, but for the critical thinking skills necessary to be a scientist.

"For me, having a student body as diverse as [Cal State] East Bay being given this facility, this opportunity to do science, I think is what science education is about—giving opportunity to students who didn't even think they could do that," Guiton says.

Guiton's student, Emily Sheldon, an undergraduate in Biology, says she is learning skills she knows she will serve her well into the future.

"I really love how much I've learned, and it's really going to benefit me in my career and what I want to do because I do want to work in a lab, so learning the pipetting and aseptic techniques, I can take that with me," Sheldon says.

School safety, gun violence spark dialogue at town hall meeting

SUBMITTED BY ALAMEDA COUNTY OFFICE OF EDUCATION

Joining the national dialogue on school safety and gun violence, almost 200 high school students, community leaders, educators and media gathered on March 12 at Newark Memorial High School's gymnasium for a Town Hall forum that none will soon forget.

Steve Kerr

Golden State Warriors head coach Steve Kerr was the headliner at the event organized by Congressman Ro Khanna, D-District 17, to engage with students on issues of school safety, gun violence and youth activism. But it was 20-year-old Matt Deitsch who spoke directly to students about their need to speak out on gun control. Deitsch traveled from Parkland, Florida to Newark representing the Parkland students who are organizing the national March for Our Lives on March 24 in Washington D.C. and cities and communities around the country. Deitsch's two younger siblings were hiding in their classrooms at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School on February 14 as a gunman killed 17 people. Deitsch encouraged students, who came to the forum from around southern Alameda County, to register to vote, get involved and use their voices to help reduce gun violence and strengthen gun laws. "This isn't a left issue or a right issue. It's about saving innocent lives," Deitsch said. The Newark event had an impact, not only on the students who filled the seats on the gymnasium floor, but on the educational leaders who came to support students as they seek to elevate their voices. Alameda County Superintendent of Schools L. Karen Monroe attended along with Newark Unified Superintendent Patrick Sanchez, Newark School Board Trustees and local elected officials. Superintendent Monroe saw parallels to the Alameda County Office of Education (ACOE) "Youth Action" initiative, which began in 2017 and has offered students throughout the county the opportunity to develop their skills in civic engagement and leadership. "At this critical moment in time, the voices of our students are coming through loud and clear as they speak up and out for the change they want to see," said Superintendent Monroe. "Monday's town hall in Newark, as well as the student-led walkouts and marches to come, highlight the need for us all to listen and engage wherever we can to make way for their advocacy and leadership. We appreciate Congressman Khanna and Newark Unified for providing the opportunity for such an important dialogue." Kerr, who leads the two-time NBA Champion Warriors, talked to students about his own experience with gun violence when his father Malcolm, the president of the American University of Beirut, was killed in a terrorist attack in Lebanon in 1984 when Kerr was a freshman in college. "I know how the people in Parkland feel," said Kerr. "It's awful. It's devastating. It's horrifying. This is pretty simple. Let's see if we can do something about it." Students asked questions of Kerr, Deitsch, and Khanna for nearly an hour, touching on topics such as voter registration, current gun laws, background checks, the concept of arming teachers, the influence of special interests and mental health. "If we can get more young people in this district and around the country to demand change, something can happen," Khanna said. "That's why I called Coach Kerr to talk to these kids about what they can do to make a difference." Kerr said he is inspired by the voices of the young people who have emerged following the Parkland shooting. "The old guys aren't going to be able to do it. It's the next generation. It's the youth. You guys are going to do it," Kerr said. "It feels real. For the first time in my life, I feel there's a movement happening." Deitsch, meanwhile, encouraged students to stay focused. "You can't march every day, and you can't vote every day, but you can learn every day," Deitsch said. "Be the most educated in the debate."

Tri-City Stargazer FOR WEEK: MARCH 28 – APRIL 3, 2018

For All Signs: The planets Mars and Saturn are in a tense relationship this week, precisely so on Monday morning. Mars represents the energetic and assertive warrior side of each of us while Saturn symbolizes caution, conservatism and maintenance of the status quo. When these planets are in adverse aspect it becomes difficult for a short time to know whether to move forward or fall back. It resembles driving a car with one foot on the brake and the other on the accelerator. This aspect often coincides with minor accidents or failures involving vehicles, tools or mechanical objects. Generally speaking, starting anything new will be loaded with trials and tribulations. Take it slowly and carefully.

Aries the Ram (March 21-April 20): Your work is really challenging at this time. It may feel like pushing a boulder up-hill. You need some help and it is not forthcoming. Perhaps it is better to back off and wait for a better time. See how you feel the end of April. You may decide against the plan altogether.

Taurus the Bull (April 21-May 20): Venus enters your sign this week and will be traveling ‘with you’ through most of Jan. Her presence gives you an air of poise and people will simply like how you look. Often when Venus is prominent we become more interested in art forms and want to make things in the environment more attractive. We are also more interested in beautifying ourselves.

Gemini the Twins (May 21-June 20): Day to day life is favorable at present. There are no big conflicts between you and anyone of importance. Social life is favored with partner, friends, and neighbors. Short trips to interesting nearby places could prove refreshing and educational. Contractual agreements are favored now.

Cancer the Crab (June 21-July 21): You have likely been dealing with a decision concerning property or family issues. You have spent a few weeks in this process and now you have arrived at a conclusion. If it is a purchase or a sale, you have the cosmic green light. Whatever the decision, you have made a good choice for everyone concerned.

Leo the Lion (July 22-August 22): It's important that you be aware that your thinking is not as objective as you believe. Listen when others tell you their attitudes and opinions. You do not have to adopt them, but don't reject what they say out of hand. Try to think carefully before assuming you are the only one who knows the right answers.

Virgo the Virgin (August 23-September 22): Listen carefully this week for intuitive guidance. Your unconscious is ‘in touch’ with your lifepath and it will guide you. Clear out the mind/ego chatter as well as you can. Accept that which does not flatter the ego. There you will find real wisdom that makes sense.

Libra the Scales (September 23-October 22): Venus, your ruling planet, enters the 8th sector and will remain there until Apr 24. This suggests favorable influences and opportunities concerning gifts or other financial resources that come through other people. It includes investments, debts owed to you, and insurance payoffs. Intimate Relationships take on a more important role.

Scorpio the Scorpion (October 23-November 21): Your reflexes are not the best at this time. If you are doing any type of heavy work or lifting, give careful attention to your body mechanics because you may be subject to an accident. This is also true if you are driving, handling any type of machinery, or sharp tools. If you question your strength for a task, seek help.

Sagittarius the Archer (November 22-December 21): Your sense of confidence is high. That is good, but this week it may be a little over the top. Think carefully before you speak because you may embarrass yourself by promising more than you can deliver.

Capricorn the Goat (December 22-January 19): Please note the lead paragraph because this phenomenon is occurring in your sign. You may be expecting to start a big project this month. The beginning is fraught with potential errors. Move carefully and check your work for errors along the way. It is especially important to prevent or correct mistakes in the beginning. If you don't, later you may have to unravel the whole project back to this point.

Aquarius the Water Bearer (January 20-February 18): A new plan that originated in the winter is arriving at a turning point. Sometimes our ideas take a twist of their own. This is a time in which you must decide whether or not to pour more resources into the plan or let it go. Generally speaking, though you would rather not have the problem, you probably will choose to see it through.

Pisces the Fish (February 19-March 20):This is not your best week for romance and social life. You may be in circumstances that cause you to feel as though you must be pretentious concerning your feelings. Possibly you are not even really clear yourself about just what your needs are in these relationships. It's a low period that will pass in a few days.

Elizabeth Lowrie Pioneer of Washington Township

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

BY KELSEY CAMELLO AND
PATRICIA SCHAFFARCZYK
FOR THE WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP MUSEUM OF
LOCAL HISTORY

Born in Newark in 1880, Elizabeth Lowrie was the youngest and the last surviving member of her immediate pioneering family from Washington Township (now Fremont, Newark and Union City). Her father, George Lowrie, was born in Scotland in 1832, immigrated to the United States in 1847 and settled in Washington Township in 1853. He worked as a farm hand and cook (with a specialty in bread making) between Newark and Alvarado and settled in Irvington. George was known for his ability to spin long, comical yarns — a trait that he passed on to his youngest daughter. In 1871, he married Harriet Thompson. Together they had five children.

Hay baling was intense, with most of the work done by manpower. The men jumped and trampled on the hay to pack it into solid bales. Typically, farm hands consumed five meals a day. On top of his regular duties, together George and Harriet prepared and served food to the workers. This was the family that Elizabeth was born into.

She spent her adolescence going to school, working and playing on the family farm, and exploring with her siblings. From the ages of 25 to 35 (1905 — 1915), Elizabeth lived in the Mission hills with her sister, Phoebe, who suffered from tuberculosis. The two women first lived in a tent near Calaveras and Alameda Creeks and then near the Overacker house on Mill Creek Road. The second year, their brother David built them a small cabin to live in.

During their time in the Mission hills, the women worked to build and organize their home. They also explored the hills and looked for ways to earn their way. Wild pigs invaded their food supply, so they gathered wild plum branches from the Linda Vista farm over the hill (Ohlone College today) and made baskets, which they used and sold for an income.

Next, Elizabeth and Phoebe collected butterflies to earn money. They had a mentor who came from San Francisco to teach them the trade. The entrepreneurs subscribed to the journal The Butterfly Farmer, and their brother helped them construct cages and stretching boards to raise and preserve the best specimens. They connected with the most prestigious collector in the nation, Dr. William Barnes and worked “on assignment”, collecting and raising various butterfly and moth species and shipping them to him via train from Irvington Station. At the time, Barnes paid them up to $5 per butterfly or moth, a relatively large sum for the period. He even named a moth, “Tolype Lowrieii” in their honor. The entire collection of Dr. Barnes was donated to the Smithsonian Institute after his death. It is still part of their archives today.

Imagine for a moment how the area of Elizabeth's youth has changed. For the first seven years of her life, the family lived on property near Patterson house, which is still there today. This is where her father built a small two-story house and near where Elizabeth and her siblings collected Native American artifacts. The house was later moved to just across the railroad tracks from the entrance of the Ardenwood Historic Farm (in a housing development near the corner of Roxie and Tupelo Terrace). The Lowrie's next move was to the Marshall house — close to today's Fremont BART station and Walnut Avenue. There they lived next to a lake, the remnants of which include part of today's Tule Pond. Elizabeth recalled the pond freezing in the winter and ducks sliding across the ice when trying to land. From this home, the Lowrie children walked to school where Centerville Junior High School is today.

Next, the family moved to the Mowry farm, close to today's Irvington High School. Her father managed the farm there and Elizabeth rode her horse to Washington Public School (Irvington) at the corner of Lincoln and Union Streets. After George retired, the Lowrie's bought a home on Main Street (Fremont Boulevard today), between Carol Avenue and Blacow Road.

Elizabeth Lowrie was a jack-of-all-trades. When Phoebe and Elizabeth returned to live in Irvington, Elizabeth needed to earn a living while she cared for her ailing mother and sister. She took a course in millinery (in Oakland) and opened a shop in Irvington catering to Portuguese clients who needed new hats for the annual Portuguese festivals. She ran the shop for ten years.

Elizabeth was also an accomplished organist and donated her time to several local churches. Later, Elizabeth wrote verses, which she sold to national greeting card companies, as well as two short stories for children. She also worked as the Irvington librarian (first for the County Free Library, and later for Alameda County Library) from 1938 — 1962, retiring at age 82. Many people who grew up in Irvington during this time remember her as their first librarian who demanded a quiet and clean library.

Her instinct to collect was again awakened during her time as a librarian. In 1948, she compiled a collection of more than 1,600 buttons, making her collection books by hand and exhibiting them in various displays and shows throughout the area.

Her work at the library was demanding. In 1959, she recalled some of her time there, writing, “From July '57 to July '58, I circulated 13,285 books without assistance.” Elizabeth went on to note the inequality of pay, writing, “[I was] paid by the month — about 30 cents per hour. [The] boy who mopped [the] floor and washed windows received 75 cents per hour. [I] used to wonder if it wouldn't be better to trade jobs.” Finally, she noted, “Still [receiving] the same pay per hour as received six years ago. May starve, can't earn enough to pay taxes.” She was a witty woman in her own right.

In 1971, Elizabeth described herself as “tougher than a boiled owl”, and she proved it to be true many times throughout her long life. Neither she nor any of her siblings ever married. She passed away in 1979, just two days' shy of her 99th birthday. She is fondly remembered as a true pioneer in Washington Township and someone worth celebrating during Women's History Month!

Elizabeth's story is illustrated in a display at the Washington Township Museum of Local History (190 Anza St in Fremont) and at the Fremont Main Library, Maurice Marks Center for Local and California History (2400 Stevenson Blvd, 2nd floor) through April 30. Stop by during open hours to learn more and explore her button collection in person. Additionally, view a PowerPoint presentation on her life story by visiting the museum website at <http://museumoflocalhistory.org/special-exhibits/>.

Master bath gets a stunning modern makeover

BY ANNA JACOBY

This bath project was a pleasure to design. It's a spectacular blend of form and function, delivered with a punch of vibrant color, and an interesting mix of textures. I work with and appreciate all design styles, but my favorite a list of what really makes this bath unique and special:

The vanity

The wall-to-wall vanity provides ample storage for both spouses. Each has his and her own set of wide drawers, with a common space in the center below the sink. This couple style is modern. I love the clean lines and simple, minimalistic aesthetic. Modern design allows the freedom to combine colors and materials like these: hand-maid glossy ceramic tiles in vibrant teal, wood-look porcelain in warm brown, and stark white quartz.

Before the remodel, this master bath was very tiny, as so many baths in Fremont seem to be! We borrowed a couple of feet from the master bedroom and expanded into the hallway linen closet to create this new larger space. Besides its new size, here's decided on a large trough sink instead of two individual sinks; this gave them more counter space. The wall-mounted faucet keeps the countertop clear. We installed lighting below the floating vanity, used for accent, but also as a night light. The custom-made cabinet is made of cherry wood, with the grain running horizontally. To break up all the angles, I purposely chose a large round mirror.

The tile

The client chose the gorgeous hand-made ceramic tile from

Heath Ceramics. I opted to run the subway tile vertically rather than horizontally to break up all the horizontal lines, and to draw the eye up to the skylight in the ceiling. The entire bathroom floor and shower wall are tiled in wood-look porcelain, giving the illusion of more space. The brown of the wood plank tile also balances the brown color on the other side of the bathroom. I really love the high contrast of the teal with the brown.

The shower

The large ceiling-mounted rain shower head, along with the hand-held shower head are pure luxury. And please note that we intentionally placed the valve on the right-side wall, which is the entry point of the shower. That way, the clients only need to reach in to turn on the water instead of walk all the way into the shower. The two recessed niches provide storage, but also looks like modern art to me, with the juxtaposition of opposing colors, lines, and shapes. The clear glass shower walls allow all the colors to be viewed with no obstructions.

The color scheme

Three colors—warm brown, vibrant teal, and crisp white—are combined throughout. I was aiming for planes of color, again with a nod to modern art. I selected a matching teal paint color to use on the wall behind the toilet to continue the color from the tile, but all the other walls and ceiling are bright white like the countertop. The result is a roomy, colorful, modern, stunning bath for two. I only wish it was my own bathroom!

THE ACWD CONNECTION

Spring Cleaning your Garden

With the arrival of spring, we will see the days get longer and temperatures rise. It's time to get out the gardening tools and let the fun begin!

- Plant vegetables and flowers now. Spring is the ideal time to plant because you can still take advantage of the rain and minimize watering.
- When choosing plants and vegetables for your garden, look for water-wise natives that do not require a lot of water to maintain.
- With the time change, remember to adjust your irrigation system accordingly and to keep sprinklers off when it rains.
- Now is the perfect time to check your irrigation system for leaks and make repairs before the warm weather begins.

Newark Memorial High School Theatre

Saturday, March 31, 2018
7:00—9:00 PM

Enjoy an evening of absolutely wonderful symphonic music provided by the Tri-Cities' own 50 musician symphony - the Newark Symphonic Winds - directed by Richard Wong.

Come listen to "West Side Story" by Leonard Bernstein, a medley of tunes from "La La Land", the very eerie sounding "The Phantom of the Opera", and for great fun, a medley of Elvis tunes in — "All Shook Up". We'll also perform highlights from the movies "Aladdin", "Brave", and "Moana" as well as many, many more wonderful compositions.

Also performing this evening will be the Newark Saxophone Quartet

Cost of admission is "FREE", no tickets are necessary.

Spring is back and so is the farmers’ market

SUBMITTED BY TERESA MEYER

For lovers of farm-fresh vegetables, fruits, breads and other foods and snacks, downtown San Leandro is the place to be. The city’s popular Downtown San Leandro Farmers’ Market will return on Wednesday, March 28 on Parrott Street between East 14th Street and Washington Avenue. Now in its 11th season, the market hosts an average of 2,500 patrons weekly.

This year, the market is introducing a new “Made in San Leandro” Wednesday to its line-up of themed Wednesdays. This new theme will feature local manufacturers, such as Proyecto Diaz Coffee, House Kombucha, Mr. Dewie’s Creamery, as well as 3D printing tech companies Ivaldi Group and Sculpteo. The market will also continue its established themes: the monthly Cooking Demonstrations, Wine Tastings, and Green Market Days.

Live music will be performed on the prepared foods lot featuring a mix of returning favorite performers and new artists, including the Patron Latin Rhythms ensemble which will provide music to help celebrate Cinco de Mayo. Opening night will include a ceremony with Mayor Pauline Russo Cutter and members of the City Council at 5:30 p.m.

The Farmers’ Market is made possible thanks to a partnership between the City of San Leandro, Pacific Coast Farmers’ Market and the Downtown Association. Admission is free. For details, call Lars Halle at (510) 577-3311.

Paws and Tails

SUBMITTED BY CHARLES AQUINO,
UNION CITY PD

Ever thought about adopting an animal? May can be your month to do it!

The Animal Services Unit of Union City Police Department, will be hosting its 4th Annual “UC Paws and Tails” event, on Saturday, May 12. UC Paws and Tails began in 2013 to provide our community with an outlet to obtain low cost vaccinations, proper licensing for their pets and educational information on the proper care and treatment of animals. Additionally, we will provide the community with information and access to a variety of animal shelters, animal rescues and other organizations relating to care and treatment of animals.

If you would like to participate as a vendor, let us know! There’s still room and no vendor participation fee.

Paws and Tails
Saturday, May 12
10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Meet Milpitas Police Chief Armando Corpuz

BY RHODA J. SHAPIRO

When Armando Corpuz joined the Milpitas Police Department in 1990, he never imagined that he would, one day, be promoted to Police Chief. But that’s exactly what occurred on January 7, 2018. Stepping into his new position has been a smooth process, which Corpuz attributes, in part, to the fact that he inherited a Police Department that’s already in good shape. He also added that the support from both the community and City Council has been endless.

“Making that transition from Captain to Chief, I’m looking at things through a different lens now,” said Corpuz. “Trying to identify things in the department... what we’re doing really well, and where I think we can be doing better. And in those areas that we can be better, how we are going to do that.”

Over the years, Corpuz has moved up the ranks, from police officer, to Sergeant, to Lieutenant, and then to the role of Captain in 2009. Serving as Captain for nine years paved the way for him to assume the role of Chief.

“In my years as a captain, I was able to manage the three divisions - field services, special operations, and tech services. I was able to lead every area of the police department,” said Corpuz. “So, I have an understanding of not just our operations from the police side of it out in the field, but also behind the scenes — our dispatch center, records, school resource officers, building relationships with the school district. Those years of experience helped my transition... but it’s still a transition.”

One of Corpuz’s aims is to stay connected to community, so he attends various events and is conscientious about responding to people’s calls and emails. In the future, he’d like to be more proactive in community engagement, with events like Coffee with a Cop. He’d also like to gradually increase the size of the Community Relations Unit, which handles community-based programs including Neighborhood Watch and the Police Explorers Program for youth ages 16-20. They also give “Run, Hide, Fight” presentations, which delve into how to respond to and stay safe during an active shooter crisis. Since the mass shooting in Parkland, Florida, requests for these presentations have been on the rise. At present, the Community Relations unit is only staffed by two people. Years back, it was staffed by about seven or eight, but it was reduced during the recession. Corpuz recognizes the value officers in this unit bring to the community.

Even with all the new responsibilities, Corpuz is the epitome of calmness and grounded clarity. Moreover, when he speaks, his voice is tinged with excitement. It’s obvious to anyone who meets him that he is passionate and dedicated to the work he does, but the people he serves.

He says that he would be unable to do it all alone. “We have great people working here. I’m not the one doing all the work. From the people in the field, to the captains that manage their own divisions, to [Executive Secretary] Veronica who’s supporting me and keeping me on task, to our sergeants who work in the two adjacent offices... there are a lot of people working really hard. I’m really lucky.”

Boyd & Donaire headline Smokin’ Sounds

SUBMITTED BY KASSIE SHREVE

John “Blues” Boyd earned his middle name the hard way. John’s music and the man himself are throwbacks to a more difficult, but also a more honest and straightforward era. Cousin to bluesman Eddie Boyd, John was born in Greenwood, MS, in 1945 and began working the delta cotton fields at seven years of age. Until he retired from hot tar roofing in 2007 to care for his ailing wife, blues singing and hard labor were the two constants in his life.

When his beloved wife of 49 years Dona Mae, passed in 2014, John naturally turned to the refuge of the blues for solace. In dealing with his grief, John discovered a previously undeveloped talent for songwriting and found himself furiously churning out songs – Sometimes writing as many as eight in a single day!

With a stylistic range at times reminiscent of shouters like Big Joe Turner and Wynonnie Harris and other times harkening back to blues crooners like Junior Parker and an early BB King, John delivers these songs with sweetness, ferocity, pure old-school charm and always, unfiltered honesty.

In an era when Halloween “bluesmen” christen themselves with what they imagine to be colorful, authentic-sounding “blues” pseudonyms, John “Blues” Boyd and his name are indisputably The Real Deal. (credit: www.littlevillagefoundation.com written by -Rick Estrin)

Otilia’s current project – “Otilia Donaire and The Back Alley Boys” – has her combining her singing talents with some of the Bay Area’s finest rock and blues musicians that consistently deliver a fun and interactive show filled with a huge repertoire of upbeat/danceable classic rock, blues, R&B and soul tunes that’ll keep you on the dance floor. Band consists of Otilia Donaire, lead vocals; Joe Lococo, guitar and vocals; Chris Matheos, bass; Robi Bean, drums

If you want people out on your dance floor, Otilia Donaire is going to put them there. A staple in the Bay area music scene Otilia has been tantalizing Bay Area audiences with her powerful and gritty vocal style reminiscent of famous icons Janis Joplin and Koko Taylor. She sings with raw depth and emotion and has the adaptability to equally transition from a power-driven rock song to a sultry, blues ballad, making her a crowd favorite. Booking a show of strictly blues or a combo of R&B and classic rock, we can custom tailor a show and set list to fit your needs. Otilia Donaire and The Back Alley Boys – a top notch rock and blues outfit. You can find Otilia and her band packing dance floors all across Northern California. (credit: www.otiliadonaire.com)

Plein Air Day at Rancho Higuera Historical Park

SUBMITTED BY KELSEY CAMELLO

Monday, April 2, artists will converge at Rancho Higuera Historical Park to paint visions from the park, located in the Mission San Jose area of Fremont. The Washington Township Museum of Local History is pleased to host this plein air painting event for the public. This ‘paint out’ will feature plein air painters from throughout the Bay Area, including painters from the Los Gatos Art Association. Plein air is derived from the French term for painting outside, and Rancho Higuera Park is the perfect setting for doing so.

Join in and have fun as you paint in the open air of the beautiful East Bay hills above Fremont. The grounds will be open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. the day of the event. No need to register; simply show up ready to paint. Admission is free, but $5 per painter is a suggestion donation, as the Washington Township Museum of Local History is a non-profit, 501c3 organization.

Spring rolls in with Cycling Event

SUBMITTED BY JULIE GILSON

Sunday, April 22 is the 45th annual Primavera bicycle event hosted by Fremont Freewheelers Bicycle Club (FFBC). This event has a variety of routes, from a 100 mile ‘full century’ to a family-friendly Fun Ride of 25 miles, with intermediate distances of 85 miles and a ‘metric century’ (100 km or 63 miles). Spaces are still available for all distances. This year is special, as the organizers have arranged for the opening of Calaveras Road between Milpitas and Sunol for official Primavera riders only.

All rides will start at Mission San Jose High School in Fremont. The Fun Ride travels to and through scenic Coyote Hills Regional Park using parts of the Alameda Creek Trail on this mostly flat, fun, and educational ride. Then it’s back to the high school for a tasty lunch at a choice of several gourmet food trucks, including vegetarian options. Your registration fee includes lunch and ‘goodie bags.’ Mechanical support and rest stops with water, snacks and rest rooms are also included. The Fun Ride is perfect for new riders, those just getting back into bicycling, and families with limited bicycling experience.

The longer rides include the challenging Calaveras Wall and the scenic route along Calaveras Reservoir. See Livermore vineyards and wineries, and the wind turbines of Altamont Pass. Cyclists will lunch at a winery, then climb up and over tree-shaded Palomares Road towards a speedy descent down Niles Canyon. A hearty meal awaits the finishers.

All routes have restroom facilities and are fully supported by volunteers providing hot and cold beverages, food, and bicycle repair. Support drivers will travel all distance routes. Helmets are required and need to be in good condition.

The fabulous Sister Swing singers

SUBMITTED BY SHIRLEY SISK

On Sunday, April 8, the League of Volunteers (LOV) and the Newark Arts Council bring you an exciting trio of singers who have captured the spirit the Big Band era and brought it to the twenty-first century. Heavily influenced by groups like the Andrews Sisters, the Boswell Sisters, and Manhattan Transfer, Sister Swing brings a new sound to a venerated style. The three ladies, Leigh Hannah, Valerie Marston, and Paula Chafey-Merrill have a great time on stage taking the audience on a thrill-packed tour of great old tunes. Experience the romance, glamour, and even innocence of the Big Band Era. The full band includes guitar, drums, bass, trombone, trumpet, and reeds. If you like the classic songs of the 30s and 40s and their mesmerizing three-part vocal style, don’t miss Sister Swing.

Complimentary refreshments are served during intermission.

STEPPING STONES

If you would like to discover something new, honor your neighbors with developmental disabilities, and discover one of San Leandro's hidden gems, Stepping Stones Growth Center and Davis Street Family Resource Center invite you to join them in a celebration of awareness, acceptance, and ability at "Better Together." Held at Stepping Stones Growth Center on Friday March 30, the event is in honor of Developmental Disability Awareness Month. It will include art, snacks, music, dancing, information booths, speakers, a tour of their facility and - weather permitting - strolling, skipping or marching a few blocks to help spread awareness and celebrate differences.

Prepare to be amazed and have anything you thought about the capabilities of people and clean facility and you will learn that Stepping Stones was started in 1975 by a group of parents as an after-school activity. From the beginning, founders sought to enrich the lives of children and adults with developmental disabilities, enabling each and every individual to reach his or her full potential through inclusion, advocacy, and innovative services. A 501(c)(3) nonprofit, Stepping Stones' service area extends throughout the upper East Bay and beyond.

First Steps starts with classes for both children and adults in socialization, computer literacy, cooking and nutrition. This last class includes safety in the kitchen; some of those cheerful posted signs would be helpful in any kitchen! Perhaps you will also be able to visit the organic garden next door. While the raised beds lie dormant this time of year, consumers learn about composting and gardening skills all year round. When in season, fresh food travels from the garden to the kitchen, where it is prepared and served. Independent living classes include getting around on public transportation, shopping and nutrition, budgeting and much more.

Consumers interested in employment are evaluated, trained through the "Hire" Steps, and put to work at a number of the largest businesses of the East Bay, including Safeway, Wal-Mart, and Home Depot. Ongoing job coaching services assist each person with strong support for success. Reviews from employers and those who meet them at their jobs have been very positive. If the spotless Stepping Stones facility is any criteria, those enrolled in the Clean Sweep job training program would make any employer proud!

The most visible results of the Stepping Stones Artful Steps classes can be seen in cheerful framed images hanging throughout the facility. Under the guidance of Artful Steps Director Missy Brooks, consumers learn to express themselves through the visual arts - drawing, painting, print-making, collage, fabric art, ceramics and other artistic mediums. Some of these works will be available for sale during the March 30 event, and a few of the Stepping Stones artists have agreed to teach paper marbling to interested attendees.

Stepping Stones merged with fellow nonprofit and San Leandro mainstay Davis Street in 2016, a union which has given consumers a greater range of services. Rose Padilla Johnson, CEO of Davis Street, hopes to expand space for Stepping Stones in future to provide a public showcase for the artists. In the meantime, Jan Behr, Managing Director of Stepping Stones, invites you to join them in the "Better Together" celebration!

with developmental disabilities turned completely upside down. The first thing you'll see as you walk up to the facility doors is an absolutely gorgeous mosaic mural. Take a moment to look closely at the delightful local flora and fauna captured in charming detail by the consumers of Stepping Stones. "Consumers" is the word that staff and the people who enjoy this facility use to refer to themselves, as it's a better way to convey how independent and capable they are, rather than commonly used words such as "client." Most of the ceramic used in the mural was fired onsite in an electric kiln. The mural was designed to be enjoyed by all, as the 3D figures can also be "seen" by people with impaired vision. Make special note of the robin and her nest, the owl, the coyote and... watch out for the paper wasps and their nest!

APRIL FOOLS' DAY

This year April Fools' Day and Easter are the same day! No foolin'!
You can fool around and have some Easter fun with this week's Kid Scoop page!

Can you find at least five silly things in this picture?

IMPORTANT: Anyone who plays a mean trick is just being mean. It is never funny to hurt another person's body or feelings.

Replace the missing words.

Funny in France

In France, children like to _____ a "fishy" April Fools' _____ on their friends.

The trick is to _____ a small paper fish on a friend's _____ without the friend _____. Then all day your friend will be the "April Fool." (In France they call it Poisson d'Avril which means "April Fish.")

But watch out! Your _____ may have stuck a fish or two on your back as well!

FRIEND STICK PLAY KNOWING JOKE BACK

Kid Scoop Together: Funny Filler

Have a friend give you each type of word to fill in the blanks. Then read the story aloud!

Jason was always playing jokes on his friends. He would often _____ to the park carrying _____ in his arms. He would carefully _____ one below every swing in the playground.

Unsuspecting kids soon found themselves covered in _____ Finally, Jason learned his lesson. While filling a _____ with _____ he suddenly sneezed, sending _____ in every direction.

It took him hours to _____ through the mess. Even now, months later, Jason will _____ sometimes step on a _____ and be reminded of how a prank can backfire.

ADJECTIVE PLURAL NOUN

ADJECTIVE PLURAL NOUN

Standards Link: Grammar: Understand and use nouns, adjectives and verbs correctly.

Healthy Humor

Know someone who isn't feeling well? Tell them a joke. It might help with healing!

Dr. William Fry of the Stanford School of Medicine says that 100 laughs are equal to 15 minutes of riding a bike. Stronger muscles around the lungs help people breathe better.

Many doctors are finding that laughing is good for our health. When we laugh, chemicals called endorphins (en-DOOR-fins) are released from the brain. Endorphins make a person feel happy. They can also kill pain. So, if you laugh the next time you fall, it might hurt a little less!

Standards Link: Health: Students understand ways in which they can enhance and maintain their own health and well-being.

Match each riddle with its punchline.

IT WAS JUST doing Time.

Why do Teachers wear sunglasses?

What happened To The magic Tractor?

Why can't you Tell a cow a secret?

Why was The clock in prison?

Because students are so bright.

Because it goes in one ear and out The udder.

IT WENT down The road and turned into a field.

Cut out this phony "news article" and hand it to a friend. After they've read it, say "April fool!"

DOLPHIN SPEAKS

FROM STAFF AND WIRE REPORTS

MIAMI – A dolphin regularly seen at a Miami fishing boat harbor has developed a vocabulary of a few words and can even whistle the hit tune "Beyond the Sea."

The dolphin, called Donna by locals, shocked fishermen last Thursday by squeaking "More, please!" after being fed handfuls of fish from a boat heading back to the harbor. The dolphin can also be heard saying the words "tasty" and "thanks" on a video of the incident.

Marine biologists have rushed to the area to communicate with Donna. If her ability to speak can be further developed, it could provide historic breakthroughs in science and interspecies communication.

Find the differences between these two bunnies.

ANSWER: There ARE no differences! April Fool! Now give this puzzle to a friend as a prank.

Extra! Extra!

Silly News

Rewrite the headlines in today's newspaper so that they have the exact opposite meaning.

Standards Link: Reading Comprehension: Understand word choice to accomplish a purpose.

How many Easter eggs can you find on this page? Have a friend try. Who found the most?

Fool the Eyes

How many Fs are in this sentence?

Finding funny examples of newsmakers making flubs in speeches is the result of years of careful observation and faithful listening.

ANSWER: Did you count six Fs? Most people do. But there are really nine. Many people overlook the word "of" in this activity. Try it on a favorite friend!

Standards Link: Reading Comprehension: Follow simple written directions.

Standards Link: Letter sequencing. Recognized identical words. Skim and scan reading. Recall spelling patterns.

Kid Scoop VOCABULARY BUILDERS

This week's word: PRANK

The noun prank means a trick designed as a friendly joke on someone.

As a prank, Alicia pretended she was asleep at recess.

Try to use the word prank in a sentence today when talking with your friends and family.

FROM THE Kid Scoop LESSON LIBRARY

Easter Eggs

With a buddy, look through today's newspaper for the letters that spell Easter Eggs. Cut them out. Take turns mixing up the letters and spelling a new word. A player gets a point for every letter used.

Standards Link: Spelling: Spell grade-level appropriate words correctly.

What did the frog order with his burger?

ANSWER: Large French fries and a medium diet crotch.

Write On!

City of Fremont Police Chief to Retire After More Than 31 Years of Service

Fremont Police Chief Richard Lucero announced he will retire from the City of Fremont in July of 2018. Chief Lucero began his career with the City as a police officer in 1987 and rose through the ranks to become police chief in 2013. Over the course of three decades, Chief Lucero's entire law enforcement career has been with Fremont. As he rose through the ranks of sergeant, lieutenant and captain, Chief Lucero served in several specialized assignments including SWAT, Street Crimes, Narcotics, and Internal Affairs. Chief Lucero is a current member of several law enforcement and nonprofit organizations, including the California Police Chiefs' Association, International Association of Chiefs of Police, Niles Rotary, Officers Give Hope, and is a past president of the California Peace Officers Association. He is a lifetime member of the California Narcotic Officer's Association. To add to his achievements, Chief Lucero obtained his law degree early in his career and is a current member of the California State Bar. He is a recipient of the CALI Excellence for the Future Award in the study of local government law.

Chief Lucero is extraordinarily grateful for what the members of the department have contributed to the Fremont community during his administration. The holistic approach to improving its impact on the community is evident in the breadth of programs enacted during his tenure. From introducing the use of regionalized trailing hounds Blaze and Xena to better locate missing persons and criminal offenders, to launching a pilot study of electric patrol vehicles, Chief Lucero and his team have displayed a singular commitment to making Fremont a safe place to live and work.

"Police Chief Rich Lucero has been the bedrock of the Fremont Police Department, driving innovation and inspiring excellence among those he worked with," said Fremont City Manager Fred Diaz. "His leadership guided the department through the most difficult of circumstances, and they truly rose to every challenge. I'm grateful to have had the opportunity to serve with Rich and I'm going to miss his thoughtful and responsive approach that helped the department, and community, to flourish."

Chief Lucero has worked closely with department members to implement initiatives that decrease local crime, improve officer safety, reduce traffic injury accidents, provide education and awareness, and emphasize candid and trusted communication with the people the department serves. These efforts have been the core strength and foundation in the relationship the department has with the community. A major focus over the last several years has been the adoption of intelligence-based policing strategies. The adoption of intel-led policing has contributed to a more than 60 percent decrease in residential burglaries since the spring of 2013. Other initiatives led the department to establish a public and private community video partnership program, initiate implementation of a body-worn camera program, and have improved safety equipment for field personnel. Additional programs involved expanding the department's capacity to respond and de-escalate situations of acute mental illness and health crises through comprehensive crisis intervention methods and training; the creation of a specialized mobile evaluation team in partnership with Alameda County Behavioral Health, and by providing patrol officers with lifesaving equipment they need to better serve the City's residents, including AEDs to treat heart attack victims and naloxone to counter opioid overdose.

Chief Lucero and his family are exceptionally appreciative of what serving the Fremont community has meant in their lives and look with optimism toward what the Police Department and community will continue to achieve together in the future.

The City will conduct an internal recruitment in the coming months.

Did You Know? Fremont Offers Online Tools for Local Business Prospects

The City of Fremont wants to make it easy for businesses to get their start in Fremont. That's why the City offers two online tools, OpenCounter and ZoningCheck, designed to help individuals with everything from City of Fremont permit fees to ideal business site locations.

With OpenCounter, users answer a few questions about the business that they are interested in opening, and then the website will provide them with the necessary City requirements and permit fees based on their responses. ZoningCheck provides users the ability to find out where in the city their new business could be located.

So if you're thinking about opening a business in Fremont, be sure to check out these helpful tools. To get started, visit www.Fremont.gov/OpenCounter.

Affordable Housing Project Breaks Ground in Fremont

Earlier this month, the City of Fremont celebrated the groundbreaking for Stevenson Terrace, a new affordable housing project built in partnership with MidPen Housing. Stevenson Terrace, located on a 2.3-acre site at Stevenson Boulevard and Stevenson Place, will include 80 affordable housing units for limited income families in Fremont. The project is estimated to be complete in 2019.

If you are interested in receiving application information when the units become available, please sign up for the City's Affordable Housing Interest List at www.Fremont.gov/AffordableHousingInterest. To view the income requirements for affordable housing in Fremont, visit the City's Area Median Income Housing webpage at www.Fremont.gov/AreaMedianIncome.

Annual Compost Giveaway

Participants in the City's curbside organics program can pick up two free bags of compost on Sunday, April 8 from 8 a.m. to noon at the Fremont Recycling and Transfer Station located at 41149 Boyce Rd., while supplies last. The event will be held rain or shine.

Residents must bring their most current Republic Services garbage bill to show their household's participation in the curbside organics program. Residents will be directed to the loading area where crews will place bags of compost into vehicles. Residents may pick up compost on behalf of a neighbor or family member who is unable to attend by bringing their respective Republic Services bill.

The Compost Giveaway event is brought to you by the City of Fremont, in partnership with Republic Services and the Fremont Recycling and Transfer Station. For more information, please contact Republic Services at 510-657-3500.

Youth Scholarship Program

The City of Fremont's Parks and Recreation Scholarship Fund is seeking donations for their scholarship program administered by the Community Services Department. The program is designed for children who, without financial assistance, would not have the opportunity to participate in the Department's youth activities. The scholarship program makes enriching activities such as swim lessons, participation in the Tiny Tots preschool program, camps, reading development, art classes, etc., more accessible to low-income families by partially covering up to $75 of the cost of current registration fees for youth who qualify. Each year, requests for assistance increase as does the need for funding. More than 400 scholarships were given out last summer and a 10 percent increase in need is anticipated for this summer. A contribution would have a direct, positive, and life-enhancing impact for families and youth in Fremont.

Children who qualify for the "School Lunch" program are eligible to apply. One hundred percent of donations are directed toward subsidizing these classes and activities for low-income youth that need the support.

I need a Forever Home

King, a handsome
Chocolate Point
Siamese with big blue eyes and
Zoey, a beautiful
Calico with lovely green eyes are bonded kitties.
Although senior in years, they are young at heart. At 12 yrs old, they suddenly found themselves in an unfamiliar place, a shelter, because their pet parent had allergies and had to give them up.

They don't understand why they landed at the shelter and all the new sounds and smells
are scary to them.
They are slowly adapting but look forward to cuddles, a lap to warm and a home to call their own. Please consider opening your heart and home to this loving and gentle pair.

Both are altered and ready to go home with you.

Community Fourth of July Fireworks events grants

SUBMITTED BY
LAUREL ANDERSON/MARINA HINESTROSA

Nonprofit organizations planning to hold 2018 Fourth of July fireworks events in Santa Clara County may benefit from the grant program the County of Santa Clara established to fund safe and legal community fireworks displays. The County is allocating a total of $25,000 to sponsor up to two fireworks events in each of the five supervisorial districts ($5,000 per district).
“Fourth of July fireworks are the stuff memories are made of; but safety absolutely has to be our top priority,” Supervisor Joe Simitian, President of the County of Santa Clara Board of Supervisors. “That’s why we want to support organizations that offer safe, legal and professional displays in a responsible way.”
Nonprofit organizations that have held Fourth of July events involving fireworks displays and meet the criteria to receive a grant are encouraged to submit their applications via e-mail by the 5:00 p.m., April 6, 2018 deadline. Events must include public/fire safety educational elements, be open to any resident in Santa Clara County and be family-friendly.

A County panel will review and evaluate submissions. The County of Santa Clara Board of Supervisors will consider and approve panel recommendations in May. Sponsorship recipients will be notified and receive funds following Board approval.
Completed applications must be received via e-mail, no later than 5 p.m., on April 6, 2018. Submit applications to Cynthia Montemayor, cynthia.montemayor@ceo.sccgov.org.
For more information, visit https://www.sccgov.org/sites/ceo/Pages/fsi.aspx

Elements

BY ZOYA HAJEE

With immense passion and drive, two high schoolers set out to educate youth about climate change, promote green habits, and raise money for community projects beneficial to the environment. Three years ago, Shreeya Indap and Ojaswee Chaudhary founded Dandilyonn, a non-profit organization dedicated to initiate conversation and action regarding the planet. They have held a walkathon that donated over $1,000 to Greenspace in San Jose, hosted multiple art parties to reach out to children about this topic, created a line of T-shirts with eco-friendly messages, and wrote dozens of articles regarding current news on climate change.
Last summer, the girls began brainstorming ideas for their next project. Indap and Choudhary had met ten years ago at a dance class, and they relentlessly searched for an event that would bring together their passion for dance and Dandilyonn. Thus, they founded “Elements,” a dance show fundraiser.
Their concept for the show involves the portrayal of the different aspects of the Earth, physically as well as culturally. Through dance, they will be able to showcase the diversity of people and cultures that live on the planet itself. With this notion in mind, they called the show “Elements,” signifying the various elements of Earth.
Not only does the dance show raise awareness through the arts, but it also raises money for a crucial cause. Indap spoke to her high school’s principal to find out what they could raise money for, and they decided to donate their profits to new LED lights at Mission San Jose High School.
“Elements” will be held on Sunday, April 1 at the Pleasanton Firehouse Arts Center and feature around 50 dancers from different backgrounds. The audience will be taken on the journey of Earth, told through five elements: fire, water, land, air, and space. Various dance schools such as Antara Asthaayi Dance, Navia Dance Academy, Jyoti Kala Mandir, and T&D Dance will be performing as well as dance groups from Mission San Jose – MSJ Tahitian and MSJ Urban. Most performances are Kathak, Tahitian, Hip-hop, and Bhangra, but they also feature music such as taiko drums, piano, and tabla drums. Together, the performances demonstrate how music and dance from all over the world can unite individuals and drive them towards a cause. “We are so honored to host them all,” Indap said. “And we’re excited to have them show our world’s unity in fighting for our planet.”

Indap and Choudary are astounded by the progress their event has made. “Since we started planning our show in August 2017,” Indap said, “it has taken turns we never imagined and taught us valuable lessons along the way.” When finalizing dance troupes, for example, persistence was key. It proved to be a difficult process since many groups were not available during Easter. Marketing the dance show was another obstacle, and they consistently advertised the event through social media platforms, flyers around the community, and word of mouth.
Currently, they estimate around $2,000 will be donated to the school for eco-friendly LED lights. They are proud of the direct impact it will have on the community, as the lights will save both money and energy in the long run. Since the show is entirely run by youth, they hope to further impact the community by inspiring more students to take initiative on global issues and develop a sense of responsibility to improve the environment. Through the arts, “Elements” strives to connect people of various ethnicities and spread a message of unity among individuals to take action towards climate change.

Park It

BY NED MACKAY

No foolin
April is beautiful

As March turns to April, outdoor programs spring up like wildflowers in the East Bay Regional Park District. For example, five different programs are on the calendar in coming days at Tilden Nature Area near Berkeley.

First on the list is a look into the hidden world of pond water, from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, March 31 with naturalist "Trail Gail" Broesder. Using nets and magnifying glasses, the group will search for baby dragonflies, midges, frogs and newts.

Gail also plans an almost April Fools walk from 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. the same day. It's a trek around Jewel Lake to see how nature uses camouflage and mimicry to fool predators.

Or you can join interpretive student aide Brianna Contaxis-Tucker from 2 to 3 p.m. Saturday, March 31, to learn about keeping a journal of your visit to the Nature Area.

Gail will be back on Sunday, April 1 to lead an ascent of Tilden's Wildcat Peak from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. Bring a snack and water for the climb, and experience panoramic views of the Bay Area.

After the peak climb, Gail plans the first in a series of nature exploration walks, from 2:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. on April 1. Dress to get dirty and maybe wet, while looking for newts, animal tracks and banana slugs.

All these programs meet at Tilden's Environmental Education Center, which is at the north end of Central Park Drive. For information, call (510) 544-2233.

There's also an April Fools hike from 10 a.m. to noon on Sunday, April 1 at Roberts Regional Recreation Area in the Oakland hills, led by naturalist Michael Charnofsky.

It's a 3.5-mile stroll through redwood forests. The group will learn some truths and falsehoods of nature, while trying to fool each other with nature facts and falsehoods. Designed for ages 10 and older.

Meet at the Redwood Bowl on Skyline Boulevard next to the Chabot Space and Science Center. Parking is free. For information and directions, call (510) 544-3187.

Coyote Hills Regional Park in Fremont plans several programs on April Fools weekend, too.

The first is a walk from 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 31, during which naturalist Kristina Parkison will share knowledge of Ohlone Indian plant and animal lore and lead some games that the Ohlones enjoyed. It's for ages seven and older.

Naturalist Francis Mendoza will lead a walk from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, April 1 in search of ducks, songbirds and raptors in four different habitats. The program is for ages 14 and older; all levels of experience are welcome.

Francis also plans a program from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday April 1, during which the group will make nests out of shredded wheat, melted chocolate and marshmallows, then eat them. Francis also will talk about birds that make their nests of sticks, mud and spider webs. The nest program is for ages two and older. Please be mindful of food allergies.

If you are 18 or older and enjoy sharing your enthusiasm about nature with children and the public, consider becoming a volunteer docent at Coyote Hills. Naturalist Kristina Parkison will head up a docent training program with sessions from 10 a.m. to noon on Thursdays, April 5, 12, 19 and 26.

Registration is required. For more information and registration, call (888) 327-2757. Select option 2 and refer to program number 19961.

The programs meet at the Coyote Hills visitor center. The park is at the bay end of Patterson Ranch Road off Paseo Padre Parkway. There's a parking fee of $5 per vehicle. Call (510) 544-3220.

When I was in school, snipe hunts were hazing rituals during which new boys were led off in search of a nonexistent bird. However, there actually is a marshland bird, called a snipe, and the naturalist staff at Big Break Regional Shoreline in Oakley will lead a safari from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 1 in hopes of spotting one.

Big Break is at 69 Big Break Road off Oakley's Main Street. For information, call 888-327-2757, ext. 3050.

There are lots of other regional parklands to explore and naturalist programs to enjoy. Check out the park district website, www.ebparks.org

Rookie receives top weekly honor

Women's Water Polo

SUBMITTED BY STEVE CONNOLLY

Cal State East Bay freshman Adrienne Van Dyke has been selected as the Western Water Polo Association (WWPA) Player of the Week for Mar. 12-18. The rookie from Canada had a huge day at Santa Clara University on March 17, leading the CSUEB water polo team to victories in both ends of its non-conference doubleheader.

Van Dyke notched a hat trick for the Pioneers in an 11-8 win over Concordia Irvine to start the day. She followed that up with two more goals in a thrilling 7-6 victory over SCU to close out the afternoon. Van Dyke was East Bay's leading scorer for the day with five goals along with two assists and two steals. She is the team's second-leading scorer for the season after scoring her 20th goal at Santa Clara.

Van Dyke is the second Pioneer to capture WWPA Player of the Week honors, joining goalkeeper Makenna Nation, who was recognized after the opening weekend of the season. The Pioneers are ranked 25th in the national coach's poll.

Huskies lose a close contest

SUBMITTED AND PHOTOS BY MIKE HEIGHTCHEW

In a week of rain outs, most local baseball and softball games were postponed. However, a brief respite on Monday, March 12th allowed the Washington Huskies (Fremont) to bat and field against the California High School Grizzlies (San Ramon). The Grizzlies jumped out to a lead in the third inning with good hitting, but the Huskies showed grit and clawed their way back to tie the game in the sixth. The outcome was anyone's guess when finally, in the eighth inning, the Grizzlies were able to put together the right combination of at-bats to bring home the winning run. Final score: Grizzlies 2, Huskies 1.

Fremont Spartans host Alameda Attack

Lacrosse

SUBMITTED BY SHERRI ROHDE

The Fremont Spartans hosted three teams from Alameda Attack on a rare day, March 24th, of no rain. The u10's opened the day with an exciting game; Alameda dominated Fremont 12-2. Game two saw the u14 teams turn a forfeit (Alameda was short on players) into an exciting show as Fremont lent players over to the Alameda team. Wrapping up the day, the u12 teams played a close game, ending in Alameda's favor 10-7.

The Fremont Spartans Lacrosse club is the ONLY youth lacrosse club between Alameda and San Jose and has teams for several age groups ages 10 and up. For more information about the Fremont Spartans, visit: www.fre-lax.com

Alameda County History Day

MICHELLE SMITH McDONALD

Showcasing projects under the theme of “Conflict and Compromise in History,” more than 130 Alameda County students participated in Alameda County History Day on Saturday, March 17th at Edna Brewer Middle School in Oakland. The annual event and awards ceremony, hosted by the Alameda County Office of Education’s Core Learning Department, attracted more than 300 people to hear Alameda County Superintendent L. Karen Monroe deliver congratulations to the participants and emphasize the importance of civic engagement and education.

Awards for first, second, and third place were distributed by Navdeep Purewal, Executive Director of ACOE Core Learning and Rob Darrow, Coordinator of History Day. The 75 champions from Alameda County now advance to National History Day, California that will take place on May 5-6, 2018 at William Jessup University in Rocklin, CA.

Students began researching their projects in the fall and then presented their projects as historical papers, exhibits, performances, documentaries, posters and websites. The submissions were judged by a panel of local educators and leaders.

Swalwell responds to defunding of energy programs

SUBMITTED BY
JOSH RICHMAN

Rep. Eric Swalwell (CA-15) led 109 of his House colleagues in opposing President Trump’s proposal to cut America’s investment in energy efficiency and renewable energy by two thirds. The U.S. Department of Energy’s Office of Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy (EERE) plays a key role in advancing America’s ‘all of the above’ energy strategy, leading a large network of researchers and other partners to deliver innovative technologies that will help make renewable electricity generation more cost-competitive with traditional energy sources. Its research, development, and deployment programs focus on renewable electricity generation, sustainable transportation, and energy-saving homes, buildings, and manufacturing. President Trump has proposed cutting EERE’s funding from $2.03 billion in Fiscal Year 2017 to $696 million in FY 2019—a 66 percent reduction. “Being narrow-minded and short-sighted about renewable energy and energy efficiency would deny America the thriving economy it deserves and would leave the world more vulnerable to climate change’s harmful effects,” Swalwell said. “We must lead the way by investing in smarter policies, lest our bright future grow dimmer.” By rejecting this deep cut and maintaining at least the FY 2017 level funding for EERE, “Congress signals to our scientists and engineers at home and around the world that we are serious about rising to meet the growing demand for cheaper, more sustainable energy,” Swalwell and his fellow lawmakers wrote last week to the Energy and Water Development Appropriations Subcommittee. “This investment will help us continue to reduce our dependence on foreign sources of energy, enhance our competitiveness and create good American jobs well into the future.”

OPINION

The politics of fear

violence. However, it is at the local level that common will and concerns receive the most immediate response and respect. From these roots, regional and national changes are initiated. It is also from such basic concerns and perceptions that prevalent opinions are molded. Will they be based on optimism or fear? In the case of political reform, the word crisis is appropriate but also limiting. Danger can and does often initiate opportunity.

Demographics of Southeast Bay Area communities has changed dramatically over the past several decades in response to a rapid influx of business, people and technology. Along with this transformation, has come a series of crisis' that can evoke fear. Challenges to the environment, housing, transportation, education, social order, historical and cultural preservation can become overwhelming. There is, however, an attitude among our population of not only crisis, but hope and unity as well. Community groups and associations have bonded residents to achieve remarkable accomplishments by addressing critical needs within and absent a current crisis. Concentration and focus on common problems and goals supersedes fear, hate and paralysis. Action groups have organized throughout our communities, some long-standing – to combat the insidious nature of fear. A recent gathering of the Indo-American Community Federation focused on community unity while others such as Indo-Americans for Better Community and Citizens for Better Community are preparing for similar events. These are not isolated celebrations; they are indicative of a healthy community spirit that is evident every day through meetings of many clubs and associations that bring our communities together.

Government fulfills similar functions. It is composed of fellow residents and citizens working toward a common goal – smooth, efficient and positive change. As we approach the election season, it is important to keep this in mind, to focus on the purpose of elections and the important role for all of us, the electorate. If complacent and idle, crisis combines with fear to move us toward distrust and hatred. It is when we remain vigilant, active and involved with our communities that the result is productive and positive. Soon we will be asked by politicians to cast our vote in their direction. Even though election day is months away, now is the time to determine which issues are important to you. As rhetoric increases, a firm grasp of the issues in advance will help sort through the claims and counter claims of politicians. This will be your chance to directly affect the political process... reject fear in favor of educated and reasoned choices.

Is the glass half empty or half full? This common expression asks a basic question about attitudes. In a world of opportunity and danger, which do we choose? Although many have promulgated the belief that the term "crisis" written in Chinese characters can be interpreted as a combination of danger and opportunity, according to linguists this is not so. Its actual translation is closer to an indication of a critical point of danger. Does this mean that unfavorable events are predetermined and destined to follow?

Just as perception of a half full/empty glass may be pessimistic or optimistic, so can reactions to political events on all levels. While national politics can be difficult and sluggish, local action is much more immediate. Mass action can sway national political fortitude, but it takes a major shock to the system and Herculean efforts. It can be done and was recently demonstrated through coordinated public action to address gun

Learn your risk for diabetes

SUBMITTED BY AMERICAN DIABETES ASSOCIATION

The American Diabetes Association (ADA) has designated Tuesday, March 27 as Diabetes Alert Day. The idea is to sound an alarm about the prevalence and risks of type 2 diabetes by asking Americans to take the Type 2 Diabetes Risk Test.

Available online, the free, anonymous risk test can be found at www.diabetes.org/alertday or via a printable questionnaire in English and in Spanish, and only takes a minute to complete. By answering questions such as "Do you have a family history of diabetes?" and "Are you physically active?" participants can learn if they're at risk for developing type 2 diabetes in just 60 seconds.

The risk test reports results as a numerical score indicating low or high risk for developing type 2 diabetes. Those at a higher risk are encouraged to speak with their health care providers to learn more about how to reduce their risk or delay the onset of the disease.

"You can lower your risk for type 2 diabetes with healthy food choices, weight loss, exercise and medication, but knowing your risk is the first step," said Alissa Maier, from the American Diabetes Association. "Today we're asking Americans to take the one-minute test to find out if they're at risk for developing type 2 diabetes, and we hope participants will share the test with friends and family."

An estimated 7.2 million Americans with diabetes are currently undiagnosed, with 1 million undiagnosed in California specifically. In addition, 84 million American adults have prediabetes — a condition in which blood glucose (sugar) levels are higher than normal, but not high enough for a type 2 diabetes diagnosis.

In California, it is estimated that more than 13 million adults have prediabetes or undiagnosed diabetes. Nine out of 10 people with the condition don't know they have it, and prediabetes almost always precedes a type 2 diabetes diagnosis. People with diabetes are at significant risk for serious complications, including kidney failure, heart disease, stroke, blindness and lower-limb amputations. However, you can prevent or delay your risk for developing type 2 diabetes through healthy lifestyle changes.

Anyone can participate in Alert Day by taking the free Type 2 Diabetes Risk Test (in English or Spanish). Anyone who scores high on the Risk Test, should follow up with their doctor and enroll in the National Diabetes Prevention Program to make the needed lifestyle changes. Find the nearest National Diabetes Prevention Program at www.doihaveprediabetes.org/reverse-prediabetes.html.

Alert Day is sponsored nationally by Quest Diagnostics Health & Wellness and CVS Pharmacy.

Obituary

Mary Tess Stump
December 20, 1960 - March 23 2018

A Tri-City native, Mary Tess Stump was born on December 20th, 1960 in Castro Valley at Eden Hospital to parents Ed and Mary Stump. Often called “Tessie,” she devoted most of her time to her loved ones.
Tessie felt most happy and most fulfilled among family and friends. For recreation, she dutifully enjoyed the great outdoors, road trips, and frequenting family theme parks. Earlier in life, Tessie was an avid concert goer, often taking in performances by various rock-n-roll acts from the 1970s and 80s.
Throughout her life, Tessie had a deep fondness for traditional and ethnic dishes—a foodie in her own way. From savory to sweets, American to Filipino cuisines, Tessie frequented them all. It was her true passion.
As a professional, Tessie began her career with Verbatim Electronics, where she worked as an associate in Quality Assurance. Later, she was hired by Nordstrom as a Claims Associate, as well as an agent of Loss Prevention Control.

Due to health concerns with advanced diabetes, Mary Tess Stump passed on March 23rd at 3:23 AM at the age of 57.
A Roman Catholic since birth, Tessie is now in the company of the Heavenly Kingdom. She is survived by her nieces and nephews, her mother Marie Parado Stump and siblings Ed Stump Jr., Marylou Sandolo, Earl Stump, and Bernadette Stump, as well as Pedro Partida, her long-term partner for over 12 years.
May love and kindness be with Mary Tess Stump, and all those with whom her life has touched.

San Leandro wins award for environmental efforts

SUBMITTED BY TERESA MEYER

San Leandro is one of just seven cities nationwide to be recognized with a $10,000 award by the National League of Cities (NLC) for its resiliency efforts. The cash award is distributed through the NLC’s Leadership in Community Resilience program and will be used by San Leandro to begin engaging with the public on development of a local Climate Resilience and Adaptation Plan and will concurrently launch a local wetlands restoration project near the city’s shoreline. The program will also include a Resilient San Leandro Summit, tentatively scheduled for Fall 2018.
“I am excited to lead these conversations with our local residents around ways in which we can help ensure our community is well prepared in adapting to the impacts of climate change,” said Mayor Pauline Russo Cutter. “Receiving national recognition and financial support from the National League of Cities will be very beneficial to us as we seek to address the uncertainties that come along with a hotter and wetter future, while also involving our local residents as we enhance and prepare our City’s critical infrastructure.”

By dovetailing this new effort with the results of the City’s 2017 Climate Hazards Assessment, the city hopes to educate and to engage the public around general climate hazards. Community events will also provide an opportunity to recruit local volunteers to engage with San Leandro’s residents with an aim to promote community leadership and participatory decision making in planning, response and recovery activities.
Other cities receiving the award include: Birmingham, Alabama; Bozeman, Montana; Durango, Colorado; Indianapolis, Indiana; Kingston, New York; and Nashua, New Hampshire.

Marion Edna O'Leary

October 22, 1928 - March 17, 2018

Resident of Union City

A life of love, family, prayer, and service. A mother who passed on her love, wisdom and personality. A loving wife of Patrick; wonderful mother to Michael and Timothy; adoring grandmother of Krystalyn, Jay, Jesse, James, Jerome, Nikki and Ian. Caring daughter of Edward and Marie Gutierrez; sister of Camilla, Albert and Mae. An affectionate great-grandmother to ten beautiful children who were real joys in her life.

Marion was a warm and tireless wife, mother, matriarch, friend to countless people who benefitted from her immeasurable energy, help and love. She always has a zest for life and a cheerful twinkle in her eye even in challenging times. She truly enjoyed her orchids, roses and gardening. Marion was an avid San Francisco Giants fan as well as a deeply faithful Catholic devoted to Padre Pio and Pope John Paul II. Marion’s professional and domestic skills were unparalleled - she kept BART’s electrical shop in order for years as well as being an accomplished cook and seamstress. Her love for each person was evident from her warm enthusiasm and welcoming manner.

Viewing will be on Wednesday, March 28th at 8:30AM to 10:30AM at Fremont Chapel of the Roses, 1940 Peralta Blvd. Fremont. Followed by a funeral mass at 11AM at St. Edwards Church, 5788 Thornton Ave, Newark.

Donna Buum

April 6, 1930 - March 10, 2018

Former Resident of Fremont

Donna Jean Buum, of Fremont, CA, passed away on March 10, 2018 in Aptos, CA. Donna was born in Wisconsin on April 6, 1930 and eventually moved to Iowa during her junior high years. After high school she met the love of her life, Bob Buum. They started their story together when they married in 1950 and soon added four children to the family. Eventually their journey together took them to California where they became residents of Fremont in 1962. Bob established his teaching and coaching career at Irvington High School while Donna successfully managed the many family obligations within the home.

She was actively engaged and a strong supporter of her children throughout their years. She was, and always will remain, a powerful influence in both her children and grandchildren lives. Donna was an active member of her church family, Evangelical Free (now Bridges Community Church), in Fremont. Her love for music provided her with various opportunities to participate in several women chorus groups. Her favorite pastime was anything involved with the arts and theater. That love for music inspired her to learn and eventually become a phenomenal pianist. Donna worked for the City of Newark for 14 years until her retirement.

Donna Buum is preceded in death by Bob Buum. She is survived by Benny Buum, Bradley Buum, Beth Martin, and Brenda Buum Jacobs and their families, which include her 9 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren. Donna will be deeply missed by all who were privileged to know her. Her laughter and sense of humor was infectious. She had an endearing smile and caring heart, ready to lend her assistance where needed, whatever the situation. That smile was present to her very last hours; amazing love, amazing strength. She is now Home with her Heavenly Father and reunited with Bob.

We love you Mom, Grandma, Donna!

We will be celebrating Donna’s life at 10:30 AM on Saturday, April 7, at Bridges Community Church, 505 Driscoll Rd., Fremont, CA. In honor of what would have been her 88th Birthday, feel free to wear your favorite color (her favorite was green!).

Longtime Fremont Resident and 4th Generation San Franciscan

Elinor “Dede” Smith passed away peacefully on March 21, after a short illness—97 years young.

Born in San Francisco, March 15, 1921 to Gilbert and Ethel (Hilmer) Hall, she grew up in the house her grandparents built shortly after the 1906 earthquake. Her paternal great grandfather, Gilbert Cowles Hall, founded a dry goods business on Jessie St., south of Market, in 1879, which her grandfather and father later expanded. Her maternal grandfather, Fred Hilmer, was a San Francisco Supervisor during the 1915 Pan-Pacific Expo.

She moved to Hawaii in 1933 while in middle school, when the islands were still a territory, and transport was only by ship. Her family lived in a bungalow on undeveloped Waikiki beach, in full view of Diamond Head and walking distance to the ocean.

She returned to San Francisco for high school, attending Lowell, where her fondest memory was of cutting school to walk across the Golden Gate Bridge on its opening day in 1939. She later returned for reunions for over 75 years. After high school, she entered Stanford, graduating in 1943 with a degree in Political Science and building lifelong friendships with Tri-Delt Sorority members. She continued to participate in numerous Stanford events for seven decades.

Dede married Harry William “Bill” Smith in 1942, during WWII in Florida, where Bill was stationed in the Army. At the war’s end, they moved to Burlingame, where they started their family with Keith, Dale, and Barry.

In 1955, Bill and Dede moved to the just-formed city of Fremont, to start Dale Hardware, named after their daughter Dale, while also adding their fourth child, Garth. The store prospered along with the growth of Fremont. While Bill managed the merchandise, staff and store, Dede supervised the office responsibilities. Their son Garth later became the store owner and manager, and Garth’s son, Kyle, is now co-leading the business. Bill and Dede were instrumental in weaving Dale Hardware’s growth into the fabric of Fremont, contributing to numerous local organizations, schools and the arts. Even after Bill’s passing in 1983, Dede continued to work at Dale Hardware into her 90’s.

Dede contributed her time and resources to many local organizations, including the Fremont Symphony Guild, Inner Wheel, Fremont Congregational Church, League of Women Voters, American Association of University Women, Save the Bay, and SAVE (Safe Alternatives to Violent Environments).

She was a pillar of the Fremont community, and will be missed.

She lived independently in the same house until the very end, surrounded by loving and helpful neighbors, family, and friends.

Dede was preceded in death by her husband, Bill; her daughter Dale, and son Keith, and is now survived by two sons, Barry (Julie) and Garth (Robin), and Keith’s wife, Anne; eight grandchildren, Daron (Molly), Ryan (Veronica), Eric (Michaele), Tyler, Chris (Elena), Kyle (Jennifer) and Kenna (J.D.); and 12 great-grandchildren, Lauren, Nolan, Alex, Corey, Isaac, Asha, Mari, Genevieve, Davin, Emry, John and Ella.

She leaves a legacy of living life fully to the end, with energy, commitment, character and—above all—love. For more family photos, visit <https://tinyurl.com/elinor-smith>

Per Dede’s wishes, a private family celebration of life is planned. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made in her memory to SAVE at save-dv.org.

Obituary

Dorothy Eleanor Parker

August 15, 1929 – March 19, 2018

Resident of Fremont

On March 19, 2018, Dorothy Parker passed away at the age of 88. Dorothy Eleanor Muir was born in Oakland on August 15, 1929, to Alice and William Muir. She was raised in Alameda. Her grandfather was Christian Halvorsen, Captain of the Star of Alaska, (AKA Balclutha, which is maintained as a museum in San Francisco). Dorothy (Dott) graduated from Alameda High School, class of 1947, attended business school and worked in banking in San Francisco. She joined the Alameda Ski Club, where on a trip to Sugar Bowl, met Terrence (Terry) Parker. Dott and Terry married in 1950 and lived in Castro Valley. Dott was the loving and caring mother to three children. In 1961, the family moved to the Mission Ranch neighborhood in Fremont. Dott was active in the children’s activities including Campfire, Scouting, Rainbow and swim teams. As the children grew independent, Dorothy worked as a Tour Guide at Leslie Salt in Newark. The family enjoyed camping vacations primarily in California, but also toured across the US. In 1970, the family bought property and built the family ski cabin at Kirkwood Ski Resort, which became the primary destination for many subsequent family vacations to this day. Dott and Terry hosted countless family gatherings at both homes. The Parker home and backyard pool was a magnet for neighborhood friends to gather with the family. They also enjoyed traveling throughout the world, especially after Terry retired from Ford in 1985. They remained active with neighbors and friends from the Masonic organizations including Eastern Star. A rotating dinner club kept the group meeting periodically over dinner for decades. Dott and Terry also kept close ties with a group of homeowners from Kirkwood.

Beginning in elementary school, Dott made friends easily and nurtured an ever-growing circle of life-long friends. For example, the entire wedding party joined them to celebrate their 50th anniversary. After over 60 years of marriage, Terry passed in 2011. Dorothy moved across Fremont to Brookdale Senior Living following a stroke in 2016. At Brookdale, Dott maintained friendships with prior neighbors as well as creating many new friends. Dott’s caring friendships touched many and she will be deeply missed.

Dott leaves her three children Diane Panos, Jennifer Petersen (Ken), Larry Parker (Joan); grandchildren Michael Panos, Stacey Panos, Adam Petersen, Lisa White (Nathan), Scott Parker (Caitlin) and Eric Parker (Emily); and great grandchildren Isaac and Aaron White.

A memorial service will be held at the Fremont Memorial Chapel, 3723 Peralta Blvd., Fremont on Saturday April 14, at 2:00 PM.

Blood donors urged to help

SUBMITTED BY
CHRISTINE WELCH

Though spring has officially arrived, the American Red Cross blood supply is still recovering from severe winter storms in March. Donors of all blood types are urged to roll up a sleeve and help save lives. Tri-City residents have several opportunities to make blood donations in the coming weeks:

Fremont

• March 31: 9 a.m. - 3 p.m., Islamic Society of the East Bay, Islamic Society of East Bay, 33330 Peace Terrace

Union City

• April 6: 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. Union City Sports Center, 31224 Union City Blvd.

Newark

Fremont-Newark Blood Donation Center, 39227 Cedar Blvd.

• March 27, 28 and 29: 11:15 a.m. – 6:15 p.m.

• Wednesday, March 28: 11:15 a.m. – 6:15 p.m.

• March 30, 31: 8:15 a.m. – 3 p.m.

• April 1: 8:15 a.m. – 2:45 p.m.

• April 3: 8:35 a.m. – 6:15 p.m.

• April 4, 5: 11:45 a.m. – 6:30 p.m.

• April 5: 11:45 a.m. – 6:30 p.m.

• April 6, 7: 8:15 a.m. – 3 p.m.

• April 8: 8:15 a.m. – 2:45 p.m.

• April 10: 11:45 a.m. – 6:15 p.m.

• April 11, 12: 11:45 a.m. – 6:30 p.m.

• April 13, 14: 8:15 a.m. – 3 p.m.

• April 15: 8:15 a.m. – 2:45 p.m.

How to donate blood

Visit the American Red Cross website at RedCrossBlood.org or call 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767) to make an appointment or for more information. All blood types are needed to ensure a reliable supply for patients. A blood donor card or driver’s license or two other forms of identification are required at check-in. Individuals who are 17 years-old in most states (16 with parental consent where allowed by state law), weigh at least 110 pounds and are in generally good health may be eligible to donate blood. High school students and other donors 18 years-old or younger also must meet certain height and weight requirements.

Blood and platelet donors can save time at their next donation by using RapidPass to complete their pre-donation reading and health history questionnaire online, on the day of their donation, before arriving at the blood drive. To get started, follow the instructions at RedCross-Blood.org/RapidPass.

Volunteers needed

Another way to support the lifesaving mission of the American Red Cross is to become a volunteer transportation specialist and deliver lifesaving blood products to local area hospitals. Volunteer transportation specialists play a very important role in ensuring an ample blood supply for patients in need by transporting blood and blood products. For more information and to apply for a volunteer transportation specialist position, visit rdcrss.org/driver.

FREMONT PD

Friday, March 16

• Officers were dispatched to the Target store at the Fremont Hub where a female was being held by security on suspicion of stealing merchandise. A records check showed the 53-year-old Fremont woman was on probation for petty theft and had three active misdemeanor warrants. She was taken to Santa Rita jail.

Saturday, March 17

• At 6:12 p.m. officers investigated the theft of an iPhone X from the Verizon store at the Fremont Hub shopping center. The suspect was described as black male adult wearing a black hooded sweat shirt, skinny jeans and black shoes.

• At 10:42 p.m. two separate vehicle burglaries were reported in the parking lot of the Olive Garden restaurant at the Mowry East Center. Passenger windows were shattered, and a black duffle bag was removed from one vehicle and a purse from the other. The incidents occurred between 7:30 p.m. – 10:30 p.m. The cases are under investigation.

Sunday, March 18

• At 10:57 p.m. side show activity was reported near Lakeview Boulevard and Lakeview Court. Numerous callers reported about 50 racers driving recklessly and spinning donuts in the industrial area. Once Officers arrived on scene the vehicles dispersed and headed northbound I-880. One vehicle was disabled and left abandoned, Officer LaSrape had the vehicle towed.

• A vehicle crashed into several parked cars in the Suju’s coffee shop parking lot on Stevenson Boulevard. The driver and another passenger fled the vehicle on foot but were located nearby. The driver was arrested on suspicion of DUI and hit and run. Case investigated by Officer K. Samayoa.

Monday, March 19

• Traffic Officer Snow attempted to stop a traffic stop on a vehicle near the area of Liberty Avenue and Walnut Street. The vehicle took off at a high rate of speed. No pursuit was initiated. Snow advised over the radio what happened and other officers responded. Sgt. McCormick located the car parked near the 4000 block of Stevenson Boulevard. Three of the vehicle’s four occupants fled on foot, leaving an 18-year-old man behind. He was arrested after a records check showed he had warrants. Meanwhile, officers searched the area for the other suspects. Sgt. Ehling located a 19-year-old man fleeing on the frontage road of Stevenson Boulevard and Besco Drive; he was arrested on suspicion of obstruction and resisting an officer. Officer Macciola noticed that the license plate on the car was registered to a nearby apartment complex address and went there. The residents (parents) let officers search their 18-year-old son’s bedroom where they found a BB gun modified to look like a real firearm. Officers continue to look for the teen and his juvenile girlfriend and eventually found them at an address on Bliss Court where they were arrested. The female juvenile was determined to be a missing person from Stockton and was placed with Alameda County Child Protective Services.

• Officer LaSrape was dispatched to Safeway Warm Springs on a report of a robbery where a 23-year-old woman reportedly committed a petty theft and then battered two employees as she attempted to flee with the items. The woman was located by Officer Catassi just south of the Warm Springs/South Fremont BART station and arrested on suspicion of robbery. Case investigated by Officer LaSrape.

Tuesday, March 20

• Officers responded to the area of Warm Springs Safeway regarding the possible brandishing of a handgun during a road rage incident. The possible suspect with the gun was located at the Circle K at Osgood Road and Automall Parkway. No handgun was found during a search of his vehicle, but 13.8 grams of methamphetamine was found. The 37-year-old man was arrested on suspicion of possessing methamphetamine. The original reporting party was eventually located by CHP and stopped at Via San Dimas/ Via San Carlos. The brandishing of a handgun report was deemed unfounded and the case was documented as a road rage incident.

• At 11:35 p.m. Officer Godrich was dispatched to the 48000 block of Purpleleaf Street on the report of a vehicle tire on fire. Upon arrival, Fremont Fire Department personnel were on scene and the fire had been extinguished. Evidence at the scene indicated that the fire was intentionally set. Damage was limited to the tire. There were no witnesses or suspect information. Crime Scene Investigator O’Neal processed the scene for evidence and the case is under investigation.

Wednesday, March 21

• Officers were dispatched to do a welfare check on a woman who kept running into the street on Mission Boulevard. The 39-year-old woman was in possession of drug paraphernalia and a records check showed her had three active warrants. She was arrested.

• Officer Roberts investigated a report of a strong-arm robbery that occurred near Central Avenue and Fremont Boulevard. The suspect stole cash, three credit cards and a permanent resident card.

Friday, March 16

• A 5:14 a.m. a man identified by police as Lloyd B. Haynes, 31, of San Leandro, was arrested at the San Leandro station on suspicion of vandalism and violation of probation.

Saturday, March 17

• At 6:05 p.m. a male passenger was robbed of his laptop computer by 4-5 suspects who fled from the Hayward station. Responding officers were unable to locate the suspects in the area.

Sunday, March 18

• At 8:34 a.m. A man identified by police as Simon Thompkins, 34, of San Jose, was arrested at the Hayward station on suspicion of a parole violation.

• At 4:09 p.m. a female had her iPhone X snatched from her while she was purchasing food from a vendor outside the Hayward station. The suspect was described as a black male juvenile, about 5-feet-4-inches tall, wearing and black hoodie and blue jeans. The suspect fled on foot and police were unable to locate him.

Monday, March 19

• At 12:54 p.m. An unidentified male suspect jumped into Orange Cab, #7, which is a 2005 Lincoln, and drove away from the Fremont station without the cab owner’s permission.

Wednesday, March 21

• A dead body was located along the BART tracks just north of the Warm Springs/South Fremont station. BART police and the Alameda County Coroner responded to investigate the circumstances and cause of death.

LT. ABBIE SERRANO,
MILPITAS PD

On March 22, 2018, at about 3:00 a.m., Milpitas Police officers responded to the intersection of Alder Drive and Tasman Drive about a call of a driver passed out at the wheel of a Chevrolet Suburban SUV stopped at intersection. Officers found the SUV with the engine running and the driver, later identified as Richard Velador, asleep. When Velador woke up and got out of his SUV, he ran away from the officers. After a short chase, the officers arrested him. The officers searched his SUV and found marijuana, a 1/4pound of methamphetamine, and a ballistic vest, similar to what police officers wear. He was booked into the Santa Clara County main jail for possession of a controlled substance for sale, transportation of a controlled substance resisting arrest, driving with a suspended driver license, and two (2) felony warrants for violation of probation from Santa Clara County.

inside of an occupied church. Both suspects were taken into custody without any further incident.

The victim’s purse including cash from the bank transaction was recovered at the crash scene and in the suspect’s possession.

On Wednesday the case against both men was presented to the Alameda County District Attorney. Simmons and King were charged with robbery and an additional charge of felony evading was filed against the driver, Tyrone King.

Both men remain in custody at Alameda County’s Santa Rita Jail in Dublin.

Purse snatch

SUBMITTED BY SAN LEANDRO PD

On Monday 03/19/2018, two Oakland men robbed a 67-year-old woman of her purse after she left the Chase bank in downtown San Leandro.

Just before 6 pm, the victim finished her bank transaction and had walked to the area of Peet’s Coffee. While there, a black male later identified as 24-year-old Mister Simmons forcibly grabbed the victim’s purse from her arm. The suspect ran to an awaiting vehicle being driven by 21-year-old Tyrone King who then fled the scene at a high rate of speed.

Two San Leandro Police officers were flagged down moments after the robbery and given a description of the suspects and their vehicle. Within minutes, the suspect’s vehicle was located by officers. The suspect began to drive at a high rate of speed after the officer’s attempt to stop the car. Speeds reached dangerous levels, and the pursuit was canceled due to public safety.

“The suspect vehicle continued to drive recklessly even after police discontinued the chase,” said San Leandro Police Lieutenant Isaac Benabou. “As a result, the driver lost control and crashed into a fence at the intersection of Durant Ave. and Stratford Ave. Thankfully, no innocent bystanders were injured.”

Both suspects immediately exited the vehicle and ran into the (San Leandro) neighborhood. The driver (King) was quickly apprehended one block away. The second suspect, Simmons, was located as he attempted to hide

SGT. STEVE PARODI,
MILPITAS PD

During an early morning patrol in the parking lot at the Americas Best Value Inn on South Main Street, a sharp-eyed Milpitas police officer noticed something odd about the license plate on a parked car.

The 1998 BMW 323ic had a bent license plate with a 2018 registration sticker. When a records check showed registration on the car expired in 2017, the officer decided to investigate. The officer determined that Martin Anthony Leake Jr., 21, of Milpitas, drove the car to the hotel and rented a room. A records check showed that Leake Jr. was on post release community supervision from the Santa Clara County Probation Department. Additional officers were called to the scene.

Just after 2 a.m. officers contacted Leake Jr. in his hotel room and found him with three 16-year-old juveniles. A search of the hotel room turned up marijuana, alcohol and a handgun reported stolen in a residential burglary in San Jose on Feb. 12. Officers determined that one of the juveniles was in possession of the handgun.

Leake Jr. was arrested and booked into the Santa Clara County main jail on suspicion of violating probation and contributing to the delinquency of minors. Meanwhile, the juveniles were arrested and booked into the Santa Clara County Juvenile Hall on suspicion of violating juvenile probation. Additionally, the juvenile with the handgun faces charges of unlawful possession of a stolen firearm.

STATE OF WISCONSIN
CIRCUIT COURT
KENOSHA COUNTY
PUBLICATION SUMMONS

Case No. 17CV1305
TO: Phillip Allmon
34655 Skyark Dr. Apt. 120
Union City CA 94587-4579
4552 Alhambra
Fremont, CA 94536
THE STATE OF WISCONSIN:
To each person named above as a defendant:
You are hereby being notified that the Plaintiff Carthage College has filed a lawsuit or other legal action against you. The Complaint which is also served upon, states the nature and basis of the legal action.
Within forty (40) days after 03/06/2018, you must respond with a written answer, as that term is used in Chapter 802 of the Wisconsin Statutes, to the complaint. The court may reject or disregard an answer that does not follow the requirements of the statutes. The answer must be sent or delivered to the Court, whose address is 912 56th Street, Kenosha, WI 53140 and to Plaintiff's attorney, Howard, Solochek & Weber, S.C., whose address is 1800 E. Howard Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53207. You may have an attorney help you or represent you.
If you do not provide a proper answer within forty (40) days, the court may grant judgment against you for the award of money or other legal action requested in the Complaint and you may lose your right to object to anything that is or may be incorrect in the complaint. A judgment may be enforced as provided by law. A judgment awarding money may become a lien against any real estate you own now or in the future, and may also be enforced by garnishment or seizure of property. This Communication is from a debt collector and is an attempt to collect a debt. Any information obtained will be used for that purpose.

CITY OF FREMONT
SUMMARY OF ADOPTED ORDINANCE NO. 05-2018

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF FREMONT AMENDING VARIOUS CHAPTERS OF FREMONT MUNICIPAL CODE TITLES 17 (PROVISIONS) AND 18 (PLANNING AND ZONING) TO ADD CLARIFYING LANGUAGE AND NEW OBJECTIVE STANDARDS FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF MULTIFAMILY HOUSING FOR CONFORMANCE WITH NEW STATE LEGISLATION

On March 6, 2018, the Fremont City Council introduced the above ordinance. It would update Title 17 (Subdivisions) and 18 (Planning and Zoning) of the Fremont Municipal Code (FMC). In 2017, the California Legislature adopted 15 bills that became effective on January 1, 2018, to address housing supply and affordability. The proposed amendments to the FMC are intended to achieve conformance with the new legislation, and would clarify or create new definitions, procedures, and required findings and standards for approval of new housing developments. Amendments to Title 17 and Chapter 18.235 (Design Review) of the FMC would reflect limitations of the City's ability to deny housing projects. Amendments to Chapter 18.235 would also clarify the role of discretionary and ministerial design review and implement SB 35, which provides a streamlined process for approval of housing projects that meet specified requirements. Amendments to Chapter 18.90 (Residential Districts) of the FMC would establish objective design standards for new multifamily housing developments, as required by new state legislation, and would make other conforming and clarifying changes. Chapter 18.190 (Special Provisions Applying to Miscellaneous Uses) of the FMC would also be amended to conform to state law intended to facilitate construction of accessory dwelling units (ADUs), and to implement recent City Council direction regarding the payment of development fees in connection with the construction of ADUs. Finally, various technical and conforming changes would be made to Chapters 18.25 (Definitions), 18.152 (Transit-Orientation Development Overlay District), 18.183 (Parking), and 18.205 (Grading, Erosion and Sediment Control) to comply with state law.

This Ordinance was adopted at a regular meeting of the City of Fremont City Council held March 20, 2018, by the following vote, to wit:
AYES: Mayor Mei, Councilmembers: Jones, Salwan, and Bonaccorsi
NOES: None

ABSENT: Vice Mayor Bacon
RECUSED: None

NOTICE OF
PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a public hearing will be held by the City Council of the City of Union City for the purpose of considering the following:
ADOPTING MAP AMENDMENT A-18-001 AND ZONING TEXT AMENDMENT AT-18-002

The City of Union City is proposing a Zoning Map Amendment and Zoning Text Amendment to facilitate conformance with the 2015 Housing Element, which requires the City to accommodate a portion of its Regional Housing Needs Allocation through rezoning of parcels within the City. The Zoning Map Amendment proposes the application of the City's Housing Element Overlay Zone (HE) to the following properties: 3995 Smith Street (APN 483-10-22-3), 3969 Smith Street (483-10-21-1), 3955 Smith Street (483-10-20), 30971 Vallejo Street (483-10-19-1), and 30968 Union City Boulevard (APN 483-10-25). The Zoning Text Amendment proposes an update to Chapter 18.116, Housing Element (HE) Overlay Zone, to broaden the applicability of the HE Overlay Zone.

NOTICE IS ALSO GIVEN that staff is recommending the project be considered categorically exempt per Section 15061(b)(3), the general exemption for projects with no potential for significant effect on the environment, of the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) Guidelines.

Filing help available for low-income taxpayers

SUBMITTED BY MARINA HINESTROSA

Income tax preparation assistance for low income, elderly, disabled, and limited English speaking taxpayers in Santa Clara County is available through the nationwide Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program (VITA). The VITA program is coordinated by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and United Way Bay Area. This year, VITA tax preparation services are offered at multiple sites, including two County libraries in Milpitas and Cupertino, and the Santa Clara County Social Services Agency CalWORKs Employment Connection Center in San Jose.

Trained IRS-certified volunteers help taxpayers to prepare basic forms (1040EZ, 1040A, 1040 with Schedule A, B, Limited Schedule CEZ, C and California State Income Tax Returns) and facilitate e-filing or paper returns. The service is available in several languages.

To qualify for the VITA assistance program, taxpayers must have a valid Social Security Number or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number and have a combined household income of $54,000 or less.

Here are three large Santa Clara County sites offering VITA services:

Milpitas Library

Every Saturday until April 14, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. 160 N. Main St. A sign-up list will be posted at the garage entrance to the library at 9 a.m. each Saturday. Assistance is available in English, Spanish, Chinese and Vietnamese For more information, call (408) 262-1171, ext. 3616.

Cupertino Library

Every Sunday through April 8, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. 10800 Torre Ave. Cupertino Library, Story Room Walk-ins (first-come, first-served)

Assistance is available in English, Chinese, Hindi and Tagalog. For more information, call (408) 446-1677 ext. 3330

Santa Clara County Social Services Agency

CalWORKs Employment Connection Center Every Thursday and Friday until April 14, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. 1879 Senter Rd., #10, San Jose Walk-ins (first-come, first-served) Assistance is available in English and Spanish.

Taxpayers need to bring the following information to VITA sites:

• A photo ID (Passport, driver's license, State issued ID) for him or herself and his or her spouse if married

• Social Security cards or ITIN for each person included in tax returns

• Proof of income: W2s, 1099s, 1098s, cash income, interest income, etc.

• Proof of expenses: childcare expense statement (with provider address and tax ID number), medical expenses, property tax bills, etc.

• A copy of last year's federal and state returns, if available

• Bank account number with routing number for direct deposit refund

• Household health coverage information (1095-A, B or C)

• Landlord's name, address and phone number for CA Renter's Credit

• For married filing jointly, both spouses need to be present to sign (volunteers will not be able to prepare returns for married taxpayers filing separately)

For more information about the tax preparation schedule and VITA sites near your house or work, call 2-1-1 or visit www.earnitkeepsitssaveit.org.

Landscapes of our Present and will remain on display until Saturday, April 28.

Allied Artists West (AAW) is a professional artists' association based in Santa Clara County. The juried members include nationally recognized and emerging artists who have received wide recognition for their work, winning awards in prestigious national exhibitions. Some of the members are sought after as art teachers and are often called upon to jury art competitions and demonstrate painting techniques to various art organizations. The works of the artists hang both in homes of private collectors and in corporate collections nationwide, representing a diversity of media, methods, and perspectives.

Membership follows a rigorous selection process, requiring nomination by a current member and a presentation of past work to the entire group, who then votes in favor of or against acceptance.

Among the artists whose works will be showcased in the exhibition are Rajani Balaram, Gary Coleman, Jane Ferguson, Veronica Gross, Jane Hofstetter, Yao-pi Hsu, Belinda Lima, Vincent Liu, Will Maller, Kaaren Marquez, Shirley Motmans, Sam Pearson, Michael Rogan, Pat Suggs, Sandi Okita, Julia Watson, Judy Welsh, and Karen White.

Pat Suggs was given the "Master Pastelist" title by The Pastel Society of America, and Veronica Gross was named one of Watercolor Artist magazine's 15 most recognized watercolorists after taking first place in the Watercolor West International competition. Yao Pi Hsu won best of show in the 2015 Triton Museum's Statewide 2d Art Competition, entitling her to a solo show at the museum, and Jane Hofstetter's more than 25 years of teaching and her book "7 Keys to Great Painting" have impacted many budding artists.

In 2015, Vincent Liu took away best of show award at the Greater Bay Area Open at NUMU in Los Gatos, Judy Welsh won best of show for the Los Gatos Art Association Exhibit in 2017, and Gary Coleman won best of show for both the 2014 and 2016 Pacific Art League All Abstract competition. Many AAW artists are represented by Gallery 24 in Los Gatos.

You are invited to come experience the landscapes through the eyes of the artists of Allied Artists West. Styles range from traditional to contemporary in oils, watercolors, pastels, photography, and mixed media.

MY CHOICE IS WTMF,

because my doctor makes me feel like I'm her only patient.

People choose Washington Township Medical Foundation (WTMF) for lots of reasons. When Jessica Rivas was pregnant with twins, she was looking for a great obstetrician close to her home in Fremont. Jessica's mom, a nurse at Washington Hospital, knew that Dr. Stacey Barrie, a WTMF OB/GYN, would be the perfect choice for her daughter. Jessica took her mom's advice, and couldn't be happier. "Not only do I get attentive, individualized care from Dr. Barrie," said Jessica, "she's incredibly knowledgeable and experienced – and hilarious! You can tell that she really loves what she does." Since the twins' birth, Jessica continues to see Dr. Barrie and has recommended her to friends. And because Jessica's experience with the rest of the staff has been so positive, she has recommended other physicians in the group to friends and family as well.

Part of Washington Hospital

Because WTMF is an integral part of the Washington Hospital Healthcare System, we have immediate access to the system's wide array of advanced healthcare services, whenever you need them. This includes their highly awarded inpatient and outpatient facilities and specialty centers.

Washington MyChart

is an online resource which allows our patients to see their personal health information in a safe, secure and private manner. Accessible from your mobile or desktop device, you can view your test results, prescriptions, allergies, immunizations, and other portions of your health record. You can also send a message to your doctor's office, schedule an appointment, or request a referral.

Our WTMF specialist network has a staff of board certified physicians who work as a team, consulting regularly and collaborating to provide patients with thorough, in-depth care in specialties ranging from Cardiology and Neurosurgery to Endocrinology and Geriatrics..
