E komo mai kakou! Come spend the day and share the Aloha Spirit with us at the “Northern California Ukulele Festival”! This local event offers a unique experience that includes live music, ukulele workshops, arts and crafts, and delicious food.

The playing of the ukulele can be enjoyed by all – playing with a group of people, another person, or solo. A portable instrument, enthusiasts can carry and play their ukulele on travels near and far, to other states and countries.

The Ukulele Festival was inspired by the late “uncles” Hollis Baker and John Ogao, known musicians from the San Francisco Bay Area’s Polynesian Community. These uncles epitomized the grandest of musicians and ukulele players of all generations during their time, influencing the growth and interest in playing ukulele.

The Northern California Ukulele Festival is committed to promote and perpetuate ukulele music and culture by bringing all ages and levels together to share ukulele talent. It seeks to provide a kani ka pila (play music) environment as inspiration to keep the traditions and

Give Your Mom the Special Gift of Health for Mother's Day

How will you honor the mom in your life this Mother's Day? In addition to the traditional brunch or bouquet of flowers, have you considered giving her the gift of health and well-being?

Whether it's your mother, grandmother, spouse, sister or friend, there are a myriad of ways to help her achieve and maintain a healthy lifestyle—which often correlates with a positive outlook. Even everyday strategies such as getting regular exercise and eating a healthy diet, taking time for herself and keeping up-to-date on her routine health exams, including mammograms, can help a mom feel her best.

Stacey Barrie, MD, a board-certified specialist in obstetrics and gynecology with the Washington Township Medical Foundation, notes that something as simple as asking her how she's doing and encouraging her to take time for herself is a gift in itself. "It's often hard for women to ask for help; they don't want to be a burden on anyone, but when help is offered, they usually accept it," she explains. "I tell my patients, we all want to help, so it's important to ask for it."

"For new moms, you might offer to come to her house and watch her baby so she can take a shower or relax in a bath,"

Dr. Barrie suggests. And, to give your mom an especially soothing experience, you could give her a gift certificate for a massage. In fact, the Washington Wellness Center is offering a variety of Mother's Day massage specials through May 31, including Swedish and Therapeutic massages and Hot Stone massages. Want to give her more than one massage? To choose from an assortment of massage packages, call the Wellness Center at (510) 608-1301.

Washington Hospital offers a plethora of wellness programs for the entire age range of mothers, from expectant and new moms to mid-life and senior mothers. You could give your mom the extra-special gift of relaxation and rejuvenation with a gift certificate for one of the Hospital's wide variety of yoga or meditation classes—including a candle-lit yoga class for an especially tranquil and restorative experience. For active aging mothers, there are programs aimed at improving one's strength, flexibility and balance, such as Tai Chi, "Keep It Moving" and "Balance Matters" classes.

Other ways to show your appreciation for the mom in your life include helping her get regular exercise and proper nutrition. "Ask her to go for a walk with you, or join a gym together," Dr. Barrie suggests. "Also, help ensure that she has access to healthy foods; for instance, you might invite her to visit a local farmers' market with you." Speaking of outdoor activities, Dr. Barrie recommends you encourage your mom to wear sunscreen, a hat and sunglasses.

Dr. Barrie also suggests that you ask your mom if she's had her routine health exam and ask her when she last had a mammogram—a service offered at the Washington Women's Center.

When women come to the Women's Center, they can be assured of receiving exceptional care in a calm and compassionate environment. The Women's Center has earned accreditation in mammography, breast biopsy and breast ultrasound—recognition that is only awarded to breast health centers that provide the highest quality breast care.

For more information about all of Washington Hospital's services for women, including scheduling an appointment for a mammogram, an ultrasound or a bone density scan, visit the Women's Center page at: whhs.com/WomensCenter or call (510) 608-1301.

So, take your mom to brunch, bring her flowers—and best of all, give her the gift of health—a truly priceless present.

Washington Hospital Celebrates Cancer Survivors

Survivors and Caregivers are Invited to a Celebration of Life Event

You've been diagnosed with cancer and have undergone treatment. Now you are healing. Your family and friends have been by your side during this long process. Washington Hospital invites you to celebrate your continuing recovery at the Hospital's 9th Annual Celebration of Life reception on Thursday, May 24.

The free reception, open to cancer survivors along with their family and friends, will be held from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the Conrad E. Anderson, MD, Auditorium, Washington West, 2500 Mowry Ave., Fremont.

"The reception will be an inspirational evening of hope, healing and health. It will feature speakers sharing their personal stories of living with cancer and how the diagnosis helped them grow and discover renewed strength," says Laura Constantine, RN.

She adds: "At Washington Hospital, we work with the whole patient, not just the medical side of the patient's illness, and this event is one of a number of initiatives to help improve the lives of the cancer patients in our program."

Speakers will include John Combs of Fremont, a recovering cancer patient, and Dr. Bogdan Eftimie, co-medical director of the UCSF - Washington Cancer Center. An interactive tai chi demonstration also will be part of the program. Light refreshments will be served.

Combs will share his own cancer experience with his multiple myeloma diagnosis in 2016 and subsequent treatment and recovery process. "The key to recovering from a cancer like mine is prompt diagnosis and treatment," Combs says.

He continues, "The best advice I could give to anyone is not to delay if you aren't feeling right or you think something might be wrong with your health. It's easy to say, 'Well I must be run down' or, 'My pain is from the fact I'm getting older.' If you think something isn't right, go see your doctor and have it checked out. It could save your life."

Cancer survivors and their friends and family are welcome to attend a Celebration of Life on Thursday, May 24, 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Combs notes the Celebration of Life focuses on caregivers as much as the cancer patients. "Without caregivers — in my case, my wife—we cancer patients would have a much harder time."

Dr. Eftimie says his most important advice is to have regular medical checkups with your primary care physician. "Checking in regularly with your primary physician is good medicine," he adds. "Preventive tests such as colonoscopies or mammograms help doctors catch diseases early before they become life-threatening."

Dr. Eftimie also encourages cancer survivors and their friends and families to attend the May 24 event. "These types of gatherings are helpful in letting survivors know they aren't the only ones going through cancer recovery. The group validation is most helpful."

Constantine added that the UCSF - Washington Cancer Center's goal is to redefine what is possible in cancer care while significantly improving the lives of the center's patients.

Reservations for the Celebration of Life event are obtained by calling (510) 608-1301. Please leave your name and the number of persons in your party.

Festival Celebrates Writers, Readers, and the Written Word

Literary sessions take place in venues throughout the downtown area and on outdoor stages.

"Our festival unabashedly embraces 'Bay Area values' of change, diversity, inclusion, and activism, plus all-important hope, playfulness and joy," says festival founder and Director Cherylyn Parsons. "What's more, while our festival has always emphasized important female voices, in this time of #metoo activism we have the strongest slate ever—part of our new Women Lit program."

Since it burst onto the scene in 2015, the festival has been widely recognized for the quality of its authors, its international scope, and its commitment to social justice. Headliners this year include keynoteers Robert Reich and Pico Iyer, plus Rebecca Solnit, Alice Waters, Dave Eggers, Catherine Coulter, Geneen Roth, and Sally Kohn, as well as the Young Adult bestselling authors Nina LaCour and Melissa de la Cruz.

Among many award winners are Academy Award-winning documentarian Errol Morris and Pulitzer winners T. Christian Miller, Viet Thanh Nguyen, Gary Snyder, and T.J. Stiles. Another standout is Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, the Kenyan writer often favored for the Nobel Prize, with his prison memoir.

As in past years, the festival will bring a rich and broad spectrum of nearly 250 authors from around the Bay Area, nation and world. In addition to myriad sessions on aspects of literary fiction, criticism, memoir, mystery, science fiction, poetry, and comics/graphic novels, topics include racism (Khaled Beydoun on Islamophobia, historian Edward Ayers, memoirist Julie Lythcott-Haims); the Second Amendment (Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz); art and activism (Viet Thanh Nguyen, Rebecca Solnit, L.A. Kauffman); immigration (Francisco Cantú, Lauren Markham); California's resistance (Manuel Pastor); free speech (former ACLU president Nadine Strossen); aging, spirituality, and quality of life (Zen Roshi Joan Halifax, hospice founder Frank Osaseski, journalist Barbara Ehrenreich, and Holocaust survivor and psychologist Dr. Edith Eger, in various sessions); and food (Alice Waters, Jonathan Kauffman, chef James Syhabout of Hawker Fare and Commis restaurants).

This year's festival presents authors from Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Denmark, Finland, France, Iceland, Ireland, Japan, Kenya, the Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, and the UK, among other countries outside the United States.

The Festival features a lively, free outdoor fair including publishers, nonprofits, festival sponsors, and many educational programs, such as the University of San Francisco MFA in Writing; several of the region's beloved independent booksellers such as Green Apple, Point Reyes Books, Pegasus, The Booksmith, Books Inc., Moe's, and City Lights; artisans showcasing book-related jewelry, clothing, accessories, and home furnishings; and individual authors from a range of genres. This year also features the fourth annual children's book giveaway by Half Price Books.

The festival has partnered with the Berkeley Art Museum and Pacific Film Archive for the past two years, and this year will be no different. The literature and film series offers eight films, ticketed separately at bampfa.org.

Outdoor venues are free. All indoor programs can be accessed through Priority Tickets at $10/session to guarantee seating (ticket holders must arrive 10 minutes before session start time). The other option is a General Admission Wristband, which allows access to all sessions all weekend for only $15, with wristband holders entering sessions on a first-come, first-served basis after Priority Ticket holders are let in. Looking through the lens

This is a professionally judged show with members receiving ribbons for 1st, 2nd, 3rd, Honorable Mention, and Best in Show. There is also a Milpitas High School section of the program, where the best 5 student entries are shown. As these are the best photos from MHS, every entry on display receives a ribbon, and additional ribbons are awarded for 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, and Honorable Mention. This year's show judge is John Goyer.

Of course, everyone has their own opinion, so there is the Community Choice Award too. As in past years, members of the public will be able to vote for their favorite photograph throughout the entire show using the ballots provided at the checkout desk beginning Tuesday, May 1. Once the show has run its course, ballots will be counted, and the winner of the Community Choice Award announced.

The Artist Reception on Saturday, May 12 in the library auditorium will be a perfect time to view the great photography, nosh on snacks and beverages, listen to live music by members of the Milpitas Community Concert Band, and pick your favorite photo for the special Community Choice ribbon.

Founded in 2002 by Kaz Hamano, who is still a guiding light, the Milpitas Camera Club is a group of like-minded photographers interested in a wide variety of photography. Members get together to discuss artistic and technical topics, share images, learn new techniques and skills, take field trips and gather socially.

Potential members, of any skill level, are encouraged to attend one of our meetings and get to know some of the wonderful people who make up the Milpitas Camera Club. Meetings are held the second Tuesday of the month at the Police Community Room in Milpitas (1275 N. Milpitas Blvd.) at 7 p.m. Meetings are typically either a photo critique by a certified photo judge or a presentation, which alternate each month, except for June (show photo review) and December (annual digital show/holiday potluck). February's program was on creative photography using Mylar, and April's program was given by professional photographer David Coleman on telling a better story through advanced composition techniques.

Experience the work of the Milpitas Camera Club at the Milpitas Library and visit the club online at www.milpitascamera.com for more information.

At 11 a.m., bring the kids and your silliness for the mirth and merriment of author Ilona Bray's 'Mossby's Magic Carpet Handbook' and illustrator Julie Bayless' 'Crawly School for Bugs'!

Following the kid fun, at 1 p.m. you can meet the brilliant mind of Matthew Isaac Sobin as he presents his debut science fiction, 'The Last Machine in the Solar System'!

Finally, at 3 p.m. we wrap up with the literary lion, Bill Petrocelli, with his spine-tingler, 'Through the Bookstore Window.'

"The Bay Area is better with Book Passage bookstores in it, and we have Bill and Elaine Petrocelli to thank for them! So meta to have a bookseller who's written a book about a murder in a bookstore descend upon our new little bookstore," say Books on B owner Renee Rettig. "I'm just thrilled to have him at BoB!"

This month, Books on B turned six months old. Many thanks to the community and the

Amazon's reveals its Prime service has 100 million members

By MICHAEL LIEDTKE
ASSOCIATED PRESS
TECHNOLOGY WRITER

Amazon has persuaded more than 100 million shoppers to subscribe to its Prime service that offers free two-day shipping and other perks that help bind people to the company and its ever-expanding empire.

CEO Jeff Bezos quantified the size of Amazon's Prime membership for the first time on April 19 in his annual letter to the Seattle company's shareholders. Before Bezos' revelation, analysts had been left to guess how many people had been willing to pay $99 per year for the Prime service, which Amazon launched 13 years ago to foster customer loyalty.

The scope of Prime's success stunned even the most optimistic of analysts, such as GBH Insights' Daniel Ives. He had previously estimated Amazon had 92 million Prime subscribers. "It's a mind-boggling number that serves as a key barometer to how big Amazon's kingdom has become," Ives said.

Costco has been selling annual memberships to get bargains on goods stocked in its warehouses for decades, and already been outdone by Amazon's Prime service. Costco has 50.4 million memberships that allow 92 million cardholders to shop in its warehouse and website.

Amazon still isn't the king of digital subscriptions, though. Netflix has 125 million worldwide subscribers who, on average, pay about $120 annually to watch its video-streaming service, based on numbers the company released with its quarterly earnings earlier this week.

Although providing free two-day shipping to Prime orders obviously drives up Amazon's costs, the service so far has proven to be worth the expense. Ives estimates that Prime members typically spend twice as much at Amazon than non-Prime members. The service also helps spur sales of Amazon's internet-connect speaker with its digital assistant, Alexa. The device makes it easier to shop online and gives the company a toehold in homes.

Amazon also is leveraging Prime to spur more sales at Whole Foods, the brick-and-mortar supermarket chain that it acquired last year, by offering two-hour delivery of groceries to the service's subscribers. Prime serves as a "competitive moat" that makes it more difficult for other retailers, online and offline, to get people to shop at their stores instead of Amazon, Ives said, adding that "It has become a golden ticket for Amazon."

All those factors have helped make give Amazon a market value about $740 billion. Only Apple, at about $900 billion, and Google's corporate parent, at about $745 billion, are currently worth more.

President Donald Trump has recently attacked Amazon as an economic scourge, deriding the company as a tax dodger and an abusive customer of the U.S. Postal Service. That has raised worries the Trump administration might take action that could crimp Amazon's growth, but the growing popularity of the Prime service could make that a politically unpopular move.

Report depicts possible impact of big S.F. Bay Area earthquake

ASSOCIATED PRESS

A hypothetical magnitude 7 earthquake on the San Francisco Bay region's notorious Hayward fault could kill hundreds, injure thousands and cause $82 billion in property damage and business losses, according to a scenario created by a coalition of experts to help residents and policymakers prepare for and reduce disaster impacts.

The "HayWired" scenario was released on April 18, the 112th anniversary of the Great Quake of 1906 that ravaged San Francisco. "A scientifically realistic scenario is one way to learn about a large earthquake without the people of the bay region actually living through a disaster," said a summary of the report, which was created by the U.S. Geological Survey and numerous partners as part of a campaign by the state Seismic Safety Commission and the California Business, Consumer Services and Housing Agency.

While the magnitude 7.8 earthquake of 1906 ruptured almost 300 miles of the mighty San Andreas fault, the HayWired scenario envisions a rupture of the Hayward fault, which lurks beneath cities on the east side of San Francisco Bay and has long been considered to potentially be the greatest seismic threat to the region of 7 million people.

The scenario's epicenter is under Oakland and the rupture extends 52 miles along the fault, north to Richmond and south to Fremont. The movement is so huge that the offset of one side of the fault to the other is as much as 6 feet and shaking could cause landslides in hills and mountains, and liquefaction of water-saturated soils around the edges of the bay.

Such a quake would be a threat to about 2 million buildings around San Francisco Bay, including 300 with foundations directly atop the fault, according to the report. Older steel-frame high-rise office buildings and newer reinforced-concrete residential buildings could be unusable for nearly a year.

All the region's water supply systems could be affected, especially in the East Bay, where outages could last six weeks to six months. Just as in 1906, when thousands of buildings burned after the quake, gas and electrical fires could add to the destruction. With more fires than available firefighting equipment, and compounding problems of water shortages and traffic jams, residential and commercial space equal to 52,000 single-family homes could burn.

The scenario estimates 800 deaths, 18,000 injuries, rescue of 2,500 people from collapsed buildings and 22,000 from stalled elevators. With damage from shaking and fire combined, an estimated 152,000 households — about 411,000 people — could be displaced.

The report contends that for a small increase in cost, construction of buildings to more stringent standards could allow 95 percent of the region's population to remain in their homes after the envisioned earthquake.

The latest grim outlook is the second in the HayWired series and follows many studies of potential damage from the Hayward fault, which has averaged one major quake every 100 to 220 years over the past 1,900 years. Its last major quake, magnitude 6.8, occurred 150 years ago in 1868, according to the report.

"The HayWired scenario is just that — a scenario — but it's also realistic: It could happen today," said Glenn Pomeroy, CEO of the California Earthquake Authority, a not-for-profit provider of residential earthquake insurance. "This scenario really underscores the need to prepare, so you can recover physically and financially after the ground stops shaking."

Tri-City Stargazer FOR WEEK: APRIL 25 – MAY 1, 2018

For All Signs: Our most remote planet, Pluto, changes directions on April 16th, moving into ‘retrograde’ (backward) motion. I have written about the god of the underworld often in recent years. Pluto’s motion is related to vast power and social/political judgments which affect the masses. It is well for all of us that a period of hesitation (retrograde) precedes such decisions. Pluto turns direct with its locomotive-like force on Sep. 30, 2018. This is the body that symbolically opened the 2008 can of horrendous fiascos in banking and the rest of the corporate world as it entered Capricorn in September. It remains in that sign until 2024. This year, Saturn in Capricorn is approaching a conjunction to Pluto while Mars, the warrior, is also in that sign. This grouping in the sign of government represents the fearsome and hawkish attitudes that have dominated the news and the people for quite some time. It also represents terrorism and force majeure in most of the world’s corners. Revolts and rebellions will be prominent at least for the next two years. Now that Pluto is turning retrograde, there should be a pause in the chaos.

Aries the Ram (March 21-April 20): Whatever is occurring in your life is clearly intense and emotion-laden. You may feel as though your very life depends upon making your point of view heard and acknowledged. It is important to play your personal political cards carefully. Don't attempt a takeover unless you are prepared for a serious pushback.

Taurus the Bull (April 21-May 20): The ancient goddess Venus is not getting along peacefully with anyone. She encourages you to pick fights and disagreements, along with spending lavishly on things you don't really want. There is another aspect that may mitigate Venus’ energy into more flexibility. Explore and research whatever you need to know before attacking.

Gemini the Twins (May 21-June 20): You are coming closer to a decision on a situation that has been on hold for a few weeks. Somehow the right solution will evolve if you concentrate upon the reality of who you truly are. It is easier to ignore the issue entirely, but you cannot hold off more than about one more month.

Cancer the Crab (June 21-July 21): You are in a reasonably good place with yourself during this period. Your heart and mind are flowing together. You have no conflict between your feelings and your thoughts about those feelings. This is a time for reflection on important subjects. You can make good decisions now.

Leo the Lion (July 22-August 22): You have the practical experience and the imagination to find a solution to the problems around you. This is a call for the Humanitarian inside of you to come to the foreground. Others are likely to follow your lead. Don't let the Inner Critic cause you to cover your light under a blanket of fear.

Virgo the Virgin (August 23-September 22): You may need to concentrate to avoid critics, whether they be internal or external. Instead of accepting blame or guilt, use the energy to make improvements wherever they are needed. Avoid contracts and business negotiations for a week or so because misunderstandings may develop.

Libra the Scales (September 23-October 22): A family member may be angry with you. You have hurt someone's pride. If this person is immature, he or she may not be speaking to you. Frankly, at this point that suits you, too. Keep your distance and don't aggravate any further. Consider the big picture before you call it a lost cause. The issues can be resolved.

Scorpio the Scorpion (October 23-November 21): You have two planetary avatars: Mars, the god of war and Pluto, god of the underworld. They are conjunct in the sky this week. Together they represent intensity. No doubt others will let you speak, break in line, or generally do what you want to do. The best use of this power is to use it in a way that is good for everyone.

Sagittarius the Archer (November 22-December 21): The Full Moon in Scorpio occurs on the 29th this week in the arena of the unconscious. Something from your past may be exposed so that you can more fully appreciate how this has affected you. Give attention to dreams and their possible messages. Your intuition is strong.

Capricorn the Goat (December 22-January 19): Mars, the warrior planet, is rolling through your sign. His highest use is to use his tools (swords, guns, knives) to help and/or protect others. You may be tempted to growl and rant. That is not the best thing to do now. It will generate hate mail from your world.

Aquarius the Water Bearer (January 20-February 18): Home, hearth and family offer significant support and comfort. You have always been the first to volunteer when something needs doing. Now the circumstances are flipped and you are repaid in like measure. Feel free to accept the help.

Pisces the Fish (February 19-March 20):): This is a season in which you are unusually aware of your spiritual self. You will be recognizing things of life for which you are grateful. You prefer to seek the high road and maintain a positive attitude. You can see a bigger picture now. Hold onto it.

Celebrating Wellness through Tai Chi and Qigong

ARTICLE AND PHOTOS
OHLONE COLLEGE

Ohlone College's 8th celebration of "World Tai Chi Qigong Day" will be held at the Ohlone College Newark Center on Saturday, April 28. The day starts with a welcome and participatory community warm up highlighting popular Tai Chi and Qigong routines led by Master May Chen and the Ohlone College club and class members.

Throughout the day, select topics relevant to healthy lifestyle choices will be showcased. Among the guest presenters is returning favorite Mamie Chow, TCM practitioner (licensed acupuncture and herbalist, and three-time Tae Kwon Do Black Belt) who believes that we are the most powerful agents of change for our health and our communities. Chow's new workshop "Everyday Food as Medicine: Restoring Your Health, Immunity, and Vitality," promises to be a "sold out" event.

New this year will be our very own Professor Deborah Lemon who will enthrall participants with her dynamic session on "What is the Matrix? Engagement, Neuroscience and the Future of Being Human." Lemon teaches Spanish and is a global expert in social media and educational technology, and is also the faculty advisor for our award-winning Renegade Esports team.

Rosemary O'Neill is the coordinator of Mental Health Counseling and Life Coaching

Services at Ohlone College Health Center and her presentation promises to be an enlightening and useful self-care sampler that showcases why she is one of the college's most popular counselors. O'Neill will be signing her recently published book, "Stop Look and Listen, A Toolbox for Creating Healthy Boundaries." Her workshop is applicable for all ages and stages of life.

And in a more active vein, Jayah Paley, ACE (American Council on Exercise) and AFAA (Athletics and Fitness Association of America) certified personal trainer from East Bay Regional Park District, will share her expertise along with advice for finding the perfect poles for use. Paley will lead a participatory session on the "Optimal Use of Poles for Walking, Hiking, Exercise, Balance and Mobility." You won't want to miss this excellent session.

Master May Chen will facilitate a Qigong Meditation in the late afternoon to bring the day to a close. Chen holds a master's degree in gerontology, the study of the aging process. Her teaching methodology includes evidence-based perspectives to augment the exercise and "total care" Tai Chi and Qigong. A world-class martial artist, Chen has led the Ohlone College Tai Chi and Qigong program since 2008 and was awarded the Tai Chi Master of the Year in 2010 and Ohlone College Adjunct Faculty of the Year in 2017. Chen is the author of "Qigong, Meditation, Tai Chi: Pathway to Your Health and Longevity."

Home & Garden

Personalizing your kitchen

BY ANNA JACOBY

The most rewarding part of designing kitchens is customizing the design to fit the individual needs of each client. Interior design is about creating beautiful spaces, certainly. But more importantly, it is about creating spaces that work well and improve the quality of life of the clients. The kitchen is truly the heart of the home, so why not create yours to be as personal as possible? Why not include some special features?

At the start of each project, I spend a good amount of time talking to the clients. I ask them to tell me what works and what doesn't work; what they like and what they don't like about their current kitchen.

In my designs, not only do I tackle the most common complaints about not enough storage and not enough counter space, often I am also given wish lists of very personal touches that I need to incorporate. In one kitchen, for example, the client had a beautiful handmade wooden cutting board she wanted to display. So, we designed the island so she could specifically have this important wish list item. This client is an avid quilter who often hosts quilting sessions in the large adjacent dining space. Just for her, the island also features bookshelves to house her quilting books, and cabinets for supplies that are easily accessible from the work space.

Anna Jacoby is a local Certified Interior Designer. Contact her at 510-378-6989 or info@annajacobyinteriors.com. You could also visit her website at www.annajacobyinteriors.com

Another client wanted to incorporate a prayer corner in her kitchen. She described to me what she wanted to display there, and we designed her cabinets accordingly. She wanted a combination of open shelves and glass cabinets, so she could display and store her religious items. I was happy to oblige.

In another project, the homeowner had a set of beautiful leaded glass panels from her original kitchen that she really wanted to incorporate into her new kitchen. She got her wish with a custom-designed cabinet made to fit these panels.

Many clients ask for serving areas, wine bars, and small work spaces for laptops. Others ask for special cabinets for pet food, designated drawers for phone chargers, or bookshelves for favorite cookbooks. One avid baker I worked with asked for an island topped with a marble slab, knowing that is the preferred surface for baking. Knowing yourself and how you use your kitchen helps me design it specially for you.

One project currently under construction is a kitchen designed for a client who loves everything French, and travels to France once a year. She asked me to design a French-inspired kitchen just for her. When it is complete, this kitchen will feature Toile wallpaper, a lovely French chandelier, marble-look quartz counters (more practical than real marble), and dark hardwood floors. She's excited and so am I. I will share the photos when we are done!

Assemblymember Quirk honors Holocaust survivor

SUBMITTED BY TOMASA DUEÑAS

Assemblymember Bill Quirk (D-Hayward) recognized Holocaust Survivor Len Talis at the annual Holocaust Remembrance Ceremony in Sacramento. Mr. Talis was born in May of 1940 in Odessa, Ukraine. His uncle, who worked at the Port in Odessa, was able to secure his family a place on one of the last two ships leaving Odessa to Russia. They left before the Odessa Massacre that killed 80 percent of the 210,000 Jews living there.

The Talis family spent the duration of World War II as refugees in Tajikistan, Russia. The family lived in one room without indoor plumbing, but the climate was warm, and they had a small garden and deck. On May 9, 1945 Mr. Talis and his family headed back home to Odessa as Russia celebrated the end of the war. He went on to earn a college degree, marry and start a family.

In December of 1989, his family was able to immigrate to the United States, having been sponsored by his daughter-in-law’s family who were living in Alameda. He came to the US unable to speak English, but through hard work and perseverance, he spent many years working in the information technology industry. Now retired, he is enjoying life in Fremont and spending lots of time with his son and two granddaughters.

“The Jews killed during the Holocaust were neighbors, coworkers, and even friends. We have to remember the deaths of millions of Jews. Some brave people risked their careers, their lives and the lives of their families to save thousands of Jews. We are very grateful to all of them. We pass our knowledge of the Holocaust and our heroes to our kids and grandkids,” said Mr. Talis.

“Mr. Talis and his family were fortunate to escape the atrocities of WWII. He lived through one of the darkest moments in history. I am extremely honored to have him join me during this very important ceremony. We can never forget the past. Events like the Holocaust Ceremony give us time to reflect on how we continue to educate generations to come,” said Assemblymember Quirk.

Vouchers help homeless vets

SUBMITTED BY EDUARDO CABRERA

In a continued effort to end veteran homelessness, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) recently announced $43 million to 325 local public housing agencies across the country to provide a permanent home to more than 5,200 homeless veterans. The supportive housing assistance announced is provided through the HUD-Veterans Affairs Supportive Housing (HUD-VASH) Program, which combines rental assistance from HUD with case management and clinical services provided by VA.

A component of the Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) program, the HUD-VASH vouchers being awarded enable homeless veterans to obtain affordable, decent housing in the private market. These vouchers are critical tools in helping communities effectively end homelessness among veterans.

“Our nation’s veterans deserve more than a life on the streets,” said HUD Secretary Ben Carson. “There is no greater responsibility than to end veteran homeless and to make certain that those who have served our nation have a home they can call their own.”

Republican women host guest speaker

SUBMITTED BY
PHYLLIS COUPER

The Tri-Valley Republican Women’s Federated (TVRWF) invites you to come hear our guest speaker, Don Jans on May 10. Jans is a lifelong student of history, with a special emphasis on Russian history, including the teachings of Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels. Don has written three books on the topic of Collectivism: ‘My Grandchildren’s America: Will it Still be the Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave’; ‘Goodbye Constitution, Freedom, America’; and, ‘The Road to Tyranny: Individualism to Collectivism.’

Don will explore how the collectivist is bringing about the change they desire by attacking the foundation upon which the United States was built and under which it flourished, and what must be done if it is to be aborted. As a weekly guest on a nationally broadcast radio program, Don discusses collectivism and how it is impacting the United States, relating current happenings to the collectivist agenda, and he has been a guest on numerous nationally and regionally broadcast radio programs.

Don’s speaking approach is direct and straight forward with no regard for the collectivist-mandated approach of political correctness. He often quotes Sam Adams who said, “It does not take a majority to prevail... but rather an irate, tireless minority, keen on setting brushfires of freedom in the minds of men.”

Don will have his books available for sale at our meeting!

Rate-setting policies to be reviewed at water workshops

SUBMITTED BY LAURA HIDAS

The Alameda County Water District (ACWD) Board of Directors will conduct a series of financial workshops over the next several months to discuss and evaluate rate design concepts, including concepts to stabilize revenues during future periods of drought.

“We’re looking forward to this workshop series,” said Board President Paul Sethy. “It’s a great opportunity for our customers to learn more about our financial processes and the decisions that lie ahead related to water rates.”

During the development of ACWD’s recently-adopted strategic plan, the board instructed ACWD staff to evaluate a number of finance and rate-design concepts to improve revenue stability. Concepts that will be explored include potential establishment of a rate stabilization fund, collection of revenue through both fixed service charges and water use charges that may include tiered rates and increasing the stability of water sales through implementation of staged rates during droughts. The workshop series will delve deeper into the specifics of each topic.

“These comprehensive workshops will cover a broad range of topics that are critical to the ongoing financial management of the district,” said ACWD Manager of Finance Jon Wunderlich. “The April 26 workshop will cover essential information about water rate-setting and cost of service requirements and the policy objectives we should consider in developing water rates.”

Topics to be covered during the workshops include: Water Rates Overview and Cost of Service Requirements, Policy Objectives, District Budget and Capital Improvement Plan, Financial Reserve Policy, Five-Year Financial Plan, Rate Design (e.g., uniform or tiered rates and staged rates during droughts), and Consideration of Multi-Year Rate Adjustments.

The purpose of the workshops is for staff to provide alternatives and receive feedback from the board, and for the board and staff to receive input from the community. Video recordings of each workshop will also be posted to ACWD’s website for later viewing.

The schedule for the financial workshops is tentative, as follows:

Dates: April 26, 2018

Hayward Native Serves with the U.S. Navy

SUBMITTED BY MASS COMMUNICATION
SPECIALIST 1ST CLASS ROBERT ZAHN,
NAVY OFFICE OF COMMUNITY OUTREACH

A Hayward, California, native and 2012 Jubileum Academy, Philippines, graduate is serving in the U.S. Navy forward-deployed aboard the guided missile destroyer, USS Curtis Wilbur. Seaman Steven Michael Dones is a yeoman aboard the Arleigh Burke-class guided missile destroyer operating out of Yokosuka, Japan. The ship routinely deploys to protect alliances, enhance partnerships, and be ready to respond if a natural disaster occurs in the region. A Navy yeoman is responsible for performing administrative and clerical work aboard the ship. They deal with visitors, coordinate worldwide travel, submit passport applications, and handle various forms of military correspondence.

Dones is proud to serve in the Pacific and fondly recalls memories of Hayward. “My cousins taught me to be more independent, to always try to improve myself,” said Dones. Moments like that makes it worth serving around the world ready at all times to defend America’s interests. With more than 50 percent of the world’s shipping tonnage and a third of the world’s crude oil passing through the region, the United States has historic and enduring interests in this part of the world. The Navy’s presence in Yokosuka is part of that long-standing commitment, explained Navy officials. “Being here can get stressful because it’s a fast-paced environment but I love the port visits,” said Dones.

Dones is also proud of being awarded the blue jacket of the quarter award. This motivates him to better himself and uses the opportunity to be a positive example for his fellow shipmates. “Serving in the military makes me feel proud of what I’m doing every day,” said Dones.”

ChamberFest

SUBMITTED BY VICKILYN HUSSEY

Music at the Mission ChamberFest, currently in its fourth year, is a student chamber music festival designed for gifted young musicians seeking artistic development through an intensive exploration of chamber music repertoire. Through this program, music students, intermediate to advanced level string players and pianists ages 10 to 19, have the opportunity to collaborate with their peers from around the San Francisco Bay Area in small chamber ensembles coached by a faculty of professional and critically acclaimed musicians.

This year's Music at the Mission ChamberFest faculty is Steve Huber (violin, chamber music, improvisation), Adelle-Akiko Kearns (cello, chamber music), Alison Lee (piano, chamber music), and Dr. Katherine Lee (piano, chamber music).

Students are selected by faculty members through a simple audition and will be grouped into ensembles with their peers according to their level of playing and experience. Audition requirements are one solo piece from the Baroque or Classical Period (no more than five minutes in length) and sight-reading of a few short excerpts.

Festival classes and masterclasses will take place July 9 through July 20 (no classes on Saturday and Sunday) at Centerville Presbyterian Church, 4360 Central Avenue in Fremont. The ChamberFest LIVE! performance will take place at Old Mission San Jose on Saturday, July 21.

"At ChamberFest our students participate in one or two ensemble groupings, preparing their respective pieces to be performed at our final concert. They also take classes in composition, improvisation, and popular music performance and build their knowledge of music theory and history through fun activities and games," said Dr. Katherine Lee, Director of ChamberFest.

"I find it critical for music students to understand that playing their individual instruments goes far beyond solo playing," observed Dr. Lee. "Alongside their individual studies, they should be exploring small ensemble music, stemming from piano duets and duos to piano trios, quartets, and quintets." Dr. Lee says that the greatest and most rewarding component of the ChamberFest experience is watching the student ensembles perform in ChamberFest LIVE! at the end of the festival. "It is truly incredible what the students are able to achieve in such a short time."

The ChamberFest LIVE! 2018 brochure and application form are available online at www.musicatmsj.org or by email request at Klee@musicatmsj.org. Applications are due May 1.

Loco-motion Picture Days

SUBMITTED BY NILES ESSANAY
SILENT FILM MUSEUM

Jump on board for "Loco-motion Picture Days" with the Niles Essanay Silent Film Museum! Train lovers can get their fill with a two-day program all about trains.

On Saturday, April 28 the afternoon silent matinee offers short films, 15 minutes to half an hour each, including "The Hazards of Helen" (1915), "A Railroad Smashup" (1904), "The Lonedale Operator" (1911), "Railroad Stowaways" (1926), "A Girl and Her Trust" (1912), "The Iron Mule" (1925) and more.

The Saturday night silent film show is "Great K & A Train Robbery" (1926) with Greg Pane on the piano. Tom Mix plays a railroad detective hired to find and stop some bandits who have been robbing the K & A Railroad. Directed by Lewis Seiter, the film was shot on location at the Royal Gorge of Colorado and has many great scenes for railroad buffs. It's action-packed from start to finish! The film will be preceded by shorts "The Great Train Robbery" (1903), the landmark film in which G. M. Anderson got his start, shot on location in New Jersey and at Edison's New York City studio; and "Teddy at the Throttle" (1917), where live-wire Bobby Vernon foils villain Wallace Beery, who ties Gloria Swanson to a railroad track when she resists his advances.

Talkie train films steam in on Sunday, April 29, starting with "The Chicago Railroad Fair" (1980), a movie tour of the colorful 1949 railroad extravaganza with music and commentary. We see a pageant involving historical original locomotives to the modern (1949) diesel streamliners, including a reenactment of the historic golden spike joining east and west via the first transcontinental railroad.

The "Trains" compilation is for people who just like all kinds of trains, steam locomotives, streamlined diesels, freight trains, passenger trains, freight yards, and crossings. Okay, train buffs, here's one to enjoy!

On Sunday only, make sure to catch a round trip from Niles to Sunol (and back) on the Niles Canyon Railway. Trains depart at 11:20 a.m. and 1:20 p.m. from the Niles Station. Find more information at www.ncry.org.

City of Fremont Rent Review Ordinance
Now in Effect

The City’s Rent Review Ordinance went into effect on January 1, 2018. This Ordinance provides for a review and, if necessary, a formal hearing before the Rent Review Board for proposed rent increases in excess of 5 percent in any 12-month period. It covers all residential rental units in Fremont, including single family homes and condominiums. While the recommendations of the Rent Review Board are not binding, the City strives for the rent review process to result in fair and equitable resolutions to both parties by providing a neutral setting for discussion.

For information about the Rent Review Ordinance and the Rent Review Program, including how to initiate the process and where to attend upcoming community outreach events, visit www.Fremont.gov/RentReview, call 510-733-4945, or send an email to rentreview@fremont.gov.

Schedule a Free Bulky Goods Pickup!

Fremont residents of single-family homes with individual curbside service are eligible for two free on-call bulky goods pickups annually. Items collected include large appliances, microwave ovens, furniture, and electronic waste such as computers and televisions.

No hazardous materials like car batteries, pesticides, and paint, or construction and demolition debris like concrete, dirt, and roofing, will be accepted. Call Republic Services for details and to schedule a Bulky Goods appointment.

Fremont residents may also opt to drop off their electronic waste at two locations at no charge:

- Republic Services E-Cycling Center allows residents to bring up to eight items (computer components, portable TVs, DVD players, etc.) on each visit, up to two visits per year. Bring a photo ID and a current garbage or utility bill as proof of residency.
- The Household Hazardous Waste drop-off facility inside the Fremont Recycling and Transfer Station is the public disposal site for electronics and other materials. Residents can bring up to 125 pounds of electronic waste per visit. For more information, call Republic Services at 510-657-3500.

Upcoming District-Based City Council Elections

In November 2018, City of Fremont voters will participate in the first district-based election when four City Council seats will be up for election. Fremont voters will select City Council candidates who live in their districts only. Councilmembers will be elected according to the following timetable:

Voters residing in Districts 1 through 4 will be casting a vote for their Council representative in 2018. In more detail, this includes District 1 (Northwest portion of the city—two-year term), District 2 (Central North portion—four-year term), District 3 (Central portion—four-year term), and District 4 (Eastern portion—four-year term). In the November 2020 election, voters in Districts 1, 5, and 6 will each elect a City Councilmember and voters citywide will elect the Mayor, which remains an at-large position.

In an effort to assist citizens in determining which Council district they reside in, Fremont’s Geographic Information System (GIS) Division has developed the Council District Locator. This online tool allows citizens to enter their addresses into an interactive map to identify the Council district number assigned to that specific location. Residents can access the Council District Locator at www.Fremont.gov/CouncilDistrictLocator.

For more information on how this district-based election system originated and how it will affect voters, please visit www.Fremont.gov/DistrictElections.

COMEDY
FOR A CAUSE

SUBMITTED BY
OFFICER JUSTIN BLANKINSHIP,
SAN LEANDRO PD

Join Tommy T's Comedy Club, the San Leandro Police Department (SLPD), and the San Leandro Police Officers Association (SLPOA) for a fun night in celebrating National Autism Awareness Month! See Aries Spears on Sunday, April 29 at Tommy T's in Pleasanton and all proceeds from SLPOA ticket sales will be donated to the San Leandro-based Regional Center of the East Bay, which serve 935 clients diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) in both Alameda County and Contra Costa County.

Since April 1st, SLPD has celebrated Autism Awareness Month, and brought awareness to the community by wearing a special, commemorative patch on their uniform, recognizing ASD. More than 200,000 cases of ASD are diagnosed throughout the United States each year, affecting 1 out of every 68 children.

The commemorative ASD patch worn by police during April was designed to include the SLPD logo and the world-wide multi-colored ASD symbol, with a "missing puzzle piece," representing the complexity and mystery of those diagnosed with this incurable developmental disorder. San Leandro is the first law enforcement agency on the West Coast to celebrate Autism Awareness Month and wear the commemorative patch.

The comedy event is for ages 17 and over only. Tickets are limited to the first 200 people. Purchase tickets from the San Leandro Police Officers Association by sending your payment to SLPOA 901 E. 14th St., San Leandro, CA 94577 (checks payable to San Leandro POA). For more information or to RSVP, email SLPDAutismAwareness@sanleandro.org.

For more information about Autism Spectrum Disorder or to purchase a commemorative patch or T-shirt, please contact SLPD at SLPDAutismAwareness@sanleandro.org, visit the Regional Center of the East Bay at www.rceb.org, or contact the National Autism Association at www.nationalautismassociation.org and at www.autismspeaks.org.

Child Abuse Prevention Month

SUBMITTED BY
NEWARK POLICE DEPARTMENT

According to statistics compiled in a report by the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services an estimated 1,750 children died of abuse and neglect at a rate of 2.36 per 100,000 children during fiscal year 2016. And those statistics seem to increase every year. To draw public attention to the issue, April has been designated National Child Abuse Prevention month. Officials from the City of Newark and the Newark Police Department are doing their part by sharing information with the public on signs of child abuse and how to report it.

Here are a few signs of child abuse to look for:

Physical signs:

- Bruises, burns or other suspicious injuries
- Malnourishment
- Inadequate medical or dental care

Behavioral signs:

- Depression and/or general anxiety
- Being passive, withdrawn, or aggressive and disruptive
- Abrupt change in eating habits

What to do:

- Provide a safe physical and emotional environment for the child

SUBMITTED AND PHOTOS BY MIKE HEIGHTCHEW

A three-team meet on April 18th gave spectators a lot to cheer about as the American Eagles (Fremont), Mission San Jose Warriors (Fremont) and Moreau Catholic Mariners (Hayward) competed at Tak Fudenna Stadium in Fremont. Scoring was close throughout the contest; all teams were competitive with the outcome uncertain until the high hurdles event, decided by a few seconds.

Vikings finish season with win

SUBMITTED AND PHOTOS BY MIKE HEIGHTCHEW

In any sport and at any time, when the John F. Kennedy Titans (Fremont) face off against their intracity rivals, the Irvington Vikings (Fremont), feelings run deep. This was the case on April 17, 2018 as both teams took to the tennis courts for their season finale. It was evident that school pride was a big factor; the Vikings finished their season with the win and an 8-4 record. Both teams are looking forward to a great season next year.

Rodeo Cruelty

America seems on the brink of a sea change regarding our views on the use of animals in entertainment. In recent years we've seen bans on orca shows at SeaWorld, the use of bullhooks on elephants, and the demise of the Ringling Bros. Circus. Can rodeo be far behind? For most of these animals, rodeo is merely a detour en route to the slaughterhouse.

Case in point: Hayward Recreation & Park District (HARD). The board of directors, despite having received more than 400 letters and an on-line petition with 169,000+ signatures in support of dropping the cruel (and non-sanctioned) "wild cow milking contest" and the children's "mutton busting" event from the annual Rowell Ranch Rodeo program, recently voted 4:1 to continue the abuse, betraying animals and constituents alike. Shame!

On a brighter note, the Alameda County Board of Supervisors is now considering these same issues, hopefully to be agendized before the May 19-20 rodeo. (These same events are featured at the Livermore Rodeo.) WRITE: Wilma Chan, president, and members of the board, Alameda County Board of Supervisors, 1221 Oak Street, Oakland, CA 94612; email Chan's chief-of-staff - dave.brown@acgov.org

Vikings need one more for historic season

SUBMITTED AND PHOTOS BY MIKE HEIGHTCHEW

The Irvington Vikings (Fremont) Volleyball Team is having their best season in history and on the edge of winning their first ever Mission Valley Athletic League title in volleyball. A big "if" remains as they meet the Washington Huskies (Fremont) on April 27th. With a win over Washington, they will win clinch the top spot for the first time in their school's history. The Vikings reached this decisive moment with an impressive 3-0 win on April 19th over the James Logan Colts (Union City). Although contested in each set, great net play and defense propelled the Vikings to the upcoming showdown with the Huskies.

Renegades Report

SUBMITTED BY MATT SCHWAB

There are big wins over local rivals and then there are signature wins that raise eyebrows across the state. The Ohlone College Renegades softball team accomplished the latter with a scintillating 1-0, nine-inning triumph over the highly state-ranked Bakersfield Renegades on April 14. Ana Beard went all nine innings, allowing two hits and striking out three to improve to 12-4 on the season with a 0.79 ERA. In the dramatic bottom of the ninth, Meida Taulalatasi had a sneaky bunt leadoff single before Karen Didio lashed a one-out, walk-off single to score Taulalatasi.

On April 12, Ohlone (28-8, 8-2 Coast-North) walloped De Anza 20-1 in five innings in conference play. Beard fired a 1-hitter with seven strikeouts and Mallory Ussery mashed on offense with four hits, six RBIs, four runs scored, a home run and a double. Arrianna Whitlock was 3 for 3 with a home run, four RBIs, three runs scored and a double. Brooke Niewoehner had a double and three RBI.

The Renegades, who have won nine of their last 10, also swept host Solano 5-4 and 3-1 on April 10.

Starter Holly Gonzales got the pitching win in the 5-4 contest and Didio worked a spotless seventh with two strikeouts. Taulalatasi and Lauryn Garcia both had two hits. In the 3-1 win, Didio fired a four-hitter over seven innings with four strikeouts and allowing an unearned run. She also was 2 for 3 with a double, run scored and RBI. Taulalatasi was 3 for 4.

Vesia claims second straight Pitcher of the Week award

SUBMITTED BY STEVE CONNOLLY

After toppling his third school record on Saturday, Cal State East Bay senior Alex Vesia (Alpine, Calif.) was selected for his second straight California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) Pitcher of the Week award for Apr. 9-15, the conference office announced April 17, 2018.

A week after becoming CSUEB's all-time leader in career victories and strikeouts and nabbing his first CCAA weekly award of the season, Vesia broke the program record for innings pitched with 6.0 scoreless frames to beat Cal State Dominguez Hills. He now has 292.1 for his career, surpassing the previous mark held by Nick Krell.

The left-hander allowed just three hits and recorded a career-high 12 strikeouts in a 7-0 win over the Toros. Vesia is in the midst of the most dominant stretch of his prolific career — he has not allowed an earned run over his last 32 innings dating back to March 9. During that time, he's 5-0 with 40 strikeouts.

Vesia now has a 6-2 record with a 1.87 ERA for the season, the second-lowest in the CCAA. He will look to continue his hot streak during a crucial series against SF State, which is currently tied with East Bay in the conference standings at 16-16.

Park It

The Wildflower Show Continues

This is shaping up as a fine spring for wildflowers in the East Bay Regional Parks and other open space. Perhaps due to recent rains, flowers are flourishing in several dependably colorful areas. Personally, I can recommend the Manhattan Canyon Trail at Black Diamond Mines Regional Preserve in Antioch. There are nice displays, too, along the north end of Old Briones Road at Briones Regional Park near Martinez. And there are lots of poppies on the Briones Crest Trail up the hill from the Bear Creek Staging Area. Vargas Plateau off I-680 in Fremont is great for poppies, too.

For a guided wildflower walk, join naturalist Francis Mendoza from 8:30 to 11 a.m. on Sunday, April 29 for a hilly, three-mile hike at Garin Regional Park in Hayward.

Francis' hike is for ages 12 and older. Garin Park is located at the end of Garin Avenue off Mission Boulevard. Meet Francis at the Red Barn Visitor Center. For information, call (510) 544-3220.

By the way, no flower picking, please, in any regional parks. Leave the blooms for others to enjoy.

Naturalist Susan Ramos and interpretive student aide Bellal Naderi will lead a moderate, two-mile walk from 10 a.m. to noon on Sunday, April 29 in search of wildflowers at Huckleberry Botanic Regional Preserve in the Oakland hills.

The preserve is on Skyline Boulevard about a mile south of the intersection with Grizzly Peak Boulevard. For information, call (510) 544-3187.

Lizards will leap in a program from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. Sunday, April 29 at Coyote Hills Regional Park in Fremont with Francis Mendoza. The group will look for blue bellies and alligator lizards during an easy 1.5-mile walk. Find out how lizards are our allies in the fight against Lyme disease.

The program is for ages eight and older. Coyote Hills is at the end of Patterson Ranch Road off Paseo Padre Parkway. Meet Francis at the visitor center. For information, call (510) 544-3220.

There are two interesting programs in the works at Tilden Nature Area near Berkeley. You can hang out with the naturalists and spiders from 1 to 2 p.m. on Saturday, April 28.

Then from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Sunday, April 29, it's 'Fun with Felt' with naturalist Trail Gail Broesder. You can get your hands wet while making felt and learning about wool and sheep.

Meet at Tilden's Environmental Education Center, which is at the north end of Central Park Drive. Call (510) 544-2233.

From flowers on earth to stars in the sky: naturalist Kevin Dixon will lead an after-hours hike from 6:30 to 10 p.m. on Saturday, April 28 at Black Diamond Mines Regional Preserve in Antioch. The group will experience a quiet, moonlit time in the park.

It's free, but registration is required. Call (888) 327-2757, select option 2, and refer to program number 20395.

Macro Mayhem is the name of the game from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 29 at Big Break Regional Shoreline in Oakley. The naturalists will help with collection and identification of plankton and macroinvertebrates (water bugs) to discover their role in the wetland ecosystem.

Big Break is at 69 Big Break Road off Oakley's Main Street. Call (888) 327-2757, ext. 3050.

This is just a sample. There are lots of great activities scheduled all the time in the regional parks. Check out the website, www.ebparks.org for details.

Ride program for older adults expands with partnership

SUBMITTED BY
SHERRI PLAZA

What if you had no way to get to a doctor's appointment? Or what if you needed a steady arm or visual guidance once you got there? And wouldn't it be good if a neighbor volunteered to drive you and help you at the destination? This is the idea behind a new exciting partnership between LIFE ElderCare's VIP Rides program and Eden Area Village.

VIP Rides provides destination assistance for older adults in Southern and Central Alameda County who have no family members or friends who can help them with their necessary errands and appointments. This "door-through-door" service relies on dedicated and trained volunteers to drive the senior to and from their appointments and errands. They also assist clients at their destination by offering a steady arm, selecting items from a shelf, reading a sign, or whatever else is needed.

Eden Area Village is part of a growing trend across the country in which neighbors help neighbors enable each other to continue living independently in their own homes as they age. The goal is to help older people maintain a high quality of life and keep them engaged in the community.

The partnership will be a two-way street — Eden Area Village members will volunteer for VIP Rides, while VIP Rides volunteers (Village members or non-Village members) will provide rides for Village members needing transportation assistance.

Laura McMichael-Cady is an active Village member and a VIP Rides volunteer. She regularly drives Ruth Miner to her doctor appointments. "I was a social worker for many years, so I see the need for this kind of service. Many older people have memory or sight issues and need someone to help them out at the doctor's office. That's what I can do as a VIP Rides volunteer."

Ruth appreciates using VIP Rides. "VIP Rides is easy to use and so reliable, plus I love meeting the kind volunteers. This service is such a benefit to those like me who have to go out to take care of our health."

An informational community meeting to celebrate the VIP Rides and Eden Area Village partnership is set for 2:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Friday, May 4 at Hayward City Hall, 777 B St. Admission is free. For details, call (510) 856-9010 or send an email to info@LifeElderCare.org.

Fremont City Council

April 17, 2018

Work Session:

- Homelessness Study update. California is home to 21 of the 30 most expensive rental markets in the nation and not one of its counties has sufficient affordable housing stock to meet the demand of low income residents. The state’s 2.2 million extremely low-income and very low-income renter households compete for 664,000 affordable rental homes. The number of homeless persons in Alameda County increased approximately 39% from 4,040 to 5,629 when counted in January 2017 as compared to January 2015. Fremont established for the first time a baseline count of 479 homeless persons in the City. Experts agree that the number of people without housing is likely 3 to 4 times higher than the point in time count. Rising rents have outstripped the increase in wages for many Fremont residents. In Fremont the average rental cost of a one-bedroom apartment rose from $1,152 in 2011 to $2,134 in 2017. There have been approximately 140 reported [homeless] encampments identified throughout the community. Suggested responses include: increased Code Enforcement, Community Services, Daytime Services, Housing assistance, Mobile Hygiene Unit, Temporary Shelter availability, Landlord incentives, sanctioned campgrounds, safe parking areas.

Council comments spoke of Fremont as a “Compassionate City” that is dealing with a broad problem of income inequality affecting real people. The problem is complex and all parties including landlords need to be part of the solution. The need for year-round solutions including shelters and continuing dialogue and strategies to address affordable housing needs, mental health and drug-related problems. Alameda County Supervisor Scott Haggerty was thanked for hygiene unit funding.

In order to allow the Islander Motel affordable housing project to proceed, staff also recommends Council appropriate an additional $370,000 in City affordable housing funds to cover predevelopment costs and option payment costs that Resources for Community Development will incur before it receives CDBG funds.

OPINION

the national scene these days, but dangers lurk at the local level as well. As we enter the political season of the June 5th primary election, advertisements will proliferate throughout the media – internet, TV, radio, newsprint – and bombard voters with a myriad of choices. Although Fremont district elections are in abeyance until the November election, candidates are already sharpening their knives for the fray. Historically, rough and coarse contests, are not unusual but hopefully, as Fremont transitions to district representation and others jockey for position in a variety of races, either in June or November, candidate campaigns will retain civility and substance.

Tri-City Voice will continue its policy of allowing candidates to post a short position statement in our newspaper at no cost. This information will be included in the May 22nd edition. No matter what financial resources are at candidates' disposal, we feel it is our obligation to allow the electorate to decide who should represent them, based on as much valid information available as possible. All eligible voters should take part in EVERY election to demonstrate their belief in the inalienable right to vote; to make their voice heard.

We have seen in past elections where a single vote can make a difference. When elected representatives put their name on a ballot, the least we can do is give them an honest opinion of whether we approve of their actions and support them or not. Although some shrug off primary elections, there is reason to pay attention. Not all decisions will appear in November; candidates, measures and propositions may only appear on the June ballot. Nonetheless, they will have a direct effect on our lives. As city councils and county supervisors consider significant problems of traffic, housing, homelessness, economic conditions and infrastructure, make this the year to examine these issues and ask tough questions of candidates. Let them know there is no free ride either through party politics or voter disinterest. We have too many politicians who assume the electorate will automatically rubber stamp their candidacy without much scrutiny.

E PLURIBUS UNUM is not just a motto. It should guide our sense of responsibility when faced with decisions that allow representation that truly reflects voter attitudes. Dissatisfaction with the system can be disheartening, but without active participation that system will quickly devolve into an autocratic morass. Our communities and neighborhoods depend on activism, whether through volunteerism, attention to local politics or simply voting when the opportunity presents itself. Tri-City Voice will keep you informed, but the rest is up to you!

Stamped proudly on official documents, treaties, currency and the like, the Great Seal of the United States of America includes a bald eagle holding 13 arrows in one talon and an olive branch in the other. The motto “E PLURIBUS UNUM” –out of many, one – is displayed on a banner held tightly in its beak; symbolic of a national commitment toward inclusion, unity of purpose and a sense of national pride beyond political and regional differences. This has inspired all residents to bond together even under trying circumstances of prejudice and inequality.

When crisis has threatened the ideals of democracy, we as a people, have responded. Our republic is patterned on the idea of respect and celebration of differences while adhering to an overriding sentiment of national unity. In the heat of partisan rhetoric, it is often easy to forget that this concept has brought us to a pinnacle of respect for ourselves and by peoples and nations around the world.

Plenty of examples of disassociation from this idea are currently evident on Four retirement-planning questions to consider

By MARIAELENA LEMUS,
SOCIAL SECURITY PUBLIC AFFAIRS SPECIALIST

Deciding when to start receiving your retirement benefits from Social Security is a decision that only you can make, and you should make that decision with as much information as possible. There are a lot of important questions to answer.

Should you claim benefits earlier and get a smaller monthly payment for more years? Or should you wait and get a bigger monthly amount over a shorter period?

There are no right or wrong answers, but we encourage you to consider these four important questions as you plan for your financially secure retirement:

1. How much money will I need to live comfortably in retirement?

Anticipate what your expenses will be in retirement, including things like mortgage payments or rent, utilities, healthcare insurance and related costs, food, personal care, car payments and maintenance, entertainment, hobbies, travel, and credit card or other debt. Also, consider whether you'll need to provide for your spouse, children, or grandchildren.

2. What will my monthly Social Security retirement benefit be?

The average monthly Social Security benefit for a retired worker in 2018 is $1,404 (up from $1,377 in 2017). The average monthly Social Security benefit for a disabled worker in 2018 is $1,197 (up from $1,173 in 2017). As a reminder, eligibility for retirement benefits still requires 40 credits (usually about 10 years of work). The Social Security Act details how the annual Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA) is calculated. You can read more about the COLA at www.socialsecurity.gov/cola. The best way to get an estimate of your retirement benefit is with a my Social Security account. Get yours today at www.socialsecurity.gov/myaccount.

3. Will I have other income to supplement my Social Security benefits?

Secure your financial future with a retirement portfolio that includes savings, investments, and possibly a pension plan. If you're willing and able, you may choose to increase your income by working past retirement age. Social Security replaces a percentage of a worker's pre-retirement income based on your lifetime earnings. The amount of your average wages that Social Security retirement benefits replaces varies depending on your earnings and when you choose to start benefits. If you start benefits at age 67, this percentage ranges from as much as 75 percent for very low earners, to about 40 percent for medium earners, to about 27 percent for high earners. If you start benefits after age 67, these percentages would be higher. If you start benefits earlier, these percentages would be lower. Most financial advisors say you will need about 70 percent of pre-retirement income to live comfortably in retirement, including your Social Security benefits, investments, and other savings.

4. How long do I expect my retirement to last?

Anticipate the length of your retirement, keeping in mind that many American workers will live much longer than the "average" retiree. Consider your health, family longevity, and lifestyle. Your Social Security retirement benefits will provide continuous income for as long as you live, protecting you even if your other sources of income run out.

Discover your life expectancy with our online calculator at www.socialsecurity.gov/OACT/population/longevity.

No one can predict the future perfectly, but careful planning and preparation will help you to make a well-informed decision about when to start receiving your Social Security benefits.

If you've contributed enough to the Social Security system through FICA payroll taxes, you can receive your full retirement benefit at age 66 or 67 depending on when you were born. You may also claim it sooner, starting at age 62, at a permanently reduced rate. Or you may wait until after your full retirement age, increasing your benefit amount by up to 8 percent per full year to age 70.

Social Security is with you through life's journey, and we're here to help you prepare for a financially secure future for you and your family. We invite you to use our online retirement planners at www.socialsecurity.gov/planners/retire/.

Obituary

Elizabeth "Sue" McDonough

December 31, 1920 – April 18, 2018

Resident of Fremont

Elizabeth "Sue" McDonough, 97, returned to her heavenly home on April 18, 2018. Her devotion to her family and her firm belief in God ultimately gave her peace.

Sue was born to the late Thomas and Carrie McCormick of Wexford, Ireland. The eldest of 12 children, raised in Brooklyn, NY. Which explains her life-long love and devotion to the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Sue was blessed with a large and loving family. She married her best friend and soul-mate, Ben McDonough, on January 7, 1945, in Brooklyn, NY. A job transfer brought them to San Francisco. They eventually settled in Fremont, CA where they raised their four children; Mary, Pat, Susie (Liz), and Bernie.

Sue was a servant at heart.

She spent her lifetime working in food service and retired from Washington Hospital after 25 years as Food Service Supervisor. She was kind and well respected as a leader and for her coordination of many successful Doctor Dinners. She took pride in her work and making people feel comfortable. After retirement she continued to serve her community by volunteering in many different capacities. She was a Pink Lady at the hospital, made sandwiches for the homeless, served as a receptionist at Fremont Senior Center and as the hospitality coordinator for the Holy Spirit Italian Social Group.

Sue is survived by her four children, and four siblings. In life she was blessed with 9 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren. She is dearly missed by her loved ones, who celebrate the fact that she is at peace with her Creator.

Sue's devotion to her family was only second to her devotion to her Catholic faith. She prayed the rosary daily and faithfully attended mass. She sang in the church choir for many years and was a member of the Lay Carmelite Order of Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

A vigil for Sue McDonough will be held at Chapel of the Roses 1940 Peralta Blvd. Fremont, CA 94536 from 5:00-8:00 PM on Thursday, April 26, 2018. A funeral mass will be held at Holy Spirit Catholic Church 37588 Fremont Blvd. Fremont, CA 94536 on Friday, April 27, 2018 at 11:00 AM.

Student art exhibit opening at Foothill Gallery

SUBMITTED BY DANIELLE VANAMAN

This May, a new art show, "Creating our Future," will open at the Hayward Arts Council's Foothill Gallery. The exhibit is collaboration between Seneca Family of Agencies, the Hayward Arts Council, and several school districts across the East Bay.

Seneca Family of Agencies is a local nonprofit mental health agency with a mission to provide unconditional care to children and families through a continuum of services,

It makes me feel free. It makes me want to express my emotions. I feel like I'm in the clouds floating. Like I'm on cloud nine."

She encourages community members to attend, saying, "It excites kids that people are looking at their art, so that they feel like real artists. If these kids want to be artists, it's important to show them that people support them. It gives them a start. The show can lead to greater things... they could go to art school, put pieces in a museum, become an artist! This could be their dream job!"

including school-based and community-based mental health services. The exhibit will feature art from Seneca's MAC SELPA (Mid Alameda County Special Education Local Plan Areas) Program, a partnership with Hayward, Castro Valley, San Leandro, and San Lorenzo Unified School Districts. MAC SELPA brings high quality mental health services to public school campuses, focusing on supporting students' successful return to mainstream education settings while partnering with families to create lasting change.

Students from 3rd through 12th grades will showcase their art at the month-long exhibit, opening Tuesday, May 1. All proceeds from the sale of the pieces will go directly to the young artists to support their continued creative endeavors and education in the arts. Several of the participating artists are seniors who will be graduating at the end of the year and are using the show to practice and develop marketable creative skills that can lead to real-world job opportunities. When asked, "What does art mean to you?" a featured artist and graduating senior said, "It feels like I am creating diamonds. Something valuable.

The Opening Reception will be held Thursday, May 3. This is a free event and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served, and live performances will feature students' poetry, music, and live artwork.

"Creating our Future" will be on exhibit at the Foothill Gallery from May 1 - 31. Donations can also be made directly to the Seneca Creative Arts Fund by visiting www.unconditionalgiving-seneca.com. Please indicate in the comments section that your donation is for the Seneca Creative Arts Fund. Donations to Seneca are tax deductible and will support students in local classrooms with the development of future art shows, art materials, and art scholarships.

Friday, April 13

- At 6:17 a.m. a victim reported he was at the Jack in the Box restaurant on Ardenwood Boulevard when an unknown person attacked him. The victim, who was heavily intoxicated at the time, could not tell exactly what happened but believed he was struck in the head with an unknown object. The unknown person then stole the victim's bicycle. The victim did not report the incident after it happened, but instead walked over into Newark Police Department's jurisdiction before calling police in Fremont. He was taken to a local hospital for treatment of his injuries. A check of the local homeless encampments located near the restaurant did not turn up any witnesses or leads. Officer Egan and Field Training Officer Smith handled the investigation.
- At 7:06 a.m., a victim called to report that a vehicle, described as being a late 90s- early 00s white Honda Civic, almost collided into his own vehicle after running a stop sign near Dumbarton Street and Campus Court. The victim decided to follow the suspect vehicle to confront him regarding his reckless driving. After catching up to the Honda Civic, the suspect driver, described as a Hispanic male in his early 20s with curly hair and wearing glasses, purposely drove toward the victim narrowly missing him, but struck his vehicle. An investigation is continuing.

Saturday, April 14

- At 11:07 p.m. Officer B. Johnson was flagged down by a male on Walnut Avenue who said he was just robbed of his cellphone and money clip by three or four people. The man said a firearm was displayed during the robbery, and that he believed he could identify some of the suspects. The victim said the suspects fled to a waiting vehicle that was last seen traveling westbound on Mowry Avenue. The first suspect was described as a white male between 25 and 30-years-old, wearing a grey beanie and sporting facial hair.

The firearm held by this suspect was described as a semi-auto-matic handgun. The second suspect was described as a black man between 25 and 30-years-old. The victim was unable to give description of the other suspects.

- Officers were dispatched to a report of a man brandishing a firearm at Kirby's Sports Bar in the Irvington district. A description was provided and a group of males matching the description were stopped at Blacow Road and Sherwood Avenue. The suspects were eventually identified as being involved in the incident. A 25-year-old Hayward man was identified by witnesses as the suspect with the gun. When he was detained, the suspect had a magazine and a holster for a Glock. The missing Glock was found field stripped. The receiver was found in a nearby yard and the barrel and slide were found on nearby rooftop. Some parts were not found. The firearm was registered to the suspect, who was arrested and booked at the Fremont Jail on charges of criminal threats, exhibiting a firearm, carrying a concealed weapon, destroying or concealing evidence.

- At 9:29 a.m. a community member reported finding a firearm on the sidewalk in the 38100 block of Young Drive. A brown or tan SUV had been in the area the evening prior and is possibly related. An investigation is ongoing.

Monday, April 16

- Officers responded to the area of 6000 Stevenson Boulevard after workers conducting demolition at a business reported a male and female had walked into the building, and when confronted, the male lifted his shirt and showed a gun in his waistband. The suspects fled before police arrived, but witnesses said they left the area northbound on Encyclopedia Circle in a gray station wagon style Subaru. The suspect with the handgun was described as a white male, 45-years-old, standing 6-feet-tall, with a pony tail and wearing a yellow construction vest. The female was described as white, about 45-years-old, standing 5-feet-7-inches tall and wearing a grey hoodie.

Wednesday, April 18

- At 11:08 a.m. a victim reported that a male stole his $6,000 specialized Roubaix Pro SL3 bicycle in the area near Brophy Drive. The victim had just returned from a ride, and when he temporarily left the bike out near his garage, it was stolen. The suspect ditched a less-valued bicycle that he was riding and was able to escape on the victim's bike. Numerous units searched the area without success.
- A resident in the 5000 Block of Tan Oak Drive noticed his Amazon package was missing from his porch. A review of his video surveillance footage showed a lone male taking the package at 2:58 p.m. and leaving in a silver Nissan 300zx. The suspect was of an unknown race, wearing a black hat, black jacket, black pants and black shoes.

Caliber Collision says ‘Fill ‘er Up’ with food drive

SUBMITTED BY KIM KIMBRIEL

Caliber Collision, the largest collision repair company in the country, is asking its customers, business partners and the public to ‘fill ‘er up’ by donating grocery bags full of food during its 7th Annual Rhythm Restoration Food Drive, starting now through May 11.

Donations from Caliber's food drive locally in Alameda County will help stock the shelves of the Second Harvest Food Bank of Santa Clara and San Mateo county during the summer months when many children who typically rely on school lunches go hungry when school is out.

“We’re asking our communities to help us fill local food banks and fill those kids’ tanks, so they do not spend the summer running on empty,” said Steve Grimshaw, Caliber Collision CEO. “At Caliber, our purpose is to restore the rhythm of life for our customers and we are equally committed to help restore the rhythm of regular meals for at-risk children over the summer.”

Collection centers for food donations are located at Caliber's locations. Online donations can be made at CaliberDonations.com. To locate the nearest Caliber Collision to donate food items, visit CaliberCollision.com

ORDINANCE NO. 11-2018

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF FREMONT Amending Fremont Municipal Code SECTION 12.35.020, TO ESTABLISH utility underground District 37 – PERALTA BOULEVARD FROM FREMONT BOULEVARD TO SEQUOIA ROAD THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF FREMONT DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.

The City Council finds and declares as follows: The City's public works staff has consulted with Pacific Gas & Electric (PG&E) and have agreed that the proposed Utility Underground District, designated as Utility Underground District 37, meets the California Public Utility Commission's criteria for establishment of utility underground districts. On January 17, 2017, PG&E and staff conducted an informational meeting in the field regarding establishment of Utility Underground District 37 for the benefit of affected utilities. Replacement of existing overhead electrical facilities with underground electrical facilities along public streets and roads within the areas designated as Utility Underground District 37 is in the public interest because:

1. The portion of Peralta Boulevard to be included in Utility Underground District No. 37 is extensively used by the general public and carries a heavy volume of pedestrian and vehicular traffic.

2. The portion of Peralta Boulevard to be included in Utility Underground District No. 37 is considered an arterial street or major collector as defined in the Governor's Office of Planning and Research General Plan Guidelines.

Wheelchair access is in the public interest and has been considered as a basis for defining the boundaries of the undergrounding projects within Underground District No. 37 that otherwise qualify for Rule 20A funding. The City has provided written notice to all affected property owners and affected utilities within the proposed Utility Underground District 37 of the public hearing to discuss formation of the proposed district. The City also published notice in the Tri-City Voice on March 27, 2018 regarding the public hearing to discuss formation of the proposed district. The City Council held a public hearing regarding establishment of Utility Underground District 37 on April 10, 2018, at which all persons wishing to be heard were given an opportunity to be heard and the Council considered the staff recommendation, public comment and any and all objections raised by the owners of property within the proposed district. Section 2, SECTION 12.35.020, AMENDED Fremont Municipal Code Section 12.35.020 entitled, "Establishment" is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 12.35.020 Establishment.

[Text preceding section (a) remains unchanged and (a) – (j) text remains unchanged]

(kk) District No. 37.

All that property situated in the State of California, County of Alameda, City of Fremont, and within the boundary along Peralta Boulevard between Fremont Boulevard and Sequoia Road as depicted in Figure 12.35.020 (kk) entitled, "Utility Underground District No. 37 – Peralta Boulevard from Fremont Boulevard to Sequoia Road."

[Insert figure 12.35.020 (kk)]

Every person maintaining any overhead electric power or communication pole, wire, facility or other structure in the above described Utility Underground District, except as provided in this chapter, is hereby required to remove and replace the same within an underground system as required by this chapter.

The City Council hereby orders the removal of all poles, overhead wires and associated overhead structures, and the underground installation of wires and facilities for supplying electric, communication or similar or associated service within Utility Underground District No. 37 on or before February 28, 2020.

SECTION 3. UNCODIFIED PROVISION REGARDING USE OF rule 20A funds.

The City Council directs Pacific Gas and Electric to use the Rule 20A underground conversion allocation computed pursuant to decisions of the California Public Utilities Commission for the purpose of providing to each premises requiring it in Utility Underground District 37 a maximum of one hundred feet of individual electric service trenching and conductor (as well as backfill, paving and conduit, if required) and up to a maximum amount of $1,500 per service entrance excluding permit fees for the cost of conversion of the on-site electrical panel to receive underground service. Each other serving utility shall provide service trenching and conductor in accordance with its rules and tariffs on file with the California Public Utilities Commission or as required by its Franchise Agreement with the City.

The City Council approves and authorizes the City Manager to execute a Panel Conversion Agreement with PG&E for Utility Underground District 37, which directs Pacific Gas and Electric to use Rule 20A funds to perform and pay for panel conversion work for each premises in excess of the $1,500 allowance allocation.

SECTION 4. NOTICE

The City Council directs the Public Works Director to notify all affected utilities and all persons owning real property within Utility Underground District 37 within 30 days of the adoption of this Ordinance as provided in Fremont Municipal Code Section 12.35.080.

Section 5. CEQA

The City Council finds that this ordinance is exempt from the requirements of the California

Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) pursuant to Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations, Section 15302(d) as it is a project to convert existing overhead electrical utility distribution facilities to underground facilities and the surface will be restored to the condition existing prior to the conversion. The Council therefore directs that a Notice of Exemption be filed with the Alameda County Clerk in accordance with the CEQA guidelines.

Section 6. SEVERABILITY

If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance is for any reason held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such a decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance. The City Council of the City of Fremont hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance and each section or subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared invalid.

This Ordinance shall take effect and will be enforced thirty (30) days after its adoption.

Section 8. PUBLICATION AND POSTING

This ordinance must be published once in a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in Alameda County and circulated in the City of Fremont, within fifteen (15) days after its adoption.

The foregoing ordinance was introduced before the City Council of the City of Fremont at the regular meeting of the City Council, held on the 10th day of April, 2018 and finally adopted at a regular meeting of the City Council held on the 17th day of April, 2018 by the following vote:

All right, title, and interest conveyed to and now held by the trustee in the hereinafter described property under and pursuant to a Deed of Trust described as: More fully described in said Deed of Trust. Street Address or other common designation of real property: 40237 Davis Court, Fremont, CA 94538 A.P.N.: 525-0964-003-00 The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address or other common designation, if any, shown above. The sale will be made, but without covenant or warranty, expressed or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the remaining principal sum of the note(s) secured by the Deed of Trust with interest thereon, as provided in said note(s), advances, under the terms of said Deed of Trust, fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee for the total amount of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is: $ 605,517.13. Note: Because the Beneficiary reserves the right to bid less than the total debt owed, it is possible that at the time of the sale the opening bid may be less than the total debt. The beneficiary of the Deed of Trust has executed and delivered to the undersigned a written request to commence foreclosure, and the undersigned caused a Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located. NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on this property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you

Community Summit on Firearms and Safety

SUBMITTED BY JANICE ROMBECK FOR
SUPERVISOR DAVE CORTESE

We all know that the best solutions to the challenges we face come from the community—especially when we work together.

Please join me and other community members at the County of Santa Clara Community Summit on Firearms and Safety on Saturday, April 28, at the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds. Entry and parking are free, and a continental breakfast and boxed lunch will be provided. We will have translators for those who wish to participate in a language other than English.

This is not a townhall meeting! Participants will be expected to roll up their sleeves and begin working together in professionally facilitated roundtable discussions from beginning to end.

The event will be hosted by my office and the County of Santa Clara, with support from key partners from different perspectives on firearms and safety. We hope to draw a diverse array of participants, viewpoints and ideas in order to have a balanced dialogue. We’ll cover a broad spectrum of topics, from gang violence prevention to school safety, from suicide prevention to legal rights and duties of residents – wherever they stand on firearms related issues, and lots more.

Participants will be asked to commit to engaging in civil discourse about difficult issues. A final report of the findings and recommendations may be shared with the Board of Supervisors at a later date and will be shared with our community at large. We will be able to incorporate many ideas into the report, and all opinions will be shared with other communities throughout the County and beyond. Join your neighbors, share your views, and design next step action for your community

All we need for you to do is to register at:

<https://www.sccgov.org/sites/d3/events/firarms-safety-summit/Pages/register.aspx>.

If you would like to volunteer the day of the summit, please sign-up at: <https://www.sccgov.org/sites/d3/events/firarms-safety-summit/Pages/volunteer.aspx>

Dynamic guitar duo at Mission Coffee

SUBMITTED BY BRASK CONCERTS

The Waybacks, Houston Jones – Steve Coyle and Glenn Houston have started and quit more great bands than you can shake a mic at. So right-side up fingerpicking Coyle and upside-down flatpicking Houston just naturally joined up and formed a duo – The Quitters.

Coyle’s dad ran a radio station and brought home LPs like the Ventures’ “Guitar Freakout” and “The Chipmunks Sing the Beatles’ Hits.” Bluegrass musician David Lindley lived next door and gave Coyle his first lessons; Granny was a vaudeville pianist, while Coyle’s mother was in mandolin orchestras in the 1930s.

Before running away to join the Royal Lichtstein Circus, Coyle got degrees in theatre and theology at Santa Clara University. Three years later he became an actor/stage manager for San Jose Repertory Theatre. He was involved in several collaborations over the years including folk parody/tribute band The Foremen and comedy duo The Reagan Bros. Coyle continued acting in the Bay Area and played in the folk duo The Frontmen. He co-founded the Waybacks in 1999 and fronted that band through 2007. During that time, they released four albums; played major festivals like Merlefest, Grey Fox, Floydfest, and Hardly Strictly Bluegrass; toured Australia and collaborated with Lloyd Maines, Michelle Shocked, and Bob Weir of the Grateful Dead.

Glenn Houston has been voted Best Guitarist by the Northern California Bluegrass Society, is a past judge of the National Flatpicking Guitar Championship in Winfield, Kansas, and was the founding lead guitarist of the Waybacks, co-founder and long-time lead guitarist for Bammie (Bay Area Music Award) winners Hearts on Fire and co-founder and long-time lead guitarist for the Americana quintet Houston Jones.

Originally from New Jersey, Houston’s guitarist influences range from Albert King and Michael Bloomfield to Doc Watson and James Burton. These influences show in his mastery of both acoustic and electric guitar.

Over the years Houston has shared billing with such luminaries as Emmylou Harris, Merle Haggard, the Tubes, The David Grisman Quintet, the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Bela Fleck, Tim O’Brien, Hank Williams Jr., Steve Earle, John Hartford, Earl Scruggs, Doc and Merle Watson, Willie Nelson, Waylon Jennings, and Delbert McClinton. He has been the lead guitarist for country great Johnny Paycheck, and has performed and recorded with Grammy winner Ramblin’ Jack Elliott. Houstons’s classical background includes choral vocal performances with the Los Angeles Philharmonic and the Boston Symphony.

The Quitters deliver a performance spiced with humor and serendipity. They may not stick together for long, but for as long as they do, wow, are they a pair of great guitar players and you will get to hear them on the Mission Coffee stage, Saturday, April 28.

Learn about Falun Gong

SUBMITTED BY MAY MORGAN

Falun Gong, also known as Falun Dafa, is a traditional self-cultivation method to improve mind and body. The practice is guided by universal principles of truthfulness, compassion, and tolerance. Susan Law, a medical device assembler, and several other locals meet regularly to practice Falun Gong at Fremont’s Central Park. Before practicing Falun Gong, Law had migraine headaches, was in constant pain. She insists that Falun Gong cured her of pain and gave her energy. “By doing the exercises, I feel energetic,” says Law. “I don’t feel tired anymore. I also learned how to treat other people with compassion and tolerance.”

The public is invited to practice Falun Gong at the Fremont Central Park performance pavilion (by the Senior Center) on Saturdays and Sundays from 7:55 a.m. to 10:15 a.m. The group is also planning a free introductory workshop this month at Fremont Main Library on April 28.

Plant and garden enthusiasts will want to mark Sunday, May 6 on their calendar. That’s when the Environmental Club at San Lorenzo High School will hold its popular annual Native Plant Sale, which is not to be missed. The event will include more than 60 different species of plants; more than 500 plants propagated by the students available for purchase. In addition, representatives from the California Native Plant Society, and Landscape Designer Sandra Navala-Lee will be on hand to answer questions and give advice.

Visitors also will have a chance to talk to East Bay MUD staff who will explain their rebate program, which can add up to $2,000 for a homeowner who converts their lawn to a low water use garden. Stop Waste will show how to make the lawn conversion the cheap and easy way by sheet mulching. Handout materials will be available on all these topics.

During the event, students will guide visitors through their 20-year-old one-acre Native Garden, so they can see what plants will look like when they mature. Other activities will include a “Make ‘n Take” wildflower event, and a presentation by Joe’s Honey that will give visitors a peek into the world of bees with their transparent beehive.

Finally, a separate “Bringing Back the Natives” garden tour is planned which will include more than 30 gardens throughout Alameda & Contra Costa Counties. For a small fee, those who register for the tour can receive a color guidebook of all the gardens with descriptions, directions, and special garden talks and features of each garden. Textures galore with colored pencil

SUBMITTED BY GAIL NOETH

Golden Hills Art Association will host Denise Howard who holds a BA in Art, a BS in Math/Computer Science from Truman State University, and an MS in Computer Science from Ohio State University. She worked for several Silicon Valley companies, was one of the developers of iPhoto at Apple, and earned movie credits on Antz and Shrek at PDI/DreamWorks.

Once she committed to pursuing art as a second career in 2010, she quickly earned regional, national and international recognition and awards for her realist colored pencil and graphite work. The author of 101 Textures in Colored Pencil from Walter Foster Publishing, she has been featured in Colored Pencil Magazine, Ann Kullberg's COLOR magazine, has work published in several books, and is popular as a workshop presenter. She is a signature member of the Colored Pencil Society of America, the UK Colored Pencil Society, and the Pencil Art Society, and is the national Marketing Director for CPSA.

"I aim to engage the viewer in a longer, closer look to see beauty in the details of my subjects, says Howard. "People usually don't notice such details unless they are in artwork, so by including them in my art, I encourage the viewer to notice and appreciate them in the real world, too. I work in graphite, colored pencil and pastels because they offer the degree of control I require to produce rich detail. My artwork is never a mere copy of a reference photo. I take liberties to make my vision of the scene.

"Textures Galore with Colored Pencil' isn't specific to colored pencil. I talk about what texture is and why it's important; I delve into how to see (not just look), analyze textures, determine what tools and techniques to use, and take all that to the drawing board or easel and create a realistic texture. I use colored pencil as my medium, but as I said, this approach applies to any medium."

MY CHOICE IS WTMF,

because I have an entire network of specialists to help me treat my patients.

Doctors join the Washington Township Medical Foundation (WTMF) for lots of reasons. Dr. Vanessa Wilson always enjoyed the challenge of Internal Medicine because “it’s an investigational discipline requiring that a physician understand all the body’s systems, analyze the patient’s problem and formulate the correct treatment.” Being part of WTMF makes it easier to connect with both her patients and their other doctors on EPIC, and confer with any of her colleagues about patient care. She treats a wide variety of patients—many with multi-organ issues—and likes getting consults quickly from physicians she knows and trusts while maintaining continuity of care between providers. That’s one reason why Dr. Wilson recommends WTMF to all her friends and family members. “WTMF is very selective about their doctors. Everyone follows high care standards and practices evidence-based medicine.” Does your doctor choose WTMF?

Part of Washington Hospital

Because WTMF is an integral part of the Washington Hospital Healthcare System, we have immediate access to the system’s wide array of advanced healthcare services, whenever you need them. This includes their highly awarded inpatient and outpatient facilities and specialty centers.

Washington MyChart

is an online resource which allows our patients to see their personal health information in a safe, secure and private manner. Accessible from your mobile or desktop device, you can view your test results, prescriptions, allergies, immunizations, and other portions of your health record. You can also send a message to your doctor’s office, schedule an appointment, or request a referral.

WTMF's Network of Clinics

Our skilled physicians and staff see their patients at conveniently located Primary Care, Urgent Care and Specialty Care Centers throughout the East Bay. These include Clinics in Union City, Newark, Fremont and Warm Springs.
